district's state share percentage, as defined in section 3317.02 65104
of the Revised Code; 65105

(ii) For fiscal year ~~2025~~2027, the greater of ~~forty-one-~~ 65106
~~and two-thirds-fifty~~ per cent or the district's state share 65107 percentage. 65108

(2) For fiscal year ~~2026-2028~~ and each fiscal year 65109 thereafter, an amount determined by the general assembly. 65110

(F) For fiscal years ~~2024-2026~~ and ~~2025~~2027, the 65111 department shall pay a district's efficiency adjustment payment 65112 in accordance with divisions (F) (1) to (3) of this section. For 65113 fiscal year ~~2026-2028~~ and each fiscal year thereafter, the 65114 department shall pay a district's efficiency adjustment payment 65115
in a manner determined by the general assembly, if the general 65116 assembly authorizes such a payment to districts. 65117

(1) The department annually shall establish a target 65118 number of qualifying riders per assigned bus for each city, 65119 local, and exempted village school district. The department 65120 shall use the ~~most recently available~~ data from the previous 65121 fiscal year in establishing the target number. The target number 65122 shall be based on the statewide median number of riders per 65123 assigned bus as adjusted to reflect the district's density in 65124 comparison to the density of all other districts. The department 65125 shall post on the department's web site each district's target 65126 number of riders per assigned bus and a description of how the 65127 target number was determined. 65128

(2) The department shall determine each school district's 65129 efficiency index by dividing the district's number of riders per 65130 assigned bus by its target number of riders per assigned bus. 65131

(3) The department shall determine each city, local, and 65132 exempted village school district's efficiency adjustment payment 65133 as follows: 65134

(a) If the district's efficiency index is equal to or 65135 greater than 1.5, the efficiency adjustment payment shall be 65136 calculated according to the following formula: 65137

0.15 X the district's transportation base payment calculated 65138 under division (E) of this section 65139

(b) If the district's efficiency index is less than 1.5 65140 but greater than or equal to 1.0, the efficiency adjustment 65141 payment shall be calculated according to the following formula: 65142

{[(The district's efficiency index - 1) X 0.15]/0.5} X the 65143 district's transportation base payment calculated under division 65144
(E) of this section 65145

(c) If the district's efficiency index is less than 1.0, 65146
the efficiency adjustment payment shall be zero. 65147

(G) In addition to funds paid under divisions (E), (F), 65148 and (H) of this section, each city, local, and exempted village 65149 district shall receive in accordance with rules adopted by the 65150 department a payment for students transported by means other 65151 than school bus service and whose transportation is not funded 65152 under division (C) of section 3317.024 of the Revised Code. The 65153 rules shall include provisions for school district reporting of 65154 such students. 65155

(H) (1) For purposes of division (H) of this section, a 65156 school district's "transportation supplement percentage" means 65157
the following: 65158

(a) For fiscal years ~~2024-2026~~ and ~~2025~~2027, the following 65159
quotient: 65160

(28 - the district's rider density) / 100 65161

If the result of the calculation for a district under 65162 division (H) (1) (a) of this section is less than zero, the 65163 district's transportation supplement percentage shall be zero. 65164

(b) For fiscal year ~~2026-2028~~ and each fiscal year 65165 thereafter, a percentage calculated in a manner determined by 65166 the general assembly. 65167

(2) The department shall pay each district a 65168 transportation supplement calculated according to the following 65169 formula: 65170

The district's transportation supplement percentage X the amount 65171 calculated for the district under division (E) (1) (b) of this 65172 section X 0.55 65173

(I) (1) If a school district board and a community school 65174 governing authority elect to enter into an agreement under 65175 division (A) of section 3314.091 of the Revised Code, the 65176 department shall make payments to the community school according 65177 to the terms of the agreement for each student actually 65178 transported under division (C) (1) of that section. If a 65179 community school governing authority accepts transportation 65180 responsibility under division (B) of that section, the 65181 department shall make payments to the community school for each 65182 student actually transported or for whom transportation is 65183 arranged by the community school under division (C) (1) of that 65184 section, calculated as follows: 65185

(a) For any fiscal year which the general assembly has 65186 specified that transportation payments to school districts be 65187 based on an across-the-board percentage of the district's 65188 payment for the previous school year, the per pupil payment to 65189 the community school shall be the following quotient: 65190

(i) The total amount calculated for the school district in 65191 which the child is entitled to attend school for student 65192 transportation other than transportation of children with 65193 disabilities; divided by 65194

(ii) The number of students included in the district's 65195 transportation ADM for the current fiscal year, as calculated 65196 under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code, plus the number of 65197 students enrolled in the community school not counted in the 65198 district's transportation ADM who are transported under division 65199
(B) (1) or (2) of section 3314.091 of the Revised Code. 65200

(b) For any fiscal year which the general assembly has 65201 specified that the transportation payments to school districts 65202 be calculated in accordance with this section and any rules of 65203 the department implementing this section, the payment to the 65204 community school shall be the following: 65205

(i) For fiscal years ~~2024-2026~~ and ~~2025~~2027, either of the 65206
following: 65207

(I) If the school district in which the student is 65208 entitled to attend school would have used a method of 65209
and paid under division (E) of this section, 1.0 times the 65211 statewide transportation cost per student, as calculated in 65212
division (C) of this section; 65213

(II) If the school district in which the student is 65214
and paid in a manner described in division (G) of this section, 65217 the amount that would otherwise be computed for and paid to the 65218
district. 65219

(ii) For fiscal year ~~2026~~2028 and each fiscal year 65220 thereafter, an amount calculated in a manner determined by the 65221 general assembly. 65222

The community school, however, is not required to use the 65223 same method to transport the student. 65224

As used in this division, "entitled to attend school" 65225

(2) A community school shall be paid under division (I) (2) 65228 of this section only for students who are eligible as specified 65229 in section 3327.01 of the Revised Code and division (C) (1) of 65230 section 3314.091 of the Revised Code, and whose transportation 65231 to and from school is actually provided, who actually utilized 65232 transportation arranged, or for whom a payment in lieu of 65233 transportation is made by the community school's governing 65234 authority. To qualify for the payments, the community school 65235 shall report to the department, in the form and manner required 65236 by the department, data on the number of students transported or 65237 whose transportation is arranged, the number of miles traveled, 65238 cost to transport, and any other information requested by the 65239 department. 65240

Sec. 3317.0213. (A) The department of education and 65241 workforce shall compute and pay in accordance with this section 65242 additional state aid for preschool children with disabilities to 65243 each city, local, and exempted village school district and to 65244 each institution, as defined in section 3323.091 of the Revised 65245 Code. Funding shall be provided for children who are not 65246 enrolled in kindergarten and who are under age six on the 65247 thirtieth day of September of the academic year, or on the first 65248 day of August of the academic year if the school district in 65249 which the child is enrolled has adopted a resolution under 65250 division (A) (3) of section 3321.01 of the Revised Code, but not 65251 less than age three on the first day of December of the academic 65252 year. 65253

For fiscal years ~~2024-2026~~ and ~~2025~~2027, the additional 65254 state aid shall be calculated under the following formula: 65255

children with disabilities) + the sum of the following: 65257

(1) The district's or institution's category one special 65258
education students who are preschool children with disabilities 65259 X the multiple specified in division (A) of section 3317.013 of 65260
the Revised Code X the statewide average base cost per pupil for 65261
that fiscal year X the district's state share percentage X 0.50; 65262

(2) The district's or institution's category two special 65263
X the multiple specified in division (B) of section 3317.013 of 65265

(3) The district's or institution's category three special 65268
X the multiple specified in division (C) of section 3317.013 of 65270

(4) The district's or institution's category four special 65273
X the multiple specified in division (D) of section 3317.013 of 65275

(5) The district's or institution's category five special 65278
education students who are preschool children with disabilities 65279
X the multiple specified in division (E) of section 3317.013 of 65280

(6) The district's or institution's category six special 65283
education students who are preschool children with disabilities 65284
X the multiple specified in division (F) of section 3317.013 of 65285

For fiscal year ~~2026~~2028 and each fiscal year thereafter, 65288 the additional state aid shall be calculated for each category 65289 of special education students who are preschool children with 65290 disabilities using a formula specified by the general assembly. 65291

The special education disability categories for preschool 65292 children used in this section are the same categories prescribed 65293 in section 3317.013 of the Revised Code. 65294

As used in division (A) of this section, the state share percentage of a student enrolled in an institution is the state share percentage of the school district in which the student is entitled to attend school under section 3313.64 or 3313.65 of the Revised Code.

(B) If an educational service center is providing services to students who are preschool children with disabilities under agreement with the city, local, or exempted village school district in which the students are entitled to attend school, that district may authorize the department to transfer funds computed under this section to the service center providing those services.

(C) If a county DD board is providing services to students who are preschool children with disabilities under agreement with the city, local, or exempted village school district in which the students are entitled to attend school, the department shall deduct from the district's payment computed under division
(A) of this section the total amount of those funds that are attributable to the students served by the county DD board and pay that amount to that board.

Payment of the amount calculated for a school district 65383 under this section shall be made under division (A) of section 65384

(A) For each fiscal year, the department of education and 65386 workforce shall compute targeted assistance funds for city, 65387 local, and exempted village school districts, in accordance with 65388 the following formula: 65389

A district's capacity amount for that fiscal year 65390 calculated under division (B) of this section + a district's 65391 wealth amount for that fiscal year calculated under division (C) 65392
of this section 65393

(B) The department shall calculate each district's 65394 capacity amount for a fiscal year as follows: 65395

(1) Calculate each district's weighted wealth for that 65396 fiscal year, which equals the following sum: 65397

(The amount determined for the district for that fiscal year 65398 under division (A) (1) (a) of section 3317.017 of the Revised Code 65399 X 0.6) + (the amount determined for the district for that fiscal 65400 year under division (A) (2) (a) of section 3317.017 of the Revised 65401 Code X 0.4) 65402

(2) Determine the median weighted wealth of all school 65403 districts in this state for that fiscal year; 65404

(3) Compute each district's capacity index for that fiscal 65405 year by dividing the median weighted wealth of all school 65406 districts in this state for that fiscal year by the district's 65407 weighted wealth for that fiscal year; 65408

(4) Compute each district's capacity amount for that 65409 fiscal year as follows: 65410

(a) The district's capacity amount shall be zero if the 65411 district satisfies either of the following criteria for that 65412 fiscal year: 65413

(i) The district's capacity index is less than 1. 65414

(ii) The district's enrolled ADM is less than 200. 65415

(b) If the district does not satisfy either of the 65416 criteria specified in division (B) (4) (a) of this section for 65417 that fiscal year, the district's capacity amount for that fiscal 65418 year shall be calculated as follows: 65419

(i) Compute the following amount for the district: 65420

(The median weighted wealth of all school districts in this 65421 state for that fiscal year X 0.008) - (the district's weighted 65422 wealth for that fiscal year X 0.008) 65423

(ii) If the district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year 65424 is greater than or equal to 200 but less than or equal to 400, 65425 the district's capacity amount for that fiscal year shall be 65426 equal to 0.05 X the amount computed under division (B) (4) (b) (i) 65427

(iii) If the district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year 65429 is greater than 400 and less than 600, the district's capacity 65430 amount for that fiscal year shall be calculated in accordance 65431 with the following formula: 65432

$$\{[0.95 \times (\text{the district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year} - 65433$$ $$400)/200] + 0.05\} \times \text{the amount computed under division (B) (4) (b)} 65434$$

(i) of this section 65435

(iv) If the district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year 65436 is greater than or equal to 600, the district's capacity amount 65437 for that fiscal year shall be equal to the amount computed under 65438 division (B) (4) (b) (i) of this section. 65439

(C) The department shall calculate each district's wealth 65440 amount for a fiscal year as follows: 65441

(1) Calculate each district's weighted wealth per pupil 65442 for that fiscal year, which equals the following quotient: 65443

The district's weighted wealth for that fiscal year 65444 calculated under division (B) (1) of this section/ (the 65445 district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year - the students 65446 described in division (A) (1) (b) of section 3317.03 of the 65447 Revised Code + the students described in division (A) (2) (d) of 65448
section 3317.03 of the Revised Code) 65449

(2) Determine the median weighted wealth per pupil of all 65450 school districts in this state for that fiscal year; 65451

(3) Compute each district's wealth index for that fiscal 65452 year by dividing the median weighted wealth per pupil of all 65453 school districts in this state for that fiscal year by the 65454 district's weighted wealth per pupil for that fiscal year; 65455

(4) Compute each district's wealth amount for that fiscal 65456 year, as follows: 65457

(a) If the district's wealth index computed under division 65458
(C) (3) of this section for that fiscal year is less than 0.8, 65459
the district's wealth amount for that fiscal year shall be zero. 65460

(b) If the district's wealth index computed under division 65461
(C) (3) of this section for that fiscal year is greater than or 65462 equal to 0.8, the district's wealth amount for that fiscal year 65463 shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula: 65464

[(The median weighted wealth per pupil of all school districts 65465 in this state for that fiscal year X 0.014) - (the district's 65466 weighted wealth per pupil for that fiscal year X 0.0112)] X the 65467 district's enrolled ADM for that fiscal year 65468

Sec. 3317.03. (A) The superintendent of each city, local, 65469 and exempted village school district shall report to the 65470 department of education and workforce as of the last day of 65471 October, March, and June of each year the enrollment of students 65472 receiving services from schools under the superintendent's 65473 supervision, and the numbers of other students entitled to 65474 attend school in the district under section 3313.64 or 3313.65 65475 of the Revised Code the superintendent is required to report 65476 under this section, so that the department can calculate the 65477 district's enrolled ADM, formula ADM, total ADM, category one 65478 through five career-technical education ADM, category one 65479 through three English learner ADM, category one through six 65480

(1) The enrollment reported by the superintendent during 65484 the reporting period shall consist of the number of students in 65485 grades kindergarten through twelve receiving any educational 65486 services from the district, except that the following categories 65487 of students shall not be included in the determination: 65488

(a) Students enrolled in adult education classes; 65489

(b) Adjacent or other district students enrolled in the 65490 district under an open enrollment policy pursuant to section 65491

(c) Students receiving services in the district pursuant 65493 to a compact, cooperative education agreement, or a contract, 65494

When reporting students under division (A)(1) of this 65502 section, the superintendent also shall report the district where 65503 each student is entitled to attend school pursuant to sections 65504
3313.64 and 3313.65 of the Revised Code. 65505

(2) The department shall compile a list of all students 65506 reported to be enrolled in a district under division (A)(1) of 65507 this section and of the students entitled to attend school in 65508

Sec. 3318.051. (A) Any city, exempted village, or local 67669 school district that commences a project under sections 3318.01 67670 to 3318.20, 3318.36, 3318.37, or 3318.38 of the Revised Code on 67671 or after September 5, 2006, need not levy the tax otherwise 67672 required under division (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised 67673 Code, if the district board of education adopts a resolution 67674 petitioning the Ohio facilities construction commission to 67675 approve the transfer of money in accordance with this section 67676 and the commission approves that transfer. If so approved, the 67677 commission and the district board shall enter into an agreement 67678 under which the board, in each of twenty-three consecutive years 67679 beginning in the year in which the board and the commission 67680 enter into the project agreement under section 3318.08 of the 67681 Revised Code, shall transfer into the maintenance fund required 67682 by division (D) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code not less 67683 than an amount equal to one-half mill for each dollar of the 67684 district's valuation unless and until the agreement to make 67685 those transfers is rescinded by the district board pursuant to 67686 division (F) of this section. 67687

(B) On the first day of July each year, or on an 67688 alternative date prescribed by the commission, the district 67689 treasurer shall certify to the commission and the auditor of 67690 state that the amount required for the year has been 67691 transferred. The auditor of state shall include verification of 67692 the transfer as part of any audit of the district under section 67693 117.11 of the Revised Code. If the auditor of state finds that 67694 less than the required amount has been deposited into a 67695 district's maintenance fund, the auditor of state shall notify 67696 the district board of education in writing of that fact and 67697 require the board to deposit into the fund, within ninety days 67698 after the date of the notice, the amount by which the fund is 67699 deficient for the year. If the district board fails to 67700 demonstrate to the auditor of state's satisfaction that the 67701 board has made the deposit required in the notice, the auditor 67702 of state shall notify the department of education and workforce. 67703

At that time, the department shall withhold an amount equal to 67704 ten per cent of the district's funds calculated for the current 67705 fiscal year under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code until the 67706 ~~auditor of state~~ district notifies the department that the 67707 ~~auditor of state is satisfied that the board has made the~~ 67708 required transfer. 67709

