AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to violations of provisions prohibiting third-party restaurant reservation services from arranging unauthorized restaurant reservations with food service establishments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 391-w of the general business law, 2 as added by a chapter of the laws of 2024 amending the general business law relating to prohibiting third-party restaurant reservation services from arranging unauthorized restaurant reservations with food service establishments, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 9365-A and A. 10215-A, is amended to read as follows:

- 3. Any person who violates, or causes another person to violate, a 8 provision of this section [or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto], shall be subject to a civil penalty that shall not exceed one thousand 10 dollars for each violation. Violations by third-party restaurant reser-11 vation services under this section shall accrue on a daily basis for each day and for each food service establishment with respect to which a violation of this section [er any rule promulgated pursuant to this section] was committed. [A proceeding to recover any civil penalty or 15 restitution authorized pursuant to this section may be brought within any agency of the state designated to conduct such proceedings.
- 17 § 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same 18 manner as a chapter of the laws of 2024 amending the general business 19 law relating to prohibiting third-party restaurant reservation services 20 from arranging unauthorized restaurant reservations with food service 21 establishments, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 9365-A and 22 A. 10215-A, takes effect.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
