Dear Friend:

We the People own the government. Political campaigns are simply job applications. As voters we have two essential responsibilities: to hire our employees wisely, demanding that they give us a resume and tell us how they will do the job if elected; and to keep track of them after they are elected, to make sure they are doing the job we hired them to do.

However, opinionated news media and vindictive political leaders have captured OUR American political culture. Every American knows it has become a mess. We cannot let the death of reason, responsibility and civility be our legacy.

Fed up with the charade that now passes for factual information from tainted sources and selfish political interests, thousands of citizens are coming together to build a Voter's Self-Defense System. Voters, both conservative and liberal alike, can turn to it in absolute confidence for abundant, accurate, factual information about those who govern and those who wish to replace them.

This is our watch and what is happening is our responsibility. What are you willing to do about it?

Please join Project Vote Smart (see pages 6 & 7) and contribute if you can. Even if you can't help financially, above all, USE this resource to defend yourself and the nation from the self-serving, manipulative tactics that have overwhelmed our political process. What we do and how we do it will surprise you.

The U.S. Government Owner's Manual provides a reliable, nonpartisan guide to your government. It is just a tiny snapshot of the enormous Voter's Self-Defense System our interns and volunteers have created. They could use your help!

UNITED STATES SENATE

This section provides office information, contact information, key votes, interest group ratings, and campaign contributions for each of the 100 U.S. Senators. Also included is a measure of the official's willingness to provide his or her issue positions through Project Vote Smart's Political Courage Test. The senators are listed in alphabetical order by their state's abbreviation.

Office Information

Next to each senator's name is his or her party affiliation. Abbreviations for party affiliations are: Democratic (D); Democratic/Farmer/Labor (DFL); Democratic Non-Partisan League (DNPL); Independent (I); Independent Democrat (ID); and Republican (R). Senators with an asterisk (*) after their name are eligible for re-election in 2010. Underneath the name is whether the senator holds the Junior or Senior Seat in that state.

Contact Information

The contact information listed includes: 1) Washington, DC office phone number, 2) Washington, DC office fax number, and 3) an email or webmail address. If a senator does not have an email, the website address for their webmail form is listed instead. A webmail form allows you to contact a senator via their website. To access the webmail form, enter the provided address into a web browser.

You can also write to a senator at this general address:

Office of Senator (Full Name)
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Additional contact information for senators can be obtained through our website at www.votesmart.org or by calling our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-VoteSmart (1-888-868-3762).

Political Courage Test

The Political Courage Test asks candidates one central question: "Are you willing to tell citizens your positions on the issues you will most likely face on their behalf?" Each election, Project Vote Smart organizes an effort of over 200 media organizations and political leaders who write, call, and repetitiously encourage each candidate to provide this essential information.

Senators with "Has Political Courage" listed after their seat were willing to provide citizens with their issue positions on the Political Courage Test at the time of their last election. Senators with "No Political Courage" listed after their seat refused to provide citizens with their issue positions on the Political Courage Test at the time of their last election. "Unknown Political Courage" refers to those officials who have not yet had the opportunity to fill out the Political Courage Test.

2010 congressional candidates will be issued the Political Courage Test prior to the general election in November. For the first time, if a candidate fails to demonstrate Political Courage on key issue questions, Project Vote Smart will determine the candidate's likely positions from his or her public statements, legislative record, and interest group ratings. Project Vote Smart's new VoteEasy tool will allow citizens to see how well they match up with the positions of their candidates.

Comprehensive results for all candidates for congressional, gubernatorial, and state legislative offices can be obtained through our website at www.votesmart.org or by calling our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-VoteSmart (1-888-868-3762).

Key Votes

Project Vote Smart provides easy access to the voting records of U.S. Senators and maintains a collection of key votes grouped by issue. Key votes typically include the initial passage of legislation, controversial amendments, and the final conference report votes. Project Vote Smart uses the following criteria to select key votes:

- The vote should be helpful in portraying how a Senator stands on a particular issue
- The vote was passed or defeated by a very close margin
- The vote has received national media attention
- The vote should be clear for any person to understand
- A specific bill is consistently inquired about on the PVS Hotline

Key votes summaries are written by Project Vote Smart staff and go through an approval process with political scientists of opposing viewpoints reviewing both the selection and the content. This is to ensure clarity, relevance, nonpartisanship, and accuracy.

Below are the descriptions of the 17 U.S. Senate key votes that are included in this publication. The numbers correspond with the column number of the senator's listing. For each vote, the central issue of the bill is highlighted, but many bills encompass more than one issue. For additional details, visit our website at www.votesmart.org or call our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-VoteSmart (1-888-868-3762). A reference key is provided on the top of each page.

Note: A Senator may move to table any pending legislation or question the Senate does not wish to consider further. The motion is not debatable, and agreement to the motion is equivalent to defeating the legislation or question.*

Note: This legislation required a 3/5 majority vote to pass.*

Interest Group Ratings

Project Vote Smart collects performance evaluations from special interest groups regardless of the issue or bias of the organization. Most ratings reflect how often members of Congress or state legislators have voted with the organization's preferred position on legislation that the group considers key in their area. Some organizations may also consider other actions such as committee votes, bill sponsorships, or answers to a questionnaire in their ratings. Additionally, some groups may select votes that tend to favor members of one political party over another, rather than choosing votes based solely on issue-related concerns.

Special interest group ratings can be used to find out how your elected officials were ranked by those groups you either agree or disagree with. If your concerns do not align with those of any particular special interest group, ratings can still be useful by helping indicate where an incumbent has stood on a particular set of issues in the past few years. They can be especially useful when ratings by groups on all sides of an issue are compared.