(C) Money transferred to the maintenance fund shall be 67710 used for the maintenance or, upon approval of the Ohio 67711 facilities construction commission, upgrade of the facilities 67712 acquired under the district's project. 67713

(D) The transfers to the maintenance fund under this 67714 section does not affect a district's obligation to establish and 67715 maintain a capital and maintenance fund under section 3315.18 of 67716
the Revised Code. 67717

(E) Any decision by the commission to approve or not 67718 approve the transfer of money under this section is final and 67719 not subject to appeal. The commission shall not be responsible 67720 for errors or miscalculations made in deciding whether to 67721 approve a petition to make transfers under this section. 67722

(F) If the district board determines that it no longer can 67723 continue making the transfers agreed to under this section, the 67724 board may rescind the agreement only so long as the electors of 67725 the district have approved, in accordance with section 3318.063 67726 of the Revised Code, the levy of a tax for the maintenance of 67727 the classroom facilities acquired under the district's project 67728 and that levy continues to be collected as approved by the 67729 electors. That levy shall be for a number of years that is equal 67730 to the difference between twenty-three years and the number of 67731 years that the district made transfers under this section and 67732 shall be at the rate of not less than one-half mill for each 67733 dollar of the district's valuation. The district board shall 67734 continue to make the transfers agreed to under this section 67735 until that levy has been approved by the electors. 67736

Sec. 3318.06. (A) After receipt of the conditional 67737 approval of the Ohio facilities construction commission, the 67738 school district board by a majority of all of its members shall, 67739 if it desires to proceed with the project, declare all of the 67740 following by resolution: 67741

(1) That by issuing bonds in an amount equal to the school 67742 district's portion of the basic project cost the district is 67743 unable to provide adequate classroom facilities without 67744 assistance from the state; 67745

(2) Unless the school district board has resolved to 67746 transfer money in accordance with section 3318.051 of the 67747 Revised Code or to apply the proceeds of a property tax or the 67748 proceeds of an income tax, or a combination of proceeds from 67749 such taxes, as authorized under section 3318.052 of the Revised 67750 Code, that to qualify for such state assistance it is necessary 67751 to do either of the following: 67752

(a) Levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation the 67753 proceeds of which shall be used to pay the cost of maintaining 67754 and upgrading the classroom facilities included in the project. 67755
The use of the proceeds for upgrades is subject to the approval 67756 by the commission under division (E) of section 3318.05 of the 67757

(b) Earmark for maintenance of classroom facilities from 67759

the proceeds of an existing permanent improvement tax levied 67760 under section 5705.21 of the Revised Code, if such tax can be 67761 used for maintenance, an amount equivalent to the amount of the 67762 additional tax otherwise required under this section and 67763 sections 3318.05 and 3318.08 of the Revised Code. 67764

(3) That the question of any tax levy specified in a 67765 resolution described in division (A)(2)(a) of this section, if 67766 required, shall be submitted to the electors of the school 67767 district at the next general or primary election, if there be a 67768 general or primary election not less than ninety and not more 67769 than one hundred ten days after the day of the adoption of such 67770 resolution or, if not, at a special election to be held at a 67771 time specified in the resolution which shall be not less than 67772 ninety days after the day of the adoption of the resolution and 67773 which shall be in accordance with the requirements of section 67774
3501.01 of the Revised Code. 67775

Such resolution shall also state that the question of 67776 issuing bonds of the board shall be combined in a single 67777 proposal with the question of such tax levy. More than one 67778 election under this section may be held in any one calendar 67779 year. Such resolution shall specify both of the following: 67780

(a) That the rate which it is necessary to levy shall be 67781 at the rate of not less than one-half mill for each one dollar 67782 of taxable value, and that such tax shall be levied for a period 67783 of twenty-three years; 67784

(b) That the proceeds of the tax shall be used to pay the 67785 cost of maintaining the classroom facilities included in the 67786 project or upgrading those facilities if approved by the 67787 commission. 67788

(B) A copy of a resolution adopted under division (A) of 67789 this section shall after its passage and not less than ninety 67790 days prior to the date set therein for the election be certified 67791 to the county board of elections. 67792

The resolution of the school district board, in addition 67793 to meeting other applicable requirements of section 133.18 of 67794 the Revised Code, shall state that the amount of bonds to be 67795 issued will be an amount equal to the school district's portion 67796 of the basic project cost, and state the maximum maturity of the 67797 bonds which may be any number of years not exceeding the term 67798 calculated under section 133.20 of the Revised Code as 67799 determined by the board. In estimating the amount of bonds to be 67800 issued, the board shall take into consideration the amount of 67801 moneys then in the bond retirement fund and the amount of moneys 67802 to be collected for and disbursed from the bond retirement fund 67803 during the remainder of the year in which the resolution of 67804 necessity is adopted. 67805

If the bonds are to be issued in more than one series, the 67806 resolution may state, in addition to the information required to 67807 be stated under division (B) (3) of section 133.18 of the Revised 67808 Code, the number of series, which shall not exceed five, the 67809 principal amount of each series, and the approximate date each 67810 series will be issued, and may provide that no series, or any 67811 portion thereof, may be issued before such date. Upon such a 67812 resolution being certified to the county auditor as required by 67813 division (C) of section 133.18 of the Revised Code, the county 67814 auditor, in calculating, advising, and confirming the estimated 67815 average annual property tax levy under that division, shall also 67816 calculate, advise, and confirm by certification the estimated 67817 average property tax levy for each series of bonds to be issued. 67818

Notice of the election shall include the fact that the tax 67819 levy shall be at the rate of not less than one-half mill for 67820 each one dollar of taxable value for a period of twenty-three 67821 years, and that the proceeds of the tax shall be used to pay the 67822 cost of maintaining or upgrading the classroom facilities 67823 included in the project. The notice shall also express the rate 67824 in dollars for each one hundred thousand dollars of the county 67825 auditor's ~~appraised~~ market value and the county auditor's 67826 estimate of the amount the tax levy is estimated to collect for 67827 each tax year it is levied, as certified pursuant to section 67828
5705.03 of the Revised Code. 67829

board of education, when filing copies of the resolution with 67831 the board of elections as required by division (D) of section 67832 133.18 of the Revised Code, may direct the board of elections to 67833 include in the notice of election the principal amount and 67834 approximate date of each series, the maximum number of years 67835 over which the principal of each series may be paid, the 67836 estimated additional average property tax levy for each series, 67837 and the first calendar year in which the tax is expected to be 67838 due for each series, in addition to the information required to 67839 be stated in the notice under divisions (E) (3) (a), (b), (c), 67840
(e), and (f) of section 133.18 of the Revised Code. 67841

(C) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division (C) (2) of 67842 this section, the form of the ballot to be used at such election 67843 shall be: 67844

"A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage. 67845 series and the board of education so elects, the form of the 67877 ballot shall be as prescribed in section 3318.062 of the Revised 67878 Code. If the board of education elects the form of the ballot 67879 adopted under this section. 67881

(D) If it is necessary for the school district to acquire 67882 board may propose either to issue bonds of the board or to levy 67885 a tax to pay for the acquisition of such site, and may combine 67886 the question of doing so with the questions specified in 67887 division (B) of this section. Bonds issued under this division 67888 for the purpose of acquiring a site are a general obligation of 67889 the school district and are Chapter 133. securities. 67890

The form of that portion of the ballot to include the 67891 question of either issuing bonds or levying a tax for site 67892 acquisition purposes shall be one of the following: 67893

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 67919
division (B) of this section with the question of issuing bonds 67921 specified in that division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond 67923 Issues and the Tax Levy" and "Against the Bond Issues and the 67924 Tax Levy." 67925

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 67926
division (B) of this section with the question of levying a tax 67928 for the acquisition of a site, the question specified in that 67929 division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond Issue and the Tax 67930 Levies" and "Against the Bond Issue and the Tax Levies." 67931

Where the school district board chooses to combine the 67932 question in division (B) of this section with any of the 67933 additional questions described in divisions (A) to (D) of 67934 section 3318.056 of the Revised Code, the question specified in 67935 division (B) of this section to be voted on shall be "For the 67936 Bond Issues and the Tax Levies" and "Against the Bond Issues and 67937

the Tax Levies." 67938

If a majority of those voting upon a proposition hereunder 67939 which includes the question of issuing bonds vote in favor 67940 thereof, and if the agreement provided for by section 3318.08 of 67941 the Revised Code has been entered into, the school district 67942 board may proceed under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, with 67943 the issuance of bonds or bond anticipation notes in accordance 67944 with the terms of the agreement. 67945

Sec. 3318.061. This section applies only to school 67946 districts eligible to receive additional assistance under 67947 division (B) (2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. 67948

The board of education of a school district in which a tax 67949 described by division (B) of section 3318.05 and levied under 67950 section 3318.06 of the Revised Code is in effect, may adopt a 67951 resolution by vote of a majority of its members to extend the 67952 term of that tax beyond the expiration of that tax as originally 67953 approved under that section. The school district board may 67954 include in the resolution a proposal to extend the term of that 67955 tax at the rate of not less than one-half mill for each dollar 67956 of taxable value for a period of twenty-three years from the 67957 year in which the school district board and the Ohio facilities 67958 construction commission enter into an agreement under division 67959 (B) (2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code or in the 67960 following year, as specified in the resolution. Such a 67961 resolution may be adopted at any time before such an agreement 67962 is entered into and before the tax levied pursuant to section 67963

3318.06 of the Revised Code expires. If the resolution is 67964 combined with a resolution to issue bonds to pay the school 67965 district's portion of the basic project cost, it shall conform 67966 with the requirements of divisions (A) (1), (2), and (3) of 67967 section 3318.06 of the Revised Code, except that the resolution 67968 also shall state that the tax levy proposed in the resolution is 67969 an extension of an existing tax levied under that section. A 67970 resolution proposing an extension adopted under this section 67971 does not take effect until it is approved by a majority of 67972 electors voting in favor of the resolution at a general, 67973 primary, or special election as provided in this section. 67974

A tax levy extended under this section is subject to the 67975 same terms and limitations to which the original tax levied 67976 under section 3318.06 of the Revised Code is subject under that 67977 section, except the term of the extension shall be as specified 67978 who directly assists a teacher as defined in section 3319.09 of 68571 the Revised Code, by performing duties for which a license 68572 issued pursuant to sections 3319.22 to 3319.30 of the Revised 68573 Code is not required. 68574

(A) Except as provided in division (G) of this section, 68575 the state board of education shall issue educational aide 68576 permits and educational paraprofessional licenses for 68577 educational assistants and shall adopt rules for the issuance 68578 and renewal of such permits and licenses which shall be 68579 consistent with the provisions of this section. Educational aide 68580 permits and educational paraprofessional licenses may be of 68581 several types and the rules shall prescribe the minimum 68582 qualifications of education and health for the service to be 68583 authorized under each type. The prescribed minimum 68584 qualifications may require special training or educational 68585 courses designed to qualify a person to perform effectively the 68586 duties authorized under an educational aide permit or 68587 educational paraprofessional license. 68588

(B) (1) Except as provided in division (G) of this section, 68589 any application for a permit or license, or a renewal or 68590 accompanied by the payment of a fee in the amount established 68592 under division ~~(A)~~ (B) of section 3319.51 of the Revised Code. 68593 Any fees received under this division shall be paid into the 68594 occupational licensing and regulatory fund established in 68597

section 4743.05 of the Revised Code. 68598

(2) Any person applying for or holding a permit or license 68599 pursuant to this section is subject to sections 3123.41 to 68600

3123.50 of the Revised Code and any applicable rules adopted 68601 under section 3123.63 of the Revised Code and sections 3319.31 68602

(C) Educational assistants shall at all times while in the 68604 performance of their duties be under the supervision and 68605 direction of a teacher as defined in section 3319.09 of the 68606 Revised Code. Educational assistants may assist a teacher to 68607 whom assigned in the supervision of pupils, in assisting with 68608 the judgment of the teacher to whom the assistant is assigned, 68610 may be performed by a person not licensed pursuant to sections 68611 3319.22 to 3319.30 of the Revised Code and for which a teaching 68612

Revised Code is not required. The duties of an educational 68614 assistant shall not include the assignment of grades to pupils. 68615
The duties of an educational assistant need not be performed in 68616 the physical presence of the teacher to whom assigned, but the 68617 activity of an educational assistant shall at all times be under 68618 the direction of the teacher to whom assigned. The assignment of 68619 an educational assistant need not be limited to assisting a 68620 single teacher. In the event an educational assistant is 68621 assigned to assist more than one teacher the assignments shall 68622 be clearly delineated and so arranged that the educational 68623 assistant shall never be subject to simultaneous supervision or 68624 direction by more than one teacher. 68625

Educational assistants assigned to supervise children 68626 shall, when the teacher to whom assigned is not physically 68627 present, maintain the degree of control and discipline that 68628 would be maintained by the teacher. 68629

Educational assistants may not be used in place of 68630 classroom teachers or other employees and any payment of 68631 compensation by boards of education to educational assistants 68632 for such services is prohibited. The ratio between the number of 68633 licensed teachers and the pupils in a school district may not be 68634 decreased by utilization of educational assistants and no 68635 grouping, or other organization of pupils, for utilization of 68636 educational assistants shall be established which is 68637 inconsistent with sound educational practices and procedures. A 68638 school district may employ up to one full time equivalent 68639 educational assistant for each six full time equivalent licensed 68640 employees of the district. Educational assistants shall not be 68641 counted as licensed employees for purposes of state support in 68642 the school foundation program and no grouping or regrouping of 68643 pupils with educational assistants may be counted as a class or 68644 unit for school foundation program purposes. Neither special 68645 courses required by the regulations of the state board of 68646 education, prescribing minimum qualifications of education for 68647 an educational assistant, nor years of service as an educational 68648 assistant shall be counted in any way toward qualifying for a 68649 teacher license, for a teacher contract of any type, or for 68650 determining placement on a salary schedule in a school district 68651 as a teacher. 68652

(D) Educational assistants employed by a board of 68653 education shall have all rights, benefits, and legal protection 68654 available to other nonteaching employees in the school district, 68655 except that provisions of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code shall 68656 not apply to any person employed as an educational assistant, 68657 and shall be members of the school employees retirement system. 68658 Educational assistants shall be compensated according to a 68659 salary plan adopted annually by the board. 68660

Except as provided in this section nonteaching employees 68661 shall not serve as educational assistants without first 68662 obtaining an appropriate educational aide permit or educational 68663 paraprofessional license from the state board of education. A 68664 nonteaching employee who is the holder of a valid educational 68665 aide permit or educational paraprofessional license shall 68666 neither render nor be required to render services inconsistent 68667 with the type of services authorized by the permit or license 68668 held. No person shall receive compensation from a board of 68669 education for services rendered as an educational assistant in 68670 violation of this provision. 68671

Nonteaching employees whose functions are solely 68672 secretarial-clerical and who do not perform any other duties as 68673 educational assistants, even though they assist a teacher and 68674 work under the direction of a teacher shall not be required to 68675 hold a permit or license issued pursuant to this section. 68676

Following the determination of the assignment and general 68677 job description of an educational assistant and subject to 68678 supervision by the teacher's immediate administrative officer, a 68679 teacher to whom an educational assistant is assigned shall make 68680 all final determinations of the duties to be assigned to such 68681 assistant. Teachers shall not be required to hold a license 68682 designated for being a supervisor or administrator in order to 68683 perform the necessary supervision of educational assistants. 68684

(E) No person who is, or who has been employed as an 68685 educational assistant shall divulge, except to the teacher to 68686 whom assigned, or the administrator of the school in the absence 68687 of the teacher to whom assigned, or when required to testify in 68688 a court or proceedings, any personal information concerning any 68689 pupil in the school district which was obtained or obtainable by 68690 the educational assistant while so employed. Violation of this 68691 provision is grounds for disciplinary action or dismissal, or 68692 both. 68693

(F) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this 68694 section, the superintendent of a school district may allow an 68695 employee who does not hold a permit or license issued under this 68696 section to work as a substitute for an educational assistant who 68697 is absent on account of illness or on a leave of absence, or to 68698 fill a temporary position created by an emergency, provided that 68699 the superintendent believes the employee's application materials 68700 indicate that the employee is qualified to obtain a permit or 68701 license under this section. 68702

An employee shall begin work as a substitute under this 68703 division not earlier than on the date on which the employee 68704 files an application with the state board for a permit or 68705 license under this section. An employee shall cease working as a 68706 substitute under this division on the earliest of the following: 68707

(1) The date on which the employee files a valid permit or 68708 license issued under this section with the superintendent; 68709

(2) The date on which the employee is denied a permit or 68710

(3) Sixty days following the date on which the employee 68712 began work as a substitute under this division. 68713

The superintendent shall ensure that an employee assigned 68714 to work as a substitute under division (F) of this section has 68715 undergone a criminal records check in accordance with section 68716
3319.391 of the Revised Code. 68717

(G) The state board shall issue an educational aide permit 68718 or educational paraprofessional license in accordance with 68719 Chapter 4796. of the Revised Code to an applicant if either of 68720

the following applies: 68721

(1) The applicant holds a permit or license in another 68722

(2) The applicant has satisfactory work experience, a 68724 government certification, or a private certification as 68725 described in that chapter as an educational aide or educational 68726 paraprofessional in a state that does not issue that permit or 68727 license or both. 68728

Sec. 3319.111. Notwithstanding section 3319.09 of the 68729 Revised Code, this section applies to any person who is employed 68730 under a teacher license issued under this chapter, or under a 68731 professional or permanent teacher's certificate issued under 68732 former section 3319.222 of the Revised Code, and who spends at 68733 least fifty per cent of the time employed providing student 68734 instruction. However, this section does not apply to any person 68735 who is employed as a substitute teacher or as an instructor of 68736 adult education. 68737

(A) The board of education of each school district, in 68738 consultation with teachers employed by the board, shall update 68739 its standards-based teacher evaluation policy to conform with 68740 either the framework for evaluation of teachers adopted under 68741 section 3319.112 of the Revised Code or a framework created or 68742 adopted by the board. The policy shall become operative at the 68743 expiration of any collective bargaining agreement covering 68744 teachers employed by the board that is in effect on November 2, 68745 2018, and shall be included in any renewal or extension of such 68746 an agreement. 68747

(B) When using measures of student performance as evidence 68748 in a teacher's evaluation, those measures shall be high-quality 68749 student data. The board of education of each school district may 68750 use data from the assessments on the list developed under 68751 evaluation by the tenth day of May. 68759

(2) (a) The board may evaluate each teacher who received a 68760 rating of accomplished on the teacher's most recent evaluation 68761 conducted under this section once every three school years, so 68762 long as the teacher submits a self-directed professional growth 68763

in the observations and evaluation and the evaluator determines 68765
that the teacher is making progress on that plan. 68766

(b) The board may evaluate each teacher who received a 68767 rating of skilled on the teacher's most recent evaluation 68768 conducted under this section once every two years, so long as 68769 the teacher and evaluator jointly develop a professional growth 68770 plan for the teacher that focuses on specific areas identified 68771
that the teacher is making progress on that plan. 68773

(c) For each teacher who is evaluated pursuant to division 68774
(C) (2) of this section, the evaluation shall be completed by the 68775 first day of May of the applicable school year, and the teacher 68776

~~(e) The board may elect not to conduct an evaluation of a 68788 teacher who is participating in the teacher residency program 68789 established under section 3319.223 of the Revised Code for the 68790

plan. 68802

(D) Each evaluation conducted pursuant to this section 68803

Sec. 3320.04. Each school district board of education 69290 shall adopt a policy that reasonably accommodates the sincerely 69291 held religious beliefs and practices of individual students with 69292 regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and 69293 absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief 69294 system. The policy shall satisfy all of the following 69295 conditions: 69296

(A) The policy shall permit a student in any of grades 69297 kindergarten through twelve to be absent for up to three 69298 religious expression days each school year to take holidays for 69299 reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system or 69300 participate in organized activities conducted under the auspices 69301 of a religious denomination, church, or other religious or 69302 spiritual organization. The district shall not impose an 69303 academic penalty as a result of a student being absent as 69304 permitted in the policy. The policy shall also permit students 69305 to participate in interscholastic athletics or other 69306 extracurricular activities on days in which the student was 69307 otherwise absent for a religious expression day. 69308

(B) (1) The policy shall require that students be provided 69309 with alternative accommodations with regard to examinations and 69310 other academic requirements missed due to an absence described 69311 in division (A) of this section if not later than fourteen 69312 school days after the first day of school, or fourteen school 69313 days after the date of enrollment for a student who transfers to 69314 or enrolls in the district after the first day of school, the 69315 parent or guardian of a student provides the school principal 69316 with written notice of up to three specific dates for which 69317 alternative accommodations are requested, if an absence approved 69318 under division (B) (2) of this section conflicts with an 69319 examination or other academic requirement on that date. 69320

(2) The school principal shall approve not more than three 69321 written requests per school year from a student's parent or 69322 guardian for an excused absence under division (A) of this 69323 section. The school principal shall approve such requests 69324 without inquiry into the sincerity of a student's religious or 69325 spiritual belief system. However, the school principal may 69326 verify a request received under division (A) of this section by 69327 contacting the parent or guardian whose signature appears on the 69328 request. If a parent or guardian disputes having signed such a 69329 request, the school principal may deny the request. Upon 69330 approval of a request that satisfies division (B) (1) of this 69331 section, a school principal shall require the appropriate 69332 classroom teacher or teachers to schedule a time and date for an 69333 alternative examination or other academic requirement if the 69334 approved student absence creates a conflict, which may be before 69335 or after the time and date the examination or other academic 69336 requirement was originally scheduled. 69337

(C) The policy shall require the district board to post 69338 both of the following in a prominent location on the district's 69339 web site: 69340

(1) A copy of the policy adopted under this section, which 69341 shall include the contact information of an individual who can 69342 provide further information about the policy; 69343

(2) A nonexhaustive list of major religious holidays, 69344 festivals, and religious observations, which may include, Eid, 69345 Good Friday, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Passover, for which 69346 an excused absence under this section shall not be unreasonably 69347 withheld or denied. 69348

The director of education and workforce shall provide each 69349 district with a nonexhaustive list of major religious holidays 69350 or festivals for the next two school years, including Eid, Good 69351 Friday, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Passover, at the 69352 beginning of each school year. Each district may adopt the 69353 director's list in its entirety or choose which holidays to 69354 include on its list. 69355

Each time a district's policy is posted, printed, or 69356 published, including as described in divisions (C) and (D) of 69357 this section, the district shall include a statement that the 69358 list is nonexhaustive, and the list may not be used to deny 69359 accommodation to a student for a holiday or festival of the 69360 student's faith or religious or spiritual belief system that 69361 does not appear on the list. 69362

Nothing in this section, and no inclusion or exclusion of 69363 a religious holiday or festival on the list posted by a 69364 district, shall preclude a student from full and reasonable 69365 accommodations for any sincerely held religious beliefs and 69366 practices with regard to all examinations or other academic 69367 requirements and absences for reasons of faith or religious or 69368 spiritual belief system provided under this section. 69369

(D) The policy shall require school districts annually to 69370 convey to parents and guardians the policy adopted under this 69371 section, including a description of the general procedure for 69372 requesting accommodations. The manner in which the school 69373 district conveys the information shall be determined at the 69374 discretion of the district. 69375

(E) The policy shall include a procedure under which a 69376 student, parent, or guardian may notify the district of any 69377 grievance with regard to the implementation of the policy 69378 required under this section. 69379

(F) Any days excused under this section shall not be 69380 considered in determining absence hours for the purposes of 69381 parental notification under ~~division (C) (1) of~~ section 3321.191 69382

Sec. 3321.043. (A) As used in this section, "driver 69384 education course" means a private driver training course 69385 approved by the director of public safety in accordance with 69386 Chapter 4508. of the Revised Code. 69387

(B) If a high school student enrolled in a school district 69388 is absent from school for the sole purpose of attending a driver 69389 education course, the district shall count that absence as an 69390 excused absence, up to a maximum of eight hours for that 69391 student. The student shall only be absent for up to two hours 69392 per day for not more than four days in meeting the maximum eight 69393 hours authorized by this section. The days may be 69394 nonconsecutive. No student may be released from a core 69395 curriculum subject course to attend a driver education course. 69396

(C) The district shall require any student absent from 69397 school in accordance with this section to complete any classroom 69398 assignments that the student misses because of the absence. 69399

Sec. 3321.16. (A) An attendance officer or assistant 69400 provided for by section 3321.14 or 3321.15 of the Revised Code 69401 may investigate any case of nonattendance at school or part-time 69402 school of a child under eighteen years of age or supposed to be 69403 under eighteen years of age resident in the district for which 69404 such attendance officer or assistant is employed, or of any such 69405 child found in the district or enrolled in any school within the 69406 district and of any child above eighteen years of age if 69407 enrolled in any school within the district, and may take such 69408 action as the superintendent of schools directs or as such 69409 attendance officer or assistant deems proper in the absence of 69410 specific direction. 69411

section, the attendance officer shall file a complaint in the 69413 juvenile court against ~~a student on the sixty-first day after~~ 69414
~~the implementation of an absence intervention plan or other~~ 69415

(c) The student was absent without legitimate excuse from 69424 the public school the child is supposed to attend for seventy- 69425 two or more hours in a school year. 69426

~~(b) The school district or school has made meaningful~~ 69427
~~attempts to re-engage the student through the absence~~ 69428 ~~intervention plan, other intervention strategies, and any~~ 69429

~~offered alternatives to adjudication described under division~~ 69430
~~(C) (2) (b) of section 3321.191 of the Revised Code.~~ 69431

~~(c) The student has refused to participate in or failed to~~ 69432
~~make satisfactory progress on the plan, as determined by the~~ 69433 ~~absence intervention team, or any offered intervention~~ 69434 ~~strategies or alternative to adjudication.~~ 69435

~~(2) If the student, at any time during the implementation~~ 69436 ~~phase of the absence intervention plan or other intervention~~ 69437 ~~strategies, is absent without legitimate excuse for thirty or~~ 69438
~~more consecutive hours or forty-two or more hours in one school~~ 69439 ~~month, the attendance officer shall file a complaint in juvenile~~ 69440 ~~court against that student, unless the absence intervention team~~ 69441

~~the absence intervention plan~~ student's district or school 69443 determines that the student and the student's family are making 69444 satisfactory progress in improving the student's attendance at 69445 school, the attendance officer shall not file a complaint. 69446

~~(3) In the event that the sixty-first day after the~~ 69447

~~the plan and delay the filing of the complaint for an additional~~ 69452
~~thirty days from the first day of instruction of the next school~~ 69453 ~~year~~ If no determination of progress under division (B) (2) of 69454 this section is made, or if the student and the student's family 69455 cease to continue making progress in improving the student's 69456 attendance, the attendance officer shall file a complaint in the 69457 juvenile court against the student. 69458

A complaint filed in the juvenile court under division 69459

(B) (3) of this section shall allege that the child is an unruly 69460 child for being a habitual truant and that the parent, guardian, 69461 or other person having care of the child has violated section 69462

Sec. 3321.19. (A) As used in this section and section 69464 school district or the governing board of any educational 69469 service center determines that a student in its district has 69470 been truant and the parent, guardian, or other person having 69471 care of the child has failed to cause the student's attendance 69472 at school, the board may require the parent, guardian, or other 69473 person having care of the child pursuant to division (B) of this 69474 section to attend an educational program established pursuant to 69475 rules adopted by the department of education and workforce for 69476 the purpose of encouraging parental involvement in compelling 69477 the attendance of the child at school. 69478

No parent, guardian, or other person having care of a 69479 child shall fail without good cause to attend an educational 69480 program described in this division if the parent, guardian, or 69481 other person has been served notice pursuant to division (C) of 69482 child to attend school immediately. The parent, guardian, or 69500 other person having care of the child shall cause the child's 69501 attendance at school. Upon the failure of the parent, guardian, 69502

~~(D) (1) Upon the failure of the parent, guardian, or other~~ 69513 ~~person having care of the child to cause the child's attendance~~ 69514
~~at school, if the child is considered an habitual truant, the~~ 69515

~~of the educational service center, within ten days, subject to~~ 69517
~~division (E) of this section, shall assign the student to an~~ 69518 ~~absence intervention team as described in division (C) of~~ 69519

A complaint filed in the juvenile court under this division shall allege that the child is an unruly child for being an habitual truant and that the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child has violated section 3321.38 of the Revised Code.~~

~~(E) A school district with a chronic absenteeism percentage that is less than five per cent, as displayed on the district's most recent report card issued under section 3302.03 of the Revised Code, and the school buildings within that district, shall be exempt from the requirement to assign habitually truant students to an absence intervention team for the following school year and shall instead take any appropriate action as an intervention strategy contained in the policy developed by the district board pursuant to divisions (A) and (B) of section 3321.191 of the Revised Code. In the event that those intervention strategies fail, within sixty-one days after their implementation, the attendance officer shall file a complaint, provided that the conditions described in division (B) of section 3321.16 of the Revised Code are satisfied.~~

Sec. 3321.191. (A) As used in this section, "chronically absent" means missing at least ten per cent of the minimum number of hours required in the school year under section 3313.48 of the Revised Code for the school a student attends.

(B) Not later than August 1, 2026, the board of education of each school district shall adopt a policy to address student 69551 absences. In developing the policy, the board shall consult with 69552 the juvenile court of the county or counties in which the 69553 district is located; the parents, guardians, or other persons 69554 having care of a student attending school in the district; and 69555 appropriate state and local agencies. 69556

(C) The policy adopted under division (B) of this section 69557 shall do all of the following: 69558 learning; 69562

(2) Identify strategies to prevent students from becoming 69563 chronically absent; 69564

(3) Include procedures for notifying a student's parent, 69565 hours required in the school year under section 3313.48 of the 69569 Revised Code for the school the student attends; 69570

(4) Establish a tiered system that provides more intensive 69571 interventions and supports for students with greater numbers of 69572 absences and includes resources to help students and their 69573 families address the root causes of the absences; 69574

(5) Provide for one or more absence intervention teams to 69575 preventing a student from attending school based on the 69579 student's absences as prescribed by section 3313.668 of the 69580

Revised Code. 69581

(D) The policy shall align with any other district or 69582 school improvement plan developed pursuant to state or federal 69583
law. 69584

(E) A district or school may consult or partner with 69585 public, nonprofit, or private entities to provide assistance as 69586 appropriate to students and their families in reducing absences. 69587

Sec. 3321.22. ~~(A) Except as provided in division (B) of~~ 69588
~~this section, if~~ If a complaint is filed against the parent, 69589 guardian, or other person in charge of a child for a failure to 69590 cause the child to attend school or a part-time school or class 69591 to do so, then the parent, guardian, or other person in charge 69593 of a child shall be discharged. Upon the discharge, the 69594 attendance officer shall file a complaint before the judge of 69595 the juvenile court of the county alleging that the child is a 69596 delinquent child, unruly child, or dependent child within the 69597 meaning of section 2151.022, 2151.04, or 2152.02 of the Revised 69598 Code. The judge shall hear the complaint and if the judge 69599 determines that the child is a delinquent, unruly, or dependent 69600 child within one of those sections the judge shall deal with the 69601 child according to section 2151.35 or 2151.36 of the Revised 69602

Code. 69603

~~(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply regarding~~ 69604
~~a complaint filed under division (D) or (E) of section 3321.19~~ 69605
~~is an habitual truant.~~ 69607

A board of township trustees may, by resolution, request 74178 elections held in and for the state and county; and all other 74197 expenses of the board which are not chargeable to a political 74198 same manner as other county expenses are paid. 74200

(C) The compensation of precinct election officials and 74201 intermittent employees in the board's offices; the cost of 74202 renting, moving, heating, and lighting polling places and of 74203 placing and removing ballot boxes and other fixtures and 74204 and automatic tabulating equipment; the cost of printing and 74206 delivering ballots, cards of instructions, registration lists 74207 with division (H) of section 3506.01 of the Revised Code; the 74210 cost of contractors engaged by the board to prepare, program, 74211 test, and operate voting machines, marking devices, and 74212 automatic tabulating equipment; and all other expenses of 74213 conducting primaries and elections in the odd-numbered years 74214 shall be charged to the subdivisions in and for which such 74215 primaries or elections are held. The charge for each primary or 74216 general election in odd-numbered years for each subdivision 74217 shall be determined in the following manner: first, the total 74218 order to fix the cost per precinct; third, the cost per precinct 74222 shall be prorated by the board of elections to the subdivisions 74223 conducting elections for the nomination or election of offices 74224 in such precinct; fourth, the total cost for each subdivision 74225 shall be determined by adding the charges prorated to it in each 74226 precinct within the subdivision. 74227

~~(D) The~~ (D) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division 74228
(D) (2) of this section, the entire cost of special elections 74229 held on a day other than the day of a primary or general 74230 election, both in odd-numbered or in even-numbered years, shall 74231 be charged to the subdivision. Where a special election is held 74232 on the same day as a primary or general election in an even- 74233 numbered year, the subdivision submitting the special election 74234 shall be charged only for the cost of ballots and advertising. 74235 Where a special election is held on the same day as a primary or 74236 general election in an odd-numbered year, the subdivision 74237 submitting the special election shall be charged for the cost of 74238 ballots and advertising for such special election, in addition 74239 to the charges prorated to such subdivision for the election or 74240 nomination of candidates in each precinct within the 74241 subdivision, as set forth in the preceding paragraph. 74242