For consistency, Project Vote Smart has converted all ratings to percentages for this publication. If a rating was not available for a senator, (NA) is listed in place of a rating.

Listed below is a sampling of interest group ratings selected from the more than 100 groups in Project Vote Smart's database. The years listed in parentheses after the name of the organization indicate what year or years of actions the organization considered when producing the rating. The numbers correspond with the column number of the senator's listing.

Campaign Contributions

The following campaign finance data for the U.S. Senate was provided by the Center for Responsive Politics (www.opensecrets.org). This data is for 2005-April 25, 2010. This only includes the contributions made to Senate campaigns; if a senator ran for another elected office, those contributions are not included in the totals.

Below are the 6 categories of campaign contributions that are listed for each senator.

1. Total Contributions:

Total contributions received, as reported to the Federal Elections Commission (FEC).

2. Total Individual Contributions:

Total contributions made by individuals, as reported to the FEC.

3. Total Political Action Committee (PAC) Contributions:

Total contributions made by PACs and other candidates' committees, as reported to the FEC.

4. Total Finance, Insurance, and Real Estate (F/I/R) PAC Contributions:

Includes banks, stock brokerage and investment firms, insurance and real estate companies, accountants, commodities brokers, and all other financial services.

5. Total Health PAC Contributions:

Includes doctors and health care providers, pharmaceutical companies, hospitals, nursing homes, and health service providers such as HMOs. (Insurance providers are found under the Finance, Insurance, and Real Estate (F/I/R) PACs heading).

6. Total Labor PAC Contributions:

Includes all varieties of labor union PACs.

Additional campaign contribution information specific to industries, PACs, and individual contributions, as well as personal financial profiles of candidates are available at both the federal and state level through our website at www.votesmart.org or by calling our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-Votesmart (1-888-868-3762).

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This section provides office information, contact information, key votes, interest group ratings, and campaign contributions for each U.S. Representative. Also included is a measure of the official's willingness to provide his or her issue positions through Project Vote Smart's Political Courage Test. The representatives are listed in alphabetical order by their state's abbreviation.

Office Information

Next to each representative's name is his or her party affiliation. Abbreviations for party affiliations are: Democratic (D); Democratic/Farmer/Labor (DFL); Democratic Non-Partisan League (DNPL); and Republican (R). District numbers can be found directly underneath each representative's name. All U.S. House districts are up for election in 2010.

Political Courage Test

The Political Courage Test asks candidates one central question: "Are you willing to tell citizens your positions on the issues you will most likely face on their behalf?" Each election, Project Vote Smart organizes an effort of over 200 media organizations and political leaders who write, call, and repetitiously encourage each candidate to provide this essential information.

Representatives with "Has Political Courage" listed after their district were willing to provide citizens with their issue positions on the Political Courage Test at the time of their last election. Representatives with "No Political Courage" listed after their district refused to provide citizens with their issue positions on the Political Courage Test at the time of their last election. "Unknown Political Courage" refers to those officials who have not yet had the opportunity to fill out the Political Courage Test.

2010 congressional candidates will be issued the Political Courage Test prior to the general election in November. For the first time, if a candidate fails to demonstrate Political Courage on key issue questions, Project Vote Smart will determine the candidate's likely positions from his or her public statements, legislative record, and interest group ratings. Our new online "Vote Smart" tool will allow citizens to easily see how well they match up with the positions of their candidates.

Comprehensive results for all candidates for congressional, gubernatorial, and state legislative offices can be obtained through our website at www.votesmart.org or by calling our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-VoteSmart (1-888-868-3762).

Key Votes

Project Vote Smart provides easy access to the voting records of U.S. Representatives and maintains a collection of key votes grouped by issue. Key votes typically include the initial passage of legislation, controversial amendments, and the final conference report votes.

Project Vote Smart uses the following criteria to select key votes:

- The vote should be helpful in portraying how a representative stands on a particular issue
- The vote was passed or defeated by a very close margin
- The vote has received national media attention
- The vote should be clear for any person to understand
- A specific bill is consistently inquired about on the PVS Hotline

Key votes summaries are written by Project Vote Smart staff and go through an approval process with political scientists of opposing viewpoints reviewing both the selection and the content. This is to ensure clarity, relevance, nonpartisanship, and accuracy.

Below are the descriptions of the 17 U.S. House of Representatives key votes that are included in this publication. The numbers correspond with the column number of the representative's listing. For each vote, the central issue of the bill is highlighted, but many bills encompass more than one issue. For additional details, visit our website at www.votesmart.org or call our Voter's Research Hotline at 1-888-VoteSmart (1-888-868-3762). A reference key is provided on the top of each page.

Interest Group Ratings

Project Vote Smart collects performance evaluations from special interest groups regardless of the issue or bias of the organization. Most ratings reflect how often members of Congress or state legislators have voted with the organization's preferred position on legislation that the group considers key in their area. Some organizations may also consider other actions such as committee votes, bill sponsorships, or answers to a questionnaire in their ratings. Additionally, some groups may select votes that tend to favor members of one political party over another, rather than choosing votes based solely on issue-related concerns.

Special interest group ratings can be used to find out how your elected officials were ranked by those groups you either agree or disagree with. If your concerns do not align with those of any particular special interest group, ratings can still be useful by helping indicate where an incumbent has stood on a particular set of issues in the past few years. They can be especially useful when ratings by groups on all sides of an issue are compared.

For consistency, Project Vote Smart has converted all ratings to percentages for this publication. If a rating was not available for a representative, (NA) is listed in place of a rating.

Listed below is a sampling of interest group ratings selected from the more than 100 groups in Project Vote Smart's database. The years listed in parentheses after the name of the organization indicate what year or years of actions the organization considered when producing the rating. The numbers correspond with the column number of the representative's listing.