(2) The entire cost of a local option election held 74243 pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.391 of the Revised Code on 74244 a day other than the day of a primary or general election, both 74245 in odd-numbered or in even-numbered years, or on a day other 74246 than the day of a special election of a political subdivision 74247 seeking to submit a question or issue, a nomination for office, 74248 or an election to office, shall be charged to the petitioner. 74249

(E) Where a special election is held on the day specified 74250 by division (E) of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code for the 74251 holding of a primary election, for the purpose of submitting to 74252 the voters of the state constitutional amendments proposed by 74253 the general assembly, and a subdivision conducts a special 74254 election on the same day, the entire cost of the special 74255 election shall be divided proportionally between the state and 74256 the subdivision based upon a ratio determined by the number of 74257 issues placed on the ballot by each, except as otherwise 74258 provided in division (G) of this section. Such proportional 74259 division of cost shall be made only to the extent funds are 74260 available for such purpose from amounts appropriated by the 74261 general assembly to the secretary of state. If a primary 74262 election is also being conducted in the subdivision, the costs 74263 shall be apportioned as otherwise provided in this section. 74264

(F) When a precinct is open during a general, primary, or 74265 special election solely for the purpose of submitting to the 74266 voters a statewide ballot issue, the state shall bear the entire 74267 cost of the election in that precinct and shall reimburse the 74268 county for all expenses incurred in opening the precinct. 74269

(G) (1) The state shall bear the entire cost of advertising 74270 in newspapers statewide ballot issues, explanations of those 74271 issues, and arguments for or against those issues, as required 74272 by Section 1g of Article II and Section 1 of Article XVI, Ohio 74273 Constitution, and any other section of law. Appropriations made 74274 to the controlling board shall be used to reimburse the 74275 secretary of state for all expenses the secretary of state 74276 incurs for such advertising under division (G) of section 74277

(2) There is hereby created in the state treasury the 74279 transfers approved by the controlling board, and shall be used 74281 by the secretary of state to pay the costs of advertising state 74282 ballot issues as required under division (G)(1) of this section. 74283 Any such transfers may be requested from and approved by the 74284 controlling board prior to placing the advertising, in order to 74285 facilitate timely provision of the required advertising. 74286

(H) The cost of renting, heating, and lighting 74287 registration places; the cost of the necessary books, forms, and 74288 supplies for the conduct of registration; and the cost of 74289 printing and posting precinct registration lists shall be 74290 charged to the subdivision in which such registration is held. 74291

the board of elections, the board of county commissioners may, 74293 by resolution, establish an elections revenue fund. Except as 74294 otherwise provided in this division and in division (I)(2) of 74295 this section, the purpose of the fund shall be to accumulate 74296 revenue withheld by or paid to the county under this section for 74297 the payment of any expense related to the duties of the board of 74298 elections specified in section 3501.11 of the Revised Code, upon 74299 approval of a majority of the members of the board of elections. 74300
The fund shall not accumulate any revenue withheld by or paid to 74301 the county under this section for the compensation of the 74302 members of the board of elections or of the director, deputy 74303 director, or other regular employees in the board's offices, 74304 other than compensation for overtime worked. 74305

(b) Notwithstanding sections 5705.14, 5705.15, and 5705.16 74306 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners may, by 74307 resolution, transfer money to the elections revenue fund from 74308 any other fund of the political subdivision from which such 74309 payments lawfully may be made. Following an affirmative vote of 74310 a majority of the members of the board of elections, the board 74311 of county commissioners may, by resolution, rescind an elections 74312 revenue fund established under this division. If an elections 74313 revenue fund is rescinded, money that has accumulated in the 74314 fund shall be transferred to the county general fund. 74315

(2) (a) The board of county commissioners of a county that 74316 receives a payment from a political subdivision under division 74317 (J) of this section shall, by resolution, establish a special 74318 elections fund. The purpose of the fund shall be to accumulate 74319 revenue paid to the county by political subdivisions under 74320 division (J) of this section for the cost of preparing for and 74321 conducting special elections. 74322

(b) If both of the following apply, the board of county 74323 commissioners may, by resolution, rescind the special elections 74324 fund and transfer any remaining money in the fund to the county 74325 general fund or to the elections revenue fund: 74326

(i) All notifications and payments required under division 74327
(J) (3) of this section have been made. 74328

(ii) The county has not received any payments from 74329 political subdivisions under division (J) (2) of this section for 74330 a future special election. 74331

(J) (1) Not less than fifteen business days before the 74332 deadline for submitting a question or issue for placement on the 74333 ballot at a special election, the board of elections shall 74334 prepare and file with the board of county commissioners and the 74335 office of the secretary of state the estimated cost, based on 74336 the factors enumerated in this section, for preparing for and 74337 conducting an election on one question or issue, one nomination 74338 for office, or one election to office in each precinct in the 74339 county at that special election and shall divide that cost by 74340 the number of registered voters in the county. 74341

(2) The board of elections shall provide to a political 74342 subdivision seeking to submit a question or issue, a nomination 74343 for office, or an election to office for placement on the ballot 74344 at a special election with the estimated cost for preparing for 74345 and conducting that election, which shall be calculated either 74346 by multiplying the number of registered voters in the political 74347 subdivision with the cost calculated under division (J) (1) of 74348 this section or by multiplying the cost per precinct with the 74349 number or precincts in the political subdivision. A political 74350 subdivision submitting a question or issue, a nomination for 74351 office, or an election to office for placement on the ballot at 74352 that special election shall pay to the county special elections 74353 fund sixty-five per cent of the estimated cost of the election 74354 not less than ten business days after the deadline for 74355 submitting a question or issue for placement on the ballot for 74356 that special election. 74357

(3) Not later than sixty days after the date of a special 74358 election, the board of elections shall provide to each political 74359 subdivision the true and accurate cost for the question or 74360 issue, nomination for office, or election to office that the 74361 subdivision submitted to the voters on the special election 74362 ballots. If the board of elections determines that a subdivision 74363 paid less for the cost of preparing and conducting a special 74364 election under division (J) (2) of this section than the actual 74365 cost calculated under this division, the subdivision shall remit 74366 to the county special elections fund the difference between the 74367 payment made under division (J) (2) of this section and the final 74368 cost calculated under this division within thirty days after 74369 being notified of the final cost. If the board of elections 74370 determines that a subdivision paid more for the cost of 74371 preparing and conducting a special election under division (J) 74372

(2) of this section than the actual cost calculated under this 74373 division, the board of elections promptly shall notify the board 74374 of county commissioners of that difference. The board of county 74375 commissioners shall remit from the county special elections fund 74376 to the political subdivision the difference between the payment 74377 made under division (J) (2) of this section and the final cost 74378 calculated under this division within thirty days after 74379 receiving that notification. 74380 authority that is empowered to levy taxes or permitted to 74386 receive the proceeds of a tax levy, regardless of whether the 74387 entity receives tax settlement moneys as described in division 74388

(A) of this section; 74389

(2) "Statewide ballot issue" means any ballot issue, 74390 face signatures of more than three times the minimum number of 75001 invalid if, upon verification of signatures contained in the 75004 petition, the board of elections finds the number of signatures 75005 accepted exceeds three times the minimum number of signatures 75006 required. A board of elections may discontinue verifying 75007 signatures on petitions when the number of verified signatures 75008 equals the minimum required number of qualified signatures. 75009

(E) If the declaration of candidacy declares a candidacy 75010 for party nomination or for election as a candidate of a minor 75011 papers containing signatures of electors of more than one county 75048 are filed, the board shall determine the county from which the 75049 majority of signatures came, and only signatures from such 75050 county shall be counted. Signatures from any other county shall 75051 be invalid. 75052

board. The board of a county within which the major portion of 75068 the population of a subdivision, situated in more than one 75069 county, is located, shall promptly transmit to the board of each 75070 other county within which a portion of such subdivision is 75071 located such separate petition papers of each petition 75072 accompanying a declaration of candidacy filed with it as purport 75073 to contain signatures of electors of the portion of such 75074 subdivision in the county of each such board. 75075

(L) All petition papers so transmitted to a board and all 75076 petitions accompanying declarations of candidacy filed with a 75077 board shall, under proper regulations, be open to public 75078 inspection until four p.m. of the eightieth day before the day 75079 of the next primary election. Each board shall, not later than 75080 the seventy-eighth day before the day of that primary election, 75081 examine and determine the validity or invalidity of the 75082 with it and shall return to the secretary of state all petition 75084 papers transmitted to it by the secretary of state, together 75085 with its certification of its determination as to the validity 75086 or invalidity of signatures thereon, and shall return to each 75087 other board all petition papers transmitted to it by such board, 75088 filed by any qualified elector who is a member of the same 75097 political party as the candidate and who is eligible to vote at 75098 the primary election for the candidate whose declaration of 75099 candidacy the elector objects to, or by the controlling 75100 committee of that political party. The protest shall be in 75101 writing, and shall be filed not later than four p.m. of the 75102 seventy-fourth day before the day of the primary election. The 75103 protest shall be filed with the election officials with whom the 75104 declaration of candidacy and petition was filed. Upon the filing 75105 of the protest, the election officials with whom it is filed 75106 shall promptly fix the time for hearing it, and shall forthwith 75107 mail notice of the filing of the protest and the time fixed for 75108 hearing to the person whose candidacy is so protested. They 75109 shall also forthwith mail notice of the time fixed for such 75110 hearing to the person who filed the protest. At the time fixed, 75111 such election officials shall hear the protest and determine the 75112 validity or invalidity of the declaration of candidacy and 75113 petition. If they find that such candidate is not an elector of 75114 the state, district, county, or political subdivision in which 75115 the candidate seeks a party nomination or election to an office 75116 or position, or has not fully complied with this chapter, the 75117 candidate's declaration of candidacy and petition shall be 75118 determined to be invalid and shall be rejected; otherwise, it 75119 shall be determined to be valid. That determination shall be 75120 final. 75121

(2) A protest against the candidacy of any persons filing 75122 a declaration of candidacy for joint party nomination to the 75123 offices of governor and lieutenant governor shall be filed, 75124

the candidacy of any person filing a declaration of candidacy 75126 singly. 75127

official ballots to be used at the primary election, whose 75140 nomination or election is to be determined only by electors 75141
within the district and who filed valid declarations of 75142 candidacy and petitions. 75143

of the population of a subdivision smaller than the county and 75145 situated in more than one county is located shall, on the 75146 seventieth day before the day of a primary election, certify to 75147 the board of each county in which a portion of that subdivision 75148

within that subdivision and who filed valid declarations of 75152
candidacy and petitions. 75153

Sec. 3513.052. (A) No person shall seek nomination or 75154 election to any of the following offices or positions at the 75155 same election by filing a declaration of candidacy and petition, 75156 a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, or a 75157 nominating petition, or by becoming a candidate through party 75158 nomination in a primary election, or by the filling of a vacancy 75159 under section 3513.30 or 3513.31 of the Revised Code: 75160

(B) The secretary of state or a board of elections shall 75169 not accept for filing a declaration of candidacy and petition, a 75170 declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, or a 75171

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is 75215 seeking nomination is a state office or an office with a 75216 district larger than a single county and none of the offices for 75217 which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the 75218 secretary of state shall determine the date on which the person 75219 first sought to become a candidate for each of those offices by 75220 filing a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to 75221 be a write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under 75222 shall order the board of elections of each county in which the 75224 person is seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that 75225 person as a candidate for each office for which the person 75226 sought to become a candidate after the date on which the person 75227 first sought to become a candidate for any of those offices. If 75228

(c) If each office or the district for each office for which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within a single county and any of those offices is a federal office, the secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that county. The board then shall vote promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that is not a federal office.

(d) If one or more of the offices for which the person is seeking nomination is a state office and any of the offices for which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that is not a federal office. Each board of elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the person as a candidate in accordance with the order of the secretary of state.

(a) If each office or the district for each office for which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within that county and none of those offices is a federal office, the board shall determine the date on which the person first sought to become a candidate for each of those offices by filing a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under section

3513.30 of the Revised Code. The board shall vote promptly to 75267 disqualify that person as a candidate for each office for which 75268 the person sought to become a candidate after the date on which 75269 the person first sought to become a candidate for any of those 75270 offices. If the board determines that the person sought to 75271 become a candidate for more than one of those offices on the 75272 same date, the board shall vote promptly to disqualify that 75273 person as a candidate for each office that would be listed on 75274 the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks 75275 nomination, according to the ballot order prescribed under 75276
section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. 75277

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is 75278
seeking nomination is a state office or an office with a 75279
district larger than a single county and none of the offices for 75280
which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the 75281 board shall notify the secretary of state. The secretary of 75282 state then shall determine the date on which the person first 75283 sought to become a candidate for each of those offices by filing 75284 a declaration of candidacy or a declaration of intent to be a 75285 write-in candidate or by the filling of a vacancy under section 75286 3513.30 of the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall order 75287 the board of elections of each county in which the person is 75288 seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a 75289 candidate for each office for which the person sought to become 75290 a candidate after the date on which the person first sought to 75291 become a candidate for any of those offices. If the secretary of 75292 state determines that the person sought to become a candidate 75293 for more than one of those offices on the same date, the 75294 secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each 75295 county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to 75296
disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that would 75297

be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that 75298 person seeks nomination, according to the ballot order 75299 prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. Each board 75300 of elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the 75301 person as a candidate in accordance with the order of the 75302
secretary of state. 75303

(c) If each office or the district for each office for 75304 which the person is seeking nomination is wholly within a single 75305 county and any of those offices is a federal office, the board 75306 shall vote promptly to disqualify that person as a candidate for 75307
each office that is not a federal office. 75308

(d) If one or more of the offices for which the person is 75309 seeking nomination is a state office and any of the offices for 75310 which the person is seeking nomination is a federal office, the 75311
board shall notify the secretary of state. The secretary of 75312 state then shall order the board of elections of each county in 75313 which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to 75314 disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that is 75315 not a federal office. Each board of elections so notified shall 75316
accordance with the order of the secretary of state. 75318

(D) (1) If the secretary of state determines, after the day 75319 of the primary election and before the day of the general 75320 election, that a person is seeking election to more than one 75321 office at that election in violation of division (A) of this 75322 section, the secretary of state shall do one of the following: 75323 county and none of those offices is a federal office, the 75326 secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that 75327 county. The board then shall determine the offices for which the person seeks to appear as a candidate on the ballot. The board

each office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks election, according to the ballot order prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. If the person sought nomination at a primary election and has not yet been issued a certificate of nomination, the board shall not issue that certificate for that person for any office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks election, according to the ballot order prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code.

(b) If one or more of the offices for which the person is seeking election is a state office or an office with a district larger than a single county and none of the offices for which the person is seeking election is a federal office, the secretary of state shall promptly investigate and determine the offices for which the person seeks to appear as a candidate on the ballot. The secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each county in which the person is seeking to appear on the ballot to disqualify that person as a candidate for each office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person seeks election, according to the ballot order prescribed under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. Each board of elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the person as a candidate in accordance with the order of the secretary of state. If the person sought nomination at a primary election and has not yet been issued a certificate of nomination, the board shall not issue that certificate for that person for any office that would be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that person

seeks election, according to the ballot order prescribed under 75359
section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. 75360

which the person is seeking election is wholly within a single 75362 county and any of those offices is a federal office, the 75363
secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of that 75364 county. The board then shall vote promptly to disqualify that 75365 person as a candidate for each office that is not a federal 75366 office. If the person sought nomination at a primary election 75367 and has not yet been issued a certificate of nomination, the 75368 board shall not issue that certificate for that person for any 75369 office that is not a federal office. 75370

seeking election is a state office and any of the offices for 75372 which the person is seeking election is a federal office, the 75373 secretary of state shall order the board of elections of each 75374
not a federal office. Each board of elections so notified shall 75377
accordance with the order of the secretary of state. If the 75379 person sought nomination at a primary election and has not yet 75380 been issued a certificate of nomination, the board shall not 75381 issue that certificate for that person for any office that is 75382 not a federal office. 75383

(2) If a board of elections determines, after the day of 75384 the primary election and before the day of the general election, 75385 that a person is seeking election to more than one office at 75386 that election in violation of division (A) of this section, the 75387 board of elections shall do one of the following: 75388

(a) If each office or the district for each office for 75389 which the person is seeking election is wholly within that 75390 county and none of those offices is a federal office, the board 75391 shall determine the offices for which the person seeks to appear 75392 as a candidate on the ballot. The board shall vote promptly to 75393
be listed on the ballot below the highest office for which that 75395 person seeks election, according to the ballot order prescribed 75396 under section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. If the person sought 75397
on the ballot below the highest office for which that person 75401
section 3505.03 of the Revised Code. 75403

elections so notified shall vote promptly to disqualify the 75417
secretary of state. If the person sought nomination at a primary 75419

each office that is not a federal office. If the person sought 75430

of the month covered by the statement. During the period beginning on the nineteenth day before the general election in which a statewide candidate seeks election to office and the campaign committee of the joint candidates for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor or of a candidate for the

also be included in the postprimary election statement required 76253 to be filed by that campaign committee under division (A) (2) of 76254 this section. A two-business-day statement required by this 76255 paragraph shall be filed not later than two business days after 76256 receipt of the contribution. The statements required by this 76257 paragraph shall be filed in addition to any other statements 76258 required by this section. 76259

Subject to the secretary of state having implemented, 76260

If a campaign committee or political action committee has 76273 no balance on hand and no outstanding obligations and desires to 76274 terminate itself, it shall file a statement to that effect, on a 76275 form prescribed under this section and made under penalty of 76276 election falsification, with the official with whom it files a 76277 statement under division (A) of this section after filing a 76278 final statement of contributions and a final statement of 76279 expenditures, if contributions have been received or 76280 political party, unless the designation is accompanied by a 76532 written statement, signed by the chairperson of the county 76533

as provided for in the Federal Election Campaign Act. 77360

Sec. 3517.103. (A) For purposes of this section: 77361

(1) "Statewide candidate" means the joint candidates for 77362 the offices of governor and lieutenant governor or a candidate 77363 for the office of secretary of state, auditor of state, 77364 treasurer of state, or attorney general, ~~or member of the state~~ 77365 ~~board of education.~~ 77366

(2) (a) "Personal funds" means contributions to the 77367 campaign committee of a candidate by the candidate. 77368

(b) A loan obtained by, guaranteed by, or for the benefit 77369 of a statewide candidate, senate candidate, or house candidate 77370 shall be considered "personal funds" subject to the provisions 77371 of this section to the extent that the loan is obtained or 77372 guaranteed by the candidate. A loan that is obtained or 77373 guaranteed and that is for the benefit of a statewide candidate, 77374 senate candidate, or house candidate shall not be considered 77375 "personal funds" for the purposes of this section but shall be 77376 considered to be a "contribution" for the purposes of this 77377 chapter if the loan is obtained or guaranteed by anyone other 77378 than the candidate. 77379

(c) When a debt or other obligation incurred by a 77380 committee or by a candidate on behalf of the candidate's 77381 committee is to be paid from "personal funds," those funds are 77382 considered to be expended when the debt or other obligation is 77383 incurred, regardless of when it is paid. 77384

(B) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) (2) of 77385 this section, no statewide candidate or candidate for the office 77386 of member of the general assembly shall make an expenditure of 77387 personal funds to influence the results of an election for that 77388 candidate's nomination or election to office unless the personal 77389 funds are first deposited into the campaign fund of that 77390 candidate's campaign committee. 77391

(2) A statewide candidate or candidate for the office of 77392 member of the general assembly may make an expenditure of 77393 personal funds without first depositing those funds into the 77394 campaign committee's funds as long as the aggregate total of 77395 those expenditures does not exceed five hundred dollars at any 77396 time during an election period. After the candidate's campaign 77397 committee reimburses the candidate for any direct expenditure of 77398 personal funds, the amount that was reimbursed is no longer 77399 included in the aggregate total of expenditures of personal 77400 funds subject to the five-hundred-dollar limit. 77401

Sec. 3517.104. (A) In January of each odd-numbered year, 77402 the secretary of state, in accordance with this division and 77403 division (B) of this section, shall adjust each amount specified 77404 in section 3517.102, in division (B) (4) (e) of section 3517.10, 77405 and in division (B) of section 3517.101 of the Revised Code. The 77406 adjustment shall be based on the yearly average of the previous 77407 two years of the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers or 77408 its successive equivalent, as determined by the United States 77409 department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, or its 77410 successor in responsibility, for all items, Series A. Using the 77411 1996 yearly average as the base year, the secretary of state 77412 shall compare the most current average consumer price index with 77413 that determined in the preceding odd-numbered year, and shall 77414 determine the percentage increase or decrease. The percentage 77415 increase or decrease shall be multiplied by the actual dollar 77416
of the Revised Code and by each actual dollar figure specified 77418 in division (B) (4) (e) of section 3517.10 and in division (B) of 77419 section 3517.101 of the Revised Code as determined in the 77420 previous odd-numbered year, and the product shall be added to or 77421 subtracted from its corresponding actual dollar figure, as 77422 necessary, for that previous odd-numbered year. 77423

The resulting amount shall be rounded to the nearest 77424 twenty-five dollars if the calculations are made regarding the 77425 amounts specified in division (B) (4) (e) of section 3517.10 of 77426

If the calculations are made regarding the amounts 77428 specified in section 3517.101 or 3517.102 of the Revised Code, 77429 the resulting amount shall not be rounded. If that resulting 77430 amount is less than one hundred dollars, the secretary of state 77431 shall retain a record of the resulting amount and the manner in 77432 which it was calculated, but shall not make an adjustment unless 77433 the resulting amount, when added to the resulting amount 77434 calculated in each prior odd-numbered year since the last 77435 adjustment was made, equals or exceeds one hundred dollars. 77436

(B) (1) The secretary of state shall calculate the 77437 adjustment under division (A) of this section and shall report 77438 the calculations and necessary materials to the auditor of 77439 state, on or before the thirty-first day of January of each odd- 77440 numbered year. The secretary of state shall base the adjustment 77441 on the most current consumer price index that is described in 77442 division (A) of this section and that is in effect as of the 77443 first day of January of each odd-numbered year. 77444

(2) The calculations made by the secretary of state under 77445 divisions (A) and (B) (1) of this section shall be certified by 77446 the auditor of state on or before the fifteenth day of February 77447 of each odd-numbered year. 77448

(3) On or before the twenty-fifth day of February of each 77449 odd-numbered year, the secretary of state shall prepare a report 77450 setting forth the maximum contribution limitations under section 77451 3517.102 of the Revised Code, the maximum amounts, if any, of 77452 contributions permitted to be kept under that section, the 77453 amounts required under division (B) (4) (e) of section 3517.10 of 77454 the Revised Code for reporting contributions and in-kind 77455 contributions at social or fund-raising activities and 77456 contributions from amounts deducted from an employee's wages and 77457 salary, and the maximum office facility gift limitations under 77458 section 3517.101 of the Revised Code, as calculated and 77459 certified pursuant to divisions (A) and (B) (1) and (2) of this 77460 section. The report and all documents relating to the 77461 calculations contained in the report are public records. The 77462 report shall contain an indication of the period in which the 77463 limitations, the maximum contribution or gift amounts, and the 77464 reporting amounts apply, a summary of how the limitations, the 77465 maximum contribution or gift amounts, and the reporting amounts 77466 were calculated, and a statement that the report and all related 77467 documents are available for inspection and copying at the office 77468 of the secretary of state. 77469

odd-numbered year, the secretary of state shall transmit the 77471 report to the general assembly and shall send the report by mail 77472 to the board of elections of each county. 77473

(5) The secretary of state shall send the report by mail 77474

(6) A board of elections shall send the report by mail to 77482 each person who files a declaration of candidacy or nominating 77483 petition with the board for the office of state representative 77484 or state senator. The report shall be mailed on or before the 77485 educational purposes; sources whose activities are conducted to 80593 test more efficient production processes or methods for 80594 preventing or reducing adverse environmental impacts, provided 80595 that the activities do not include the production of an 80596 intermediate or final product for sale or exchange for 80597 commercial profit, except in a de minimis manner; a research or 80598 laboratory source the primary purpose of which is to conduct 80599 research and development into new processes and products, that 80600 is operated under the close supervision of technically trained 80601 personnel, and that is not engaged in the manufacture of 80602 products for sale or exchange for commercial profit, except in a 80603 de minimis manner; the temporary use of normal production 80604 sources in a research and development mode to test the technical 80605 or commercial viability of alternative raw materials or 80606 production processes, provided that the use does not include the 80607 production of an intermediate or final product for sale or 80608 exchange for commercial profit, except in a de minimis manner; 80609 the experimental firing of any fuel or combination of fuels in a 80610 boiler, heater, furnace, or dryer for the purpose of conducting 80611 research and development of more efficient combustion or more 80612 effective prevention or control of air pollutant emissions, 80613 provided that, during those periods of research and development, 80614 the heat generated is not used for normal production purposes or 80615 for producing a product for sale or exchange for commercial 80616 profit, except in a de minimis manner; and such other similar 80617 sources as the director may prescribe by rule. 80618

as applicable: 80620

(1) For a corporation: a president, secretary, treasurer, 80621 or vice-president of the corporation in charge of a principal 80622 business function, any other person who performs similar policy 80623 or decision-making functions for the corporation, or a duly 80624 authorized representative of any such person if the 80625 representative is responsible for the overall operation of one 80626 or more manufacturing, production, or operating facilities 80627 applying for or subject to a Title V permit and if one of the 80628
following applies: 80629

(a) The facilities employ more than two hundred fifty 80630 individuals or have gross annual sales or expenditures exceeding 80631 twenty-five million dollars, in second quarter 1980 dollars; 80632

(b) The delegation of authority to the representative is 80633 approved in advance by the director. 80634 partner or the proprietor, respectively. 80636

(3) For the federal government or any agency thereof, the 80637 state or any agency thereof, a political subdivision or any 80638 agency thereof, or any other public agency, either a principal 80639 executive officer or authorized elected official. For the 80640 purposes of this division, a principal executive officer of a 80641 federal agency includes the chief executive officer having 80642 responsibility for the overall operation of a principal 80643 geographic unit of the agency. 80644

(4) For affected sources, both of the following: 80645

(a) The designated representative insofar as actions, 80646 standards, requirements, or prohibitions under Title IV of the 80647 federal Clean Air Act or regulations adopted under it are 80648 concerned; 80649

(b) The designated representative for any other purposes 80650 under 40 C.F.R. part 70. 80651

~~(R)~~(S) "Small business stationary source" means any 80652 building, structure, facility, or installation that emits any 80653 federally regulated air pollutant and is owned or operated by a 80654 person who employs one hundred or fewer individuals; is a small 80655 business concern as defined in the "Small Business Act," 72 80656 Stat. 384 (1958), 15 U.S.C.A. 632, as amended; is not a major 80657 stationary source as defined in section 302(j) of the federal 80658 Clean Air Act; does not emit fifty tons or more per year of any 80659 federally regulated air pollutant or any hazardous air 80660 pollutant; and emits less than seventy-five tons per year of all 80661 federally regulated air pollutants. 80662

~~(S)~~(T) "Title V permit" means an operating permit required 80663 to be issued by the state under section 502 of the federal Clean 80664 Air Act and issued under section 3704.036 of the Revised Code 80665 and rules adopted under it. 80666

~~(T)~~(U) For the purposes of the Title V permit program 80667 established under this chapter and rules adopted under it, all 80668 terms defined in 40 C.F.R. part 70 have the same meaning as in 80669 that part. 80670

Sec. 3704.03. The director of environmental protection may 80671 do any of the following: 80672

(A) Develop programs for the prevention, control, and 80673 abatement of air pollution; 80674

(B) Advise, consult, contract, and cooperate with any 80675 governmental or private agency in the furtherance of the 80676 purposes of this chapter; 80677

(C) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, 80678 investigations, and research relating to air pollution, collect 80679 and disseminate information, and conduct education and training 80680 programs relating to the causes, prevention, control, and 80681
abatement of air pollution; 80682

(D) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules prescribing ambient 80683 air quality standards for the state as a whole or for various 80684 areas of the state that are consistent with and no more 80685 stringent than the national ambient air quality standards in 80686 effect under the federal Clean Air Act; 80687

(E) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the 80688 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, including 80689 rules prescribing for the state as a whole or for various areas 80690 of the state emission standards for air contaminants, and other 80691 necessary rules for the purpose of achieving and maintaining 80692 compliance with ambient air quality standards in all areas 80693 within the state as expeditiously as practicable, but not later 80694 than any deadlines applicable under the federal Clean Air Act; 80695 rules for the prevention or control of the emission of hazardous 80696 or toxic air contaminants; rules prescribing fugitive dust 80697 limitations and standards that are related, on an areawide 80698 basis, to attainment and maintenance of ambient air quality 80699 standards; rules prescribing shade, density, or opacity 80700 limitations and standards for emissions, provided that with 80701 regard to air contaminant sources for which there are 80702 particulate matter emission standards in addition to a shade, 80703 density, or opacity rule, upon demonstration by such a source of 80704 compliance with those other standards, the shade, density, or 80705 opacity rule shall provide for establishment of a shade, 80706 density, or opacity limitation for that source that does not 80707 require the source to reduce emissions below the level specified 80708 by those other standards; rules for the prevention or control of 80709 odors and air pollution nuisances; rules that prevent 80710 significant deterioration of air quality to the extent required 80711 by the federal Clean Air Act; rules for the protection of 80712 visibility as required by the federal Clean Air Act; and rules 80713 prescribing open burning limitations and standards. In adopting, 80714 modifying, suspending, or rescinding any such rules, the 80715 director, to the extent consistent with the federal Clean Air 80716 Act, shall hear and give consideration to evidence relating to 80717 all of the following: 80718

(1) Conditions calculated to result from compliance with 80719 the rules, the overall cost within this state of compliance with 80720 the rules, and their relation to benefits to the people of the 80721 state to be derived from that compliance; 80722

(2) The quantity and characteristics of air contaminants, 80723 the frequency and duration of their presence in the ambient air, 80724 and the dispersion and dilution of those contaminants; 80725

(3) Topography, prevailing wind directions and velocities, 80726 physical conditions, and other factors that may or may combine 80727 to affect air pollution. 80728

Consistent with division (K) of section 3704.036 of the 80729 Revised Code, the director shall consider alternative emission 80730 limits proposed by the owner or operator of an air contaminant 80731 source that is subject to an emission limit established in rules 80732 adopted under this division and shall accept those alternative 80733 emission limits that the director determines to be equivalent to 80734 emission limits established in rules adopted under this 80735 division. 80736

(F) (1) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules 80737 consistent with the purposes of this chapter prohibiting the 80738 location, installation, construction, or modification of any air 80739 contaminant source or any machine, equipment, device, apparatus, 80740 or physical facility intended primarily to prevent or control 80741 the emission of air contaminants unless an installation permit 80742 therefor has been obtained from the director or the director's 80743 authorized representative. 80744

(2) (a) Applications for installation permits shall be 80745 accompanied by plans, specifications, construction schedules, 80746 and such other pertinent information and data, including data on 80747 ambient air quality impact and a demonstration of best available 80748 technology, as the director may require. Installation permits 80749 shall be issued for a period specified by the director and are 80750 transferable. The director shall specify in each permit the 80751 applicable emission standards and that the permit is conditioned 80752 upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 80753 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 80754 authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the 80755 person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable 80756 time and subject to safety requirements of the person in control 80757 of the premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with 80758 such standards, this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and 80759
the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued 80760 thereunder. Each proposed new or modified air contaminant source 80761 shall provide such notice of its proposed installation or 80762 modification to other states as is required under the federal 80763 Clean Air Act. Installation permits shall include the 80764 authorization to operate sources installed and operated in 80765 accordance with terms and conditions of the installation permits 80766 for a period not to exceed one year from commencement of 80767 operation, which authorization shall constitute an operating 80768 permit under division (G) of this section and rules adopted 80769

under it. 80770

No installation permit shall be required for activities 80771 that are subject to and in compliance with a plant-wide 80772 applicability limit issued by the director in accordance with 80773 rules adopted under this section. 80774

No installation permit shall be issued except in 80775 accordance with all requirements of this chapter and rules 80776 adopted thereunder. No application shall be denied or permit 80777 revoked or modified without a written order stating the findings 80778 upon which denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy 80779 of the order shall be sent to the applicant or permit holder by 80780 certified mail. 80781

(b) An air contaminant source that is the subject of an 80782 installation permit shall be installed or modified in accordance 80783 with the permit not later than eighteen months after the 80784 permit's effective date at which point the permit shall 80785 terminate unless one of the following applies: 80786

(i) The owner or operator has undertaken a continuing 80787 program of installation or modification during the eighteen- 80788 month period. 80789

(ii) The owner or operator has entered into a binding 80790 contractual obligation to undertake and complete within a 80791 reasonable period of time a continuing program of installation 80792 or modification of the air contaminant source during the 80793 eighteen-month period. 80794

(iii) The director has extended the date by which the air 80795 contaminant source that is the subject of the installation 80796 permit must be installed or modified. 80797

(iv) The installation permit is the subject of an appeal 80798 by a party other than the owner or operator of the air 80799 contaminant source that is the subject of the installation 80800 permit, in which case the date of termination of the permit is 80801 not later than eighteen months after the effective date of the 80802 permit plus the number of days between the date in which the 80803 permit was appealed and the date on which all appeals concerning 80804 the permit have been resolved. 80805

(v) The installation permit has been superseded by a 80806 subsequent installation permit, in which case the original 80807 installation permit terminates on the effective date of the 80808 superseding installation permit. 80809

Division (F) (2) (b) of this section applies to an 80810 installation permit that has not terminated as of October 16, 80811 2009. 80812

The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 80813
119. of the Revised Code for the purpose of establishing 80814 additional requirements that are necessary for the 80815 implementation of division (F) (2) (b) of this section. 80816

(3) Not later than two years after August 3, 2006, the 80817 director shall adopt a rule in accordance with Chapter 119. of 80818 the Revised Code specifying that a permit to install is required 80819 only for new or modified air contaminant sources that emit any 80820 of the following air contaminants: 80821

(a) An air contaminant or precursor of an air contaminant 80822 for which a national ambient air quality standard has been 80823 adopted under the federal Clean Air Act; 80824

(b) An air contaminant for which the air contaminant 80825 source is regulated under the federal Clean Air Act; 80826

The director may modify the rule adopted under division (F) (3) (c) of this section for the purpose of adding or deleting air contaminants. For each air contaminant that is contained in or deleted from the rule adopted under division (F) (3) (c) of this section, the director shall include in a notice accompanying any proposed or final rule an explanation of the director's determination that the air contaminant meets the criteria established in that division and should be added to, or no longer meets the criteria and should be deleted from, the list of air contaminants. The explanation shall include an identification of the scientific evidence on which the director relied in making the determination. Until adoption of the rule under division (F) (3) (c) of this section, nothing shall affect the director's authority to issue, deny, modify, or revoke permits to install under this chapter and rules adopted under it.

(4) (a) Applications for permits to install new or modified air contaminant sources shall contain sufficient information regarding air contaminants for which the director may require a permit to install to determine conformity with the environmental protection agency's document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A," dated May 1986, which the director shall use to evaluate toxic emissions from new or modified air contaminant sources. The director shall make copies of the document available to the public upon request at no cost and post the document on the environmental protection agency's web site. Any inconsistency between the document and division

(F) (4) of this section shall be resolved in favor of division
(F) (4) of this section.

(b) The maximum acceptable ground level concentration of an air contaminant shall be calculated in accordance with the document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A." Modeling shall be conducted to determine the increase in the ground level concentration of an air contaminant beyond the facility's boundary caused by the emissions from a new or modified source that is the subject of an application for a permit to install. Modeling shall be based on the maximum hourly rate of emissions from the source using information including, but not limited to, any emission control devices or methods, operational restrictions, stack parameters, and emission dispersion devices or methods that may affect ground level concentrations, either individually or in combination. The director shall determine whether the activities for which a permit to install is sought will cause an increase in the ground level concentration of one or more relevant air contaminants beyond the facility's boundary by an amount in excess of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration. In making the determination as to whether the maximum acceptable ground level concentration will be exceeded, the director shall give consideration to the modeling conducted under division (F) (4) (b) of this section and other relevant information submitted by the applicant. 80889

(c) If the modeling conducted under division (F) (4) (b) of 80890
this section with respect to an application for a permit to 80891 install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 80892 from a new or modified source will be greater than or equal to 80893 eighty per cent, but less than one hundred per cent of the 80894 maximum acceptable ground level concentration for an air 80895 contaminant, the director may establish terms and conditions in 80896 the permit to install for the air contaminant source that will 80897 require the owner or operator of the air contaminant source to 80898 maintain emissions of that air contaminant commensurate with the 80899 modeled level, which shall be expressed as allowable emissions 80900 per day. In order to calculate the allowable emissions per day, 80901 the director shall multiply the hourly emission rate modeled 80902 under division (F) (4) (b) of this section to determine the ground 80903 level concentration by the operating schedule that has been 80904 identified in the permit to install application. Terms and 80905 conditions imposed under division (F) (4) (c) of this section are 80906 not federally enforceable requirements and, if included in a 80907 Title V permit, shall be placed in the portion of the permit 80908 that is only enforceable by the state. 80909

(d) If the modeling conducted under division (F) (4) (b) of 80910
install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 80912 from a new or modified source will be less than eighty per cent 80913 of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration, the owner 80914 or operator of the source annually shall report to the director, 80915 on a form prescribed by the director, whether operations of the 80916 source are consistent with the information regarding the 80917 operations that was used to conduct the modeling with regard to 80918 the permit to install application. The annual report to the 80919 director shall be in lieu of an emission limit or other permit 80920 terms and conditions imposed pursuant to division (F) (4) of this 80921 section. The director may consider any significant departure 80922 from the operations of the source described in the permit to 80923 install application that results in greater emissions than the 80924 emissions rate modeled to determine the ground level 80925 concentration as a modification and require the owner or 80926 operator to submit a permit to install application for the 80927 increased emissions. The requirements established in division 80928 (F) (4) (d) of this section are not federally enforceable 80929 requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be 80930 placed in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by 80931

the state. 80932

(e) Division (F) (4) of this section and the document 80933 entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option 80934 A" shall not be included in the state implementation plan under 80935 section 110 of the federal Clean Air Act and do not apply to an 80936 air contaminant source that is subject to a maximum achievable 80937 control technology standard or residual risk standard under 80938 section 112 of the federal Clean Air Act, to a particular air 80939 contaminant identified under 40 C.F.R. 51.166, division (b) (23), 80940 for which the director has determined that the owner or operator 80941 of the source is required to install best available control 80942 technology for that particular air contaminant, or to a 80943 particular air contaminant for which the director has determined 80944 that the source is required to meet the lowest achievable 80945 emission rate, as defined in 40 C.F.R. part 51, Appendix S, for 80946 that particular air contaminant. 80947

(f) (i) Division (F) (4) of this section and the document 80948
A" do not apply to parking lots, storage piles, storage tanks, 80950 transfer operations, grain silos, grain dryers, emergency 80951 generators, gasoline dispensing operations, air contaminant 80952 sources that emit air contaminants solely from the combustion of 80953 fossil fuels, or the emission of wood dust, sand, glass dust, 80954 coal dust, silica, and grain dust. 80955

(ii) Notwithstanding division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this 80956 section, the director may require an individual air contaminant 80957 source that is within one of the source categories identified in 80958 division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section to submit information in 80959 an application for a permit to install a new or modified source 80960 in order to determine the source's conformity to the document if 80961 the director has information to conclude that the particular new 80962 or modified source will potentially cause an increase in ground 80963 level concentration beyond the facility's boundary that exceeds 80964 the maximum acceptable ground level concentration as set forth 80965 in the document. 80966

(iii) The director may adopt rules in accordance with 80967
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are consistent with the 80968 purposes of this chapter and that add to or delete from the 80969 source category exemptions established in division (F)(4)(f)(i) 80970

(5) Not later than one year after August 3, 2006, the 80972 director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of 80973 the Revised Code specifying activities that do not, by 80974 themselves, constitute beginning actual construction activities 80975 related to the installation or modification of an air 80976 contaminant source for which a permit to install is required 80977 such as the grading and clearing of land, on-site storage of 80978 portable parts and equipment, and the construction of 80979 foundations or buildings that do not themselves emit air 80980 contaminants. The rules also shall allow specified initial 80981 activities that are part of the installation or modification of 80982 an air contaminant source, such as the installation of 80983 electrical and other utilities for the source, prior to issuance 80984 of a permit to install, provided that the owner or operator of 80985 the source has filed a complete application for a permit to 80986 install, the director or the director's designee has determined 80987 that the application is complete, and the owner or operator of 80988 the source has notified the director that this activity will be 80989 undertaken prior to the issuance of a permit to install. Any 80990 activity that is undertaken by the source under those rules 80991 shall be at the risk of the owner or operator. The rules shall 80992 not apply to activities that are precluded prior to permit 80993 issuance under section 111, section 112, Part C of Title I, and 80994 Part D of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act. 80995

(G) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules prohibiting 80996 the operation or other use of any new, modified, or existing air 80997 contaminant source unless an operating permit has been obtained 80998 from the director or the director's authorized representative, 80999 or the air contaminant source is being operated in compliance 81000 with the conditions of a variance issued pursuant to division 81001 (H) of this section. Applications for operating permits shall be 81002 accompanied by such plans, specifications, and other pertinent 81003 information as the director may require. Operating permits may 81004 be issued for a period determined by the director not to exceed 81005 ten years, are renewable, and are transferable. The director 81006 shall specify in each operating permit that the permit is 81007 conditioned upon payment of the applicable fees as required by 81008 section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right of the 81009 director's authorized representatives to enter upon the premises 81010 of the person to whom the permit has been issued, at any 81011 reasonable time and subject to safety requirements of the person 81012 in control of the premises, for the purpose of determining 81013 compliance with this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and 81014

the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued 81015 thereunder. Operating permits may be denied or revoked for 81016 failure to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted 81017 thereunder. An operating permit shall be issued only upon a 81018 showing satisfactory to the director or the director's 81019 representative that the air contaminant source is being operated 81020 in compliance with applicable emission standards and other rules 81021 or upon submission of a schedule of compliance satisfactory to 81022 the director for a source that is not in compliance with all 81023 applicable requirements at the time of permit issuance, provided 81024 that the compliance schedule shall be consistent with and at 81025 least as stringent as that contained in any judicial consent 81026 decree or administrative order to which the air contaminant 81027 source is subject. The rules shall provide for the issuance of 81028 conditional operating permits for such reasonable periods as the 81029 director may determine to allow the holder of an installation 81030 permit, who has constructed, installed, located, or modified a 81031 new air contaminant source in accordance with the provisions of 81032 an installation permit, to make adjustments or modifications 81033 necessary to enable the new air contaminant source to comply 81034 with applicable emission standards and other rules. Terms and 81035 conditions of operating permits issued pursuant to this division 81036 shall be federally enforceable for the purpose of establishing 81037 the potential to emit of a stationary source and shall be 81038 expressly designated as federally enforceable. Any such 81039 federally enforceable restrictions on a source's potential to 81040 emit shall include both an annual limit and a short-term limit 81041 of not more than thirty days for each pollutant to be restricted 81042 together with adequate methods for establishing compliance with 81043 the restrictions. In other respects, operating permits issued 81044 pursuant to this division are enforceable as state law only. No 81045 application shall be denied or permit revoked or modified 81046 without a written order stating the findings upon which denial, 81047 revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order shall 81048 be sent to the applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 81049

(H) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules governing the 81050 issuance, revocation, modification, or denial of variances that 81051 authorize emissions in excess of the applicable emission 81052 standards. 81053

No variance shall be issued except pursuant to those 81054 rules. The rules shall prescribe conditions and criteria in 81055 furtherance of the purposes of this chapter and consistent with 81056 the federal Clean Air Act governing eligibility for issuance of 81057 variances, which shall include all of the following: 81058

(1) Provisions requiring consistency of emissions 81059 authorized by a variance with timely attainment and maintenance 81060 of ambient air quality standards; 81061

(2) Provisions prescribing the classes and categories of 81062 air contaminants and air contaminant sources for which variances 81063 may be issued; 81064

(3) Provisions defining the circumstances under which an 81065 applicant shall demonstrate that compliance with applicable 81066 emission standards is technically infeasible, economically 81067 unreasonable, or impossible because of conditions beyond the 81068 control of the applicant; 81069

(4) Other provisions prescribed in furtherance of the 81070 goals of this chapter. 81071

The rules shall prohibit the issuance of variances from 81072 any emission limitation that was applicable to a source pursuant 81073 to an installation permit and shall prohibit issuance of 81074 variances that conflict with the federal Clean Air Act. 81075

Applications for variances shall be accompanied by such 81076 information as the director may require. In issuing variances, 81077 the director may order the person to whom a variance is issued 81078 to furnish plans and specifications and such other information 81079 and data, including interim reports, as the director may require 81080 and to proceed to take such action within such time as the 81081 director may determine to be appropriate and reasonable to 81082 prevent, control, or abate the person's existing emissions of 81083 air contaminants. The director shall specify in each variance 81084 that the variance is conditioned upon payment of the applicable 81085 fees as required by section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon 81086 the right of the director's authorized representatives to enter 81087 upon the premises of the person to whom the variance has been 81088 issued, at any reasonable time and subject to safety 81089 requirements of the person in control of the premises, for the 81090 purpose of determining compliance with this chapter, the rules 81091 adopted thereunder, and the conditions of any permit, variance, 81092 or order issued thereunder. 81093

The director may hold a public hearing on an application 81094 for a variance or renewal thereof at a location in the county 81095 where the variance is sought. The director shall give not less 81096 than twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by 81097 certified mail or another type of mail accompanied by a receipt. 81098
The director also shall cause at least one publication of notice 81099 in a newspaper with general circulation in the county where the 81100 variance is sought or may instead provide public notice by 81101 publication on the environmental protection agency's web site. 81102
The director shall keep available for public inspection at the 81103 principal office of the environmental protection agency a 81104 current schedule of pending applications for variances and a 81105 current schedule of pending variance hearings. The director 81106 shall make a complete stenographic record or electronic record 81107 of testimony and other evidence submitted at the hearing. The 81108 director shall make a written determination to issue, renew, or 81109 deny the variance and shall enter the determination and the 81110 basis therefor into the record of the hearing. The director 81111 shall issue, renew, or deny an application for a variance or 81112 renewal thereof, or issue a proposed action upon the application 81113 pursuant to section 3745.07 of the Revised Code, within six 81114 months of the date upon which the director receives a complete 81115 application with all pertinent information and data required by 81116

the director. 81117

Any variance granted pursuant to rules adopted under this 81118 division shall be for a period specified by the director, not to 81119 exceed three years, and may be renewed from time to time on such 81120 terms and for such periods, not to exceed three years each, as 81121 the director determines to be appropriate. A variance may be 81122 revoked, or renewal denied, for failure to comply with 81123 conditions specified in the variance. No variance shall be 81124 issued, denied, revoked, or modified without a written order 81125 stating the findings upon which the issuance, denial, 81126 revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order shall 81127 be sent to the applicant or variance holder by certified mail. 81128

(I) Require the owner or operator of an air contaminant 81129 source to install, employ, maintain, and operate such emissions, 81130 ambient air quality, meteorological, or other monitoring devices 81131 or methods as the director shall prescribe; to sample those 81132 emissions at such locations, at such intervals, and in such 81133 manner as the director prescribes; to maintain records and file 81134 periodic reports with the director containing information as to 81135 location, size, and height of emission outlets, rate, duration, 81136 and composition of emissions, and any other pertinent 81137 information the director prescribes; and to provide such written 81138 notice to other states as the director shall prescribe. In 81139 requiring monitoring devices, records, and reports, the 81140

director, to the extent consistent with the federal Clean Air 81141 Act, shall give consideration to technical feasibility and 81142 economic reasonableness and allow reasonable time for 81143 compliance. For sources where a specific monitoring, record- 81144 keeping, or reporting requirement is specified for a particular 81145 air contaminant from a particular air contaminant source in an 81146 applicable regulation adopted by the United States environmental 81147 protection agency under the federal Clean Air Act or in an 81148 applicable rule adopted by the director, the director shall not 81149 impose an additional requirement in a permit that is a different 81150 monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting requirement other than 81151 the requirement specified in the applicable regulation or rule 81152 for that air contaminant except as otherwise agreed to by the 81153 owner or operator of the air contaminant source and the 81154 director. For sources where no specific monitoring requirement 81155 is specified for a particular air contaminant from a particular 81156 air contaminant source in an applicable regulation adopted by 81157 the United States environmental protection agency under the 81158 federal Clean Air Act or in an applicable rule adopted by the 81159 director, the director shall not impose a monitoring requirement 81160 in a permit that requires community air monitoring, except as 81161 otherwise agreed to by the owner or air operator of the air 81162 contaminant source and the director. If two or more regulations 81163 or rules impose different monitoring, record-keeping, or 81164 reporting requirements for the same air contaminant from the 81165 same air contaminant source, the director may impose permit 81166 terms and conditions that consolidate or streamline the 81167 monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting requirements in a 81168 manner that conforms with each applicable requirement. To the 81169 extent consistent with the federal Clean Air Act and except as 81170 otherwise agreed to by the owner or operator of an air 81171 contaminant source and the director, the director shall not 81172 require an operating restriction that has the practical effect 81173 of increasing the stringency of an existing applicable emission 81174 limitation or standard. 81175

(J) Establish, operate, and maintain monitoring stations 81176 and other devices designed to measure air pollution and enter 81177 into contracts with any public or private agency for the 81178 establishment, operation, or maintenance of such stations and 81179 devices, except that the director shall not enter into contracts 81180 with any private agency for the establishment, operation, or 81181 maintenance of community air monitoring where the intended use 81182 of the data produced by such monitoring stations and other 81183 devices would violate divisions (B) or (C) of section 3704.09 of 81184

(K) By rule adopt procedures for giving reasonable public 81186 notice and conducting public hearings on any plans for the 81187 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution that the 81188 director is required to submit to the federal government; 81189

(L) Through any employee, agent, or authorized 81190 representative of the director or the environmental protection 81191 agency, enter upon private or public property, including 81192 improvements thereon, at any reasonable time, to make 81193 inspections, take samples, conduct tests, and examine records or 81194 reports pertaining to any emission of air contaminants and any 81195 monitoring equipment or methods and to determine if there are 81196 any actual or potential emissions from such premises and, if so, 81197 to determine the sources, amounts, contents, and extent of those 81198 emissions, or to ascertain whether there is compliance with this 81199 chapter, any orders issued or rules adopted thereunder, or any 81200 other determination of the director. The director, at reasonable 81201 times, may have access to and copy any such records. If entry or 81202 inspection authorized by this division is refused, hindered, or 81203 thwarted, the director or the director's authorized 81204 representative may by affidavit apply for, and any judge of a 81205 court of record may issue, an appropriate inspection warrant 81206 necessary to achieve the purposes of this chapter within the 81207 court's territorial jurisdiction. 81208

(M) Accept and administer gifts or grants from the federal 81209 government and from any other source, public or private, for 81210 carrying out any of the functions under this chapter; 81211

(N) Obtain necessary scientific, technical, and laboratory 81212 services; 81213

(O) Establish advisory boards in accordance with section 81214
121.13 of the Revised Code; 81215

(P) Delegate to any city or general health district or 81216 political subdivision of the state any of the director's 81217 enforcement and monitoring powers and duties, other than rule- 81218 making powers, as the director elects to delegate, and in 81219 addition employ, compensate, and prescribe the powers and duties 81220 of such officers, employees, and consultants as are necessary to 81221 enable the director to exercise the authority and perform duties 81222 imposed upon the director by law. Technical and other services 81223 shall be performed, insofar as practical, by personnel of the 81224 environmental protection agency. 81225

(Q) Certify to the government of the United States or any 81226 agency thereof that an industrial air pollution facility is in 81227 conformity with the state program or requirements for control of 81228 air pollution whenever such certificate is required for a 81229 taxpayer pursuant to any federal law or requirements; 81230

(R) Issue, modify, or revoke orders requiring abatement of 81231 or prohibiting emissions that violate applicable emission 81232 standards or other requirements of this chapter and rules 81233 adopted thereunder, or requiring emission control devices or 81234 measures in order to comply with applicable emission standards 81235 or other requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 81236 thereunder. Any such order shall require compliance with 81237 applicable emission standards by a specified date and shall not 81238 conflict with any requirement of the federal Clean Air Act. In 81239 the making of such orders, the director, to the extent 81240 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, shall give 81241 consideration to, and base the determination on, evidence 81242 relating to the technical feasibility and economic 81243 reasonableness of compliance with such orders and their relation 81244 to benefits to the people of the state to be derived from such 81245 compliance. If, under the federal Clean Air Act, any such order 81246 shall provide for the posting of a bond or surety to secure 81247 compliance with the order as a condition of issuance of the 81248 order, the order shall so provide, but only to the extent 81249 required by the federal Clean Air Act. 81250

(S) To the extent provided by the federal Clean Air Act, 81251 adopt, modify, and rescind rules providing for the 81252 administrative assessment and collection of monetary penalties, 81253 not in excess of those required pursuant to the federal Clean 81254 Air Act, for failure to comply with any emission limitation or 81255 standard, compliance schedule, or other requirement of any rule, 81256 order, permit, or variance issued or adopted under this chapter 81257 or required under the applicable implementation plan whether or 81258 not the source is subject to a federal or state consent decree. 81259

The director may require the submission of compliance schedules, 81260 calculations of penalties for noncompliance, and related 81261 information. Any orders, payments, sanctions, or other 81262 requirements imposed pursuant to rules adopted under this 81263 division shall be in addition to any other permits, orders, 81264 payments, sanctions, or other requirements established under 81265 this chapter and shall not affect any civil or criminal 81266 enforcement proceedings brought under any provision of this 81267 chapter or any other provision of state or local law. This 81268 division does not apply to any requirement of this chapter 81269 regarding the prevention or abatement of odors. 81270

(T) Require new or modified air contaminant sources to 81271 install best available technology, but only in accordance with 81272 this division. With respect to permits issued pursuant to 81273 division (F) of this section beginning three years after August 81274 3, 2006, best available technology for air contaminant sources 81275 and air contaminants emitted by those sources that are subject 81276 to standards adopted under section 112, Part C of Title I, and 81277 Part D of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act shall be 81278 equivalent to and no more stringent than those standards. For an 81279 air contaminant or precursor of an air contaminant for which a 81280 national ambient air quality standard has been adopted under the 81281 federal Clean Air Act, best available technology only shall be 81282 required to the extent required by rules adopted under Chapter 81283 119. of the Revised Code for permit to install applications 81284 filed three or more years after August 3, 2006. 81285

Best available technology requirements established in 81286 rules adopted under this division shall be expressed only in one 81287 of the following ways that is most appropriate for the 81288 applicable source or source categories: 81289

(1) Work practices; 81290

(2) Source design characteristics or design efficiency of 81291 applicable air contaminant control devices; 81292

(3) Raw material specifications or throughput limitations 81293 averaged over a twelve-month rolling period; 81294

(4) Monthly allowable emissions averaged over a twelve- 81295 month rolling period. 81296

Best available technology requirements shall not apply to 81297 an air contaminant source that has the potential to emit, taking 81298 into account air pollution controls installed on the source, 81299 less than ten tons per year of emissions of an air contaminant 81300 or precursor of an air contaminant for which a national ambient 81301 air quality standard has been adopted under the federal Clean 81302 Air Act. In addition, best available technology requirements 81303 established in rules adopted under this division shall not apply 81304 to any existing, new, or modified air contaminant source that is 81305 subject to a plant-wide applicability limit that has been 81306 approved by the director. Further, best available technology 81307 requirements established in rules adopted under this division 81308 shall not apply to general permits issued prior to January 1, 81309 2006, under rules adopted under this chapter. 81310

For permits to install issued three or more years after 81311
August 3, 2006, any new or modified air contaminant source that 81312 has the potential to emit, taking into account air pollution 81313 controls installed on the source, ten or more tons per year of 81314 volatile organic compounds or nitrogen oxides shall meet, at a 81315 minimum, the requirements of any applicable reasonably available 81316 control technology rule in effect as of January 1, 2006, 81317 regardless of the location of the source. 81318

(U) Consistent with section 507 of the federal Clean Air 81319 Act, adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the 81320 establishment of a small business stationary source technical 81321 and environmental compliance assistance program as provided in 81322
section 3704.18 of the Revised Code; 81323

(V) Provide for emissions trading, marketable permits, 81324 auctions of emission rights, and economic incentives that would 81325 reduce the cost or increase the efficiency of achieving a 81326 specified level of environmental protection; 81327

(W) Provide for the construction of an air contaminant 81328 source prior to obtaining a permit to install pursuant to 81329 division (F) of this section if the applicant demonstrates that 81330 the source will be installed to comply with all applicable 81331 emission limits and will not adversely affect public health or 81332 safety or the environment and if the director determines that 81333 such an action will avoid an unreasonable hardship on the owner 81334 or operator of the source. Any such determination shall be 81335 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act. 81336

(X) Exercise all incidental powers, including adoption of 81337 rules, required to carry out this chapter. 81338

The environmental protection agency shall develop a plan 81339 to control air pollution resulting from state-operated 81340 facilities and property. 81341

Sec. 3704.031. ~~Prior~~ (A) Except as provided in division 81342
(B) of this section, prior to issuance or renewal of a permit or 81343 a variance under division (F), (G), or (H) of section 3704.03 of 81344 the Revised Code, the director of environmental protection may 81345 require the applicant to install such equipment and conduct such 81346 tests and analyses as the director finds reasonable and 81347 necessary to determine adequately the amount and content of any 81348 emissions from such sources, the ambient air quality at the 81349 proposed site and in areas that may be affected by emissions 81350 from such sources, and any violation or potential violation of 81351 Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code, or the regulations or orders 81352 promulgated thereunder. 81353

(B) Prior to the issuance or renewal of a permit or a 81354 variance under division (F), (G), or (H) of section 3704.03 of 81355 the Revised Code, the director shall not require an applicant to 81356 conduct community air monitoring . 81357

Sec. 3704.0310. (A) As used in this section: 81358

(1) "Air nuisance rule" means a rule adopted by the 81359 director of environmental protection that declares any of the 81360 following to be a public nuisance: 81361

(a) The emission or escape into the open air from any 81362 source or sources whatsoever, of smoke, ashes, dust, dirt, 81363 grime, acids, fumes, gases, vapors, or any other substances or 81364 combinations of substances, in such manner or in such amounts as 81365 to endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, or 81366 cause unreasonable injury or damage to property; 81367

(b) The emission or escape into the open air from any 81368 source or sources of odors whatsoever that is subject to 81369 regulation under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code and is 81370 operated in such a manner to emit such amounts of odor as to 81371 endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, or cause 81372 unreasonable injury or damage to property; 81373

(c) Activities that are substantially similar to those 81374 described in divisions (A) (1) (a) and (b) of this section. 81375

(2) "State implementation plan" means the state 81376 implementation plan regarding national ambient air quality 81377 standards required to be submitted under section 110 of the 81378
"Clean Air Act," 42 U.S.C. 7410. 81379

(B) If the state implementation plan includes an air 81380 nuisance rule, the director of environmental protection shall 81381 remove the air nuisance rule from the plan and take such steps 81382 as are necessary to do so. 81383

On and after the effective date of this section, the 81384 director shall not include an air nuisance rule in the state 81385 implementation plan or rely upon an air nuisance rule to 81386 implement or enforce ambient air quality standards adopted 81387 pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act. 81388

Sec. 3704.09. (A) Determinations made by the director of 81389 environmental protection or other persons acting under sections 81390 3704.03 and 3704.04 of the Revised Code shall not be used as 81391 evidence in civil actions nor create any presumption of law or 81392 finding of fact which shall inure to or be for the benefit of 81393 any person other than the state, and sections 3704.01 to 3704.07 81394 of the Revised Code do not create, enlarge, or abrogate existing 81395 private rights. Nothing in Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code 81396 shall be construed to abridge, limit, or otherwise impair the 81397 right of any person to damages or other relief on account of 81398 injury to persons or property and to maintain any action or 81399 other appropriate proceedings therefor. 81400

(B) Data produced from community air monitoring shall not 81401 be used as evidence to support either of the following: 81402

(1) A fine, penalty, or notice of violation against any 81403 person for violations of or noncompliance with the federal Clean 81404 Air Act, this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, or any 81405 other applicable law, rule, or regulation for which the state 81406 has primary enforcement authority; 81407

(2) An administrative, regulatory, or judicial enforcement 81408 action, lawsuit, or proceeding for violations of or 81409 noncompliance with the federal Clean Air Act, this chapter, the 81410 rules adopted thereunder, or any other applicable law, rule, or 81411 regulation for which the state has primary enforcement 81412 authority. 81413

(C) Data produced from community air monitoring shall not 81414 be considered or relied upon by the environmental protection 81415 agency or a local air pollution control authority in any 81416 rulemaking action or in any action relating to the issuance of 81417 an installation permit or operating permit unless such 81418 consideration or reliance is requested by the owner or operator 81419 of the air contaminant source requesting the permit. 81420

Sec. 3704.111. (A) Not later than October 1, 1993, the 81421 director of environmental protection shall enter into a 81422 delegation agreement with each local air pollution control 81423 authority listed in ~~divisions (N) (1) (a) to (h)~~ division (O) (1) of 81424 section 3704.01 of the Revised Code under which the local air 81425 pollution control authority agrees to perform on behalf of the 81426 environmental protection agency air pollution control regulatory 81427 services within the political subdivision represented by the 81428 local air pollution control authority. The director may enter 81429 into such a delegation agreement with a local air pollution 81430 control authority established on or after the effective date of 81431 this section, subject to the condition established in division 81432 (B) of this section. Each delegation agreement shall be self- 81433 renewing on an annual basis on the first day of October of each 81434 year. The terms of each such delegation agreement shall remain 81435 unchanged from year to year unless they are amended by mutual 81436 agreement of the director and the local air pollution control 81437

authority. 81438

(B) The director may conduct a periodic performance 81439 evaluation of the air pollution control program operated by each 81440 local air pollution control authority. Based upon the findings 81441 of such a performance evaluation, the director may terminate or 81442 refuse to renew the delegation agreement with a local air 81443 pollution control authority if the director determines that the 81444 local air pollution control authority is not adequately 81445 performing its obligations under the agreement. 81446

(C) The director may enter into contracts for payments to 81447 local air pollution control authorities from moneys credited to 81448 the clean air fund created in section 3704.035 of the Revised 81449 Code, subject to the limitation specified in that section, and 81450 any other moneys appropriated by the general assembly for that 81451 purpose. The director shall distribute the moneys available for 81452 making payments to the local air pollution control authorities 81453 pursuant to such contracts equitably among the local air 81454 pollution control authorities based upon the amount of local 81455 funding and the workload of each local air pollution control 81456 authority, including, without limitation, population served, 81457 number of air permits issued for both new and existing sources, 81458 land area, and number of air contaminant sources. The director 81459 biennially shall review the workload of each local air pollution 81460 control authority and shall determine the percentage of the 81461 moneys available for the purpose of making payments under the 81462 contracts. In determining the percentage of those moneys that is 81463 to be so distributed, the director shall consider the 81464 recommendations of the local air pollution control authorities. 81465

(D) The director may modify a contract between the 81466 director and a local air pollution control authority to 81467 authorize the local air pollution control authority to perform 81468 air pollution control activities outside the geographic 81469 boundaries of that local air pollution control authority. 81470

Sec. 3704.14. (A) (1) If the director of environmental 81471 protection determines that implementation of a motor vehicle 81472 inspection and maintenance program is necessary for the state to 81473 effectively comply with the federal Clean Air Act after June 30, 81474 ~~2023~~2025, the director may provide for the implementation of the 81475 program in those counties in this state in which such a program 81476 is federally mandated. Upon making such a determination, the 81477 director of environmental protection may request the director of 81478 administrative services to extend the terms of the contract that 81479

(5) Provides for an exemption for hybrid motor vehicles 81553

(C) (1) The director of environmental protection shall 81557 adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 81558 that the director determines are necessary to implement this 81559 section. The director may continue to implement and enforce 81560 rules pertaining to the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance 81561 program previously implemented under former section 3704.14 of 81562 the Revised Code as that section existed prior to its repeal and 81563 reenactment by Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th general assembly, 81564 provided that the rules do not conflict with this section. 81565

(2) The rules adopted under division (C) (1) of this 81566 section shall provide for the issuance of inspections 81567 certificates and alternative emissions certificates. Under the 81568 rules, an inspection certificate shall be issued to the owner or 81569 lessee of a motor vehicle when the motor vehicle passes an 81570 emissions inspection conducted in accordance with the motor 81571 vehicle inspection and maintenance program established under 81572 this section. In lieu of obtaining an inspection certificate, 81573 the rules shall establish a system by which the owner or lessee 81574 of a motor vehicle may request an alternative emissions 81575 certificate from the director. 81576

(a) The rules providing for the issuance of alternative 81577 emissions certificates shall require an owner or lessee of a 81578 motor vehicle to do the following in order to receive the 81579 certificate: 81580

(i) Complete and submit an attestation form created by the 81581 director that includes a statement that reads substantially as 81582 motor vehicle concerning which I am the owner or lessee complies 81585 vehicle emissions. I, _____, am aware that a false statement on 81587 this form is not permitted." 81588

(ii) Sign and date the form either manually or 81589
electronically; 81590

(iii) Submit the form to the director either by regular 81591

(b) The rules shall require the director to include both 81593 of the following additional information on the attestation form: 81594

(i) A provision that allows the owner or lessee of a motor 81595 vehicle to specify one of the following methods by which the 81596 owner or lessee may request delivery of the alternative 81597 emissions certificate: certified mail, noncertified mail, or 81598
electronically; 81599

(ii) A provision that allows the owner or lessee of a 81600 motor vehicle to specify the vehicle identification number, 81601 make, model, and year of the relevant motor vehicle and the date 81602 the attestation form is submitted to the director. 81603

(c) Subject to division (C)(2)(d) of this section, the 81604 rules shall require the director to deliver an alternative 81605 emission certificate to the owner or lessee of a motor vehicle 81606 who complies with rules adopted under division (C)(2)(a) of this 81607 section. The director shall deliver the certificate within 81608 thirty business days after the director's receipt of the 81609 attestation form or, if the owner or lessee submits the form 81610 electronically, within five business days after receipt of the 81611 form. The director shall confirm the receipt of the attestation 81612 form if the director receives it by electronic means. 81613

(d) The rules shall require the director to reject an 81614 attestation form for any of the following reasons: 81615

(i) The motor vehicle that is the subject of the 81616 attestation form was in an accident or collision within the two 81617 years prior to the date of submission of the form, and the 81618 accident or collision caused substantial damage to the internal 81619 structure of the motor vehicle. 81620

(ii) The owner or lessee of the motor vehicle that is the 81621 subject of the attestation form has received a ticket, citation, 81622 or summons with regard to that motor vehicle within the two 81623 years prior to the date of submission of the form for a 81624 violation of section 4513.22 of the Revised Code or 81625 substantially equivalent municipal ordinance. 81626

(iii) The information in the attestation form is 81627 determined by the director to be false. 81628

If the director rejects an attestation form under division 81629
(C) (2) (d) (iii) of this section, the director shall provide 81630 notice to the owner or lessee that the attestation form was 81631 determined to be false. The notice shall inform the owner or 81632 lessee that the owner or lessee may submit a corrected form to 81633 the director within thirty days of the receipt of the notice. If 81634 the owner or lessee submits a corrected attestation form that 81635 complies with rules adopted under division (C) (2) of this 81636 section within that thirty-day period, the director shall issue 81637 an alternative emissions certificate to the owner or lessee. If 81638 the owner or lessee fails to correct the attestation form, the 81639 director shall require the owner or lessee to complete an 81640 emissions inspection and obtain an inspection certificate in 81641 accordance with rules adopted under this section. 81642

(C) (2) (d) (i) or (ii) of this section, the director shall require 81644 the owner or lessee to complete an emissions inspection and 81645 obtain an inspection certificate in accordance with rules 81646
adopted under this section. 81647

(e) In adopting rules under division (C) (2) of this 81648 section, the director shall ensure that the owner or lessee of a 81649 motor vehicle who falsifies an attestation form receives a 81650 notice that includes a statement that reads substantially as 81651 follows: "You have falsified an attestation form for your 81652 vehicle under the E-Check/motor vehicle emissions testing 81653 program. Your vehicle is registered in one of [insert the number 81654 of counties] counties in this state that has federal emission 81655 mandates imposed on it that the State of Ohio is required, under 81656 threat of penalty, to enforce. This letter serves as Ohio's only 81657 penalty for falsification of an attestation form. You have 81658 thirty days from the date of this notice to amend your 81659 attestation form and submit the amended form to the 81660 Environmental Protection Agency. However, if you choose not to 81661 submit an amended attestation form, you must have a motor 81662 vehicle emissions inspection conducted for your vehicle in 81663 accordance with section 3704.14 of the Revised Code and rules 81664
adopted under it." 81665

(f) No penalties apply to a person who the director has 81666 determined to have falsified an attestation form, other than the 81667 issuance of the notice required under division (C) (2) (e) of this 81668
section. 81669

(D) There is hereby created in the state treasury the auto 81670 emissions test fund, which shall consist of money received by 81671 the director from any cash transfers, state and local grants, 81672 and other contributions that are received for the purpose of 81673 funding the program established under this section. The director 81674 of environmental protection shall use money in the fund solely 81675 for the implementation, supervision, administration, operation, 81676 and enforcement of the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance 81677 program established under this section. Money in the fund shall 81678 not be used for either of the following: 81679

(1) To pay for the inspection costs incurred by a motor 81680 vehicle dealer so that the dealer may provide inspection 81681 certificates to an individual purchasing a motor vehicle from 81682 the dealer when that individual resides in a county that is 81683 subject to the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program; 81684

(2) To provide payment for more than one free passing 81685 emissions inspection or a total of three emissions inspections 81686 for a motor vehicle in any three-hundred-sixty-five-day period. 81687
The owner or lessee of a motor vehicle is responsible for 81688 inspection fees that are related to emissions inspections beyond 81689 one free passing emissions inspection or three total emissions 81690 inspections in any three-hundred-sixty-five-day period. 81691 Inspection fees that are charged by a contractor conducting 81692 emissions inspections under a motor vehicle inspection and 81693 maintenance program shall be approved by the director of 81694 environmental protection. 81695

(E) The motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program 81696 established under this section expires upon the termination of 81697 all contracts entered into under this section and shall not be 81698 implemented beyond the final date on which termination occurs. 81699

(F) As used in this section "battery electric motor 81700 vehicle" and "hybrid motor vehicle" have the same meanings as in 81701

section 4501.01 of the Revised Code. 81702

(G) ~~On the effective date of this amendment~~ June 30, 2025, 81703
the director shall immediately begin procedures to submit to the 81704 United States environmental protection agency the alternative 81705 emissions certification program for approval as part of the Ohio 81706 state implementation plan. If the United States environmental 81707 protection agency approves the modification of the decentralized 81708 motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program as providing 81709 sufficient air pollution reductions to meet the federal Clean 81710 Air Act requirements for a vehicle inspection and maintenance 81711 program and modifies the Ohio state implementation plan, the 81712 director shall immediately begin to modify the Ohio 81713 environmental protection agency rules to implement the 81714 alternative emissions certification program. Nothing in this 81715 division requires the Ohio environmental protection agency to 81716 take action to implement the alternative emissions certification 81717 program until the United States environmental protection agency 81718 approves the alternative program as part of the Ohio state 81719 implementation plan. 81720

(H) If the United States environmental protection agency 81721 determines that the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance 81722 program implemented in accordance with this section is not 81723 necessary for the state or any area of the state to comply with 81724 the federal Clean Air Act, the director shall immediately 81725 discontinue the program and take any actions necessary to 81726 effectuate the termination of the program. 81727

Sec. 3705.17. The body of a person whose death occurs in 81854 registrar or sub-registrar until a satisfactory death, fetal 81859 has occurred more than twice in the immediately preceding five- 82312 year period, the board shall reduce by twenty per cent the fees 82313 it charges under section 3717.25 or 3717.45 of the Revised Code 82314 during the next succeeding fiscal year. 82315

(3) A board of health that is required to pay a fine or 82316 reduce its licensing fees shall not include any part of the cost 82317 of the penalty in the fees it charges under section 3717.25 or 82318 3717.45 of the Revised Code or the fees it charges in operating 82319 any other licensing program. 82320

Sec. 3718.02. (A) The director of health, in accordance 82321 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt, and 82322 subsequently may amend and rescind, rules of general application 82323 throughout the state to administer this chapter. Rules adopted 82324 under division (A) of this section shall do at least all of the 82325
following: 82326

(1) Require that the appropriate board of health approve 82327 or disapprove the installation, operation, and alteration of a 82328 sewage treatment system if it is not connected to a sanitary 82329 sewerage system; 82330

(2) Require a board of health, or other person as 82331 established by rule, to conduct a site evaluation for any 82332 proposed installation of a sewage treatment system; 82333

(3) Prescribe standards for the siting, design, 82334 installation, operation, monitoring, maintenance, and 82335 abandonment of sewage treatment systems that may be used in this 82336 state and for the progressive or incremental alteration or 82337 repair of an existing sewage treatment system or the progressive 82338 or incremental installation of a new system to replace an 82339 existing sewage treatment system. The rules shall be adopted so 82340 as to establish a preference for the repair of an existing 82341 sewage treatment system, when technically and economically 82342 feasible, rather than its replacement with a new system. The 82343 standards shall include at a minimum all of the following: 82344

(a) Soil absorption specifications and vertical separation 82345 distances. 82346

(i) Soil absorption specifications established in rules 82347 shall include standards regarding the sizing of sewage treatment 82348 systems in use in the state. 82349

(ii) In establishing soil absorption specifications and 82350 vertical separation distances, the rules shall identify those 82351 soil conditions that present a low or moderate risk of 82352 inadequate treatment or dispersal of sewage from sewage 82353 treatment systems. For low and moderate risk conditions, the 82354 required vertical separation distance shall not exceed eighteen 82355 inches except as authorized pursuant to rules adopted under 82356 divisions (A) (3) (a) (iii) and (iv) of this section. 82357

In addition, the rules shall identify those soil 82358 conditions that present a high risk of inadequate treatment or 82359 dispersal of sewage. For such high risk conditions, the vertical 82360 separation distance shall be set at a depth from twenty-four to 82361 thirty-six inches and shall not be lowered unless a reduction of 82362 vertical separation is granted in accordance with rules adopted 82363 under division (A) (3) (a) (iii) of this section. 82364

(iii) The rules shall establish options to be utilized by 82365 a board of health when approving the reductions of or compliance 82366 with vertical separation distances that are established in rules 82367 adopted under division (A) (3) (a) (ii) of this section. The 82368 options for a board of health in providing such approval shall 82369 include, but not be limited to: the use where deemed appropriate 82370 for a particular site of subsurface interceptor drains, 82371 perimeter drains, or engineered drainage; pretreatment of 82372 sewage; or soil elevation. 82373

(iv) The rules shall provide that a board of health may 82374 petition the director to increase the vertical separation 82375 distances required for sewage treatment systems in the 82376 applicable health district or a portion of the district when 82377 conditions present a high risk of inadequate treatment or 82378 dispersal of sewage. The rules also shall provide that the 82379 director may approve such a request upon a demonstration by the 82380 board of health that unusual or unique local conditions relating 82381 to terrain, bedrock, water table, soil fragments, or soil 82382 textures require the establishment of greater vertical 82383 separation distances within the jurisdiction of the board of 82384 health or a portion thereof. If, under the rules, the director 82385 of health approves a greater vertical separation distance, a 82386 board of health still may approve a reduction of that vertical 82387 separation distance for an individual sewage treatment system 82388 pursuant to rules adopted under division (A) (3) (a) (iii) of this 82389 section. Further, if, under the rules, the director approves a 82390 greater vertical separation distance, a person who is denied 82391 permission by a board of health to install or replace a sewage 82392 treatment system as a result of the director's approval may 82393 request a hearing in accordance with section 3718.11 of the 82394

(b) Specifications for the quality of treated sewage 82396 effluent from household sewage treatment systems that is applied 82397 to soil on the property where a household sewage treatment 82398 system is located. The specifications established in the rules 82399 for the quality of effluent from discharging systems shall 82400 comply with discharge requirements imposed by the national 82401 pollutant discharge elimination system permit program 82402 established under section 6111.03 of the Revised Code and rules 82403

(c) Requirements for the reasonable maintenance of a 82405 system according to maintenance requirements approved by the 82406 director of health as recommended by the sewage treatment system 82407 technical advisory committee or according to accepted standards 82408 and practices established in rules, as applicable. The 82409 requirements may include standards for service contracts or 82410 other arrangements that assure regular maintenance and upkeep of 82411 the system. In determining the reasonableness of a maintenance 82412 requirement, the director shall consider a manufacturer's 82413 maintenance requirements as well as all other maintenance 82414 alternatives. 82415

(4) Prescribe procedures for notification to boards of 82416 health of the approval of a sewage treatment system or 82417 components of a system by the director of health under section 82418

(5) Prescribe criteria and procedures under which boards 82420 of health shall issue installation permits, operation permits, 82421 and alteration permits for sewage treatment systems. The rules 82422 shall require as a condition of an installation permit that the 82423 installer of a system must warrant that the system was installed 82424 in accordance with all applicable rules and design requirements. 82425
In addition, the rules shall require a board of health, not 82426 later than sixty days after the issuance of an installation, 82427 operation, or alteration permit, to notify the director that the 82428 permit was issued. The rules shall require the notification to 82429 be in a format prescribed by the director and to include 82430 information related to the issuance of the permit. With the 82431 assistance of the department of health, a board of health, to 82432 the extent practicable, shall computerize the process of the 82433 issuance of permits for sewage treatment systems. 82434

(6) Require a board of health to inspect a sewage 82435 treatment system not later than twelve months after its 82436 installation to ensure that the system is operating properly. 82437
The rules shall require a board of health, not later than sixty 82438 days after the inspection, to certify to the director on a form 82439 provided by the director that the inspection was performed. 82440

(7) Require each board of health to develop a program for 82441 the administration of maintenance requirements established in 82442 rules adopted under division (A)(3)(c) of this section. The 82443 rules shall include requirements and procedures under which a 82444 person may demonstrate the required maintenance of a system in 82445 lieu of having an inspection conducted when an inspection 82446 otherwise is required. The rules shall require a board of health 82447 to provide written notice to a person that is demonstrating 82448 maintenance of a system in lieu of an inspection that if proof 82449 of the required maintenance of the system is not provided as 82450 required by rules, the system is subject to inspection by the 82451 board and the reasonable cost of the inspection must be paid by 82452 the person. The rules shall authorize a board of health to 82453 inspect any sewage treatment system if there is a good-faith 82454 complaint regarding the system, there is probable cause for the 82455 inspection, or proof of the required maintenance of the system 82456 has not been provided as required by rules. In addition, the 82457 rules shall authorize a board of health to inspect a sewage 82458 treatment system without prior notice in any instance in which 82459 the board has probable cause to believe that the system is 82460 endangering or threatening to endanger public health. The rules 82461 shall require that the reasonable costs for sewage effluent 82462 testing or evaluation be paid by the owner of a sewage treatment 82463 system that is being investigated. Further, the rules shall 82464 establish a methodology for determining the reasonable costs of 82465 an inspection in accordance with section 3709.09 of the Revised 82466 Code. The rules shall allow, but shall not require, a board of 82467 health to continue an inspection program that was established by 82468 the board prior to the effective date of the rules, provided 82469 that the program authorizes a person to demonstrate the required 82470 maintenance of a system in lieu of an inspection. 82471

(8) Require a board of health to register installers, 82472 service providers, and septage haulers that perform work within 82473 the health district; prescribe criteria and procedures for the 82474 registration; and prescribe criteria for a demonstration of 82475 competency as a part of the registration. The rules shall 82476 establish uniform statewide bonding requirements or other 82477 financial security requirements for installers, service 82478 providers, and septage haulers as a condition of registration 82479 within any health district. The rules shall establish a 82480 methodology by which the required amount of a bond or other 82481 security may be calculated for each installer, service provider, 82482 and septage hauler. The methodology, at a minimum, shall 82483 consider the number of systems installed or serviced and the 82484 type of system installed or serviced by an installer, service 82485 provider, or septage hauler on an annual basis. The rules shall 82486 provide that no board of health shall require an additional or 82487 different bond or security requirement as a condition of 82488 registration beyond the bonding and security requirements 82489 established in the rules adopted under division (A) (8) of this 82490

section. 82491

The rules shall establish a cost methodology for 82492 determining the fee for the registration of an installer, 82493 service provider, or septage hauler in any health district. 82494

(9) Prescribe requirements for the collection, 82495 transportation, disposal, and land application of domestic 82496 septage in this state from a sewage treatment system; 82497

(10) Require boards of health to maintain records that are 82498 determined necessary to ascertain compliance with this chapter 82499 and the rules adopted under it; 82500

(11) Require the manufacturer of a sewage treatment system 82501 that is authorized for use in this state in rules adopted under 82502 this section or that is approved for use in this state under 82503 section 3718.04 of the Revised Code to provide instructions for 82504 the operation and maintenance of the system. The rules shall 82505 provide that a board of health may require a copy of a 82506 manufacturer's instructions for the operation and maintenance of 82507 a system to be filed with the board prior to the installation 82508 and use of the system in the health district in which the board 82509 has jurisdiction. In addition, the rules shall require a board 82510 of health and a manufacturer to provide a copy of the operation 82511 and maintenance instructions, if available, when a board of 82512 health or a manufacturer receives a written request for 82513 instructions. 82514

(12) Prescribe criteria for the provision of written 82515 evidence of compliance with rules pertaining to sewage treatment 82516 for purposes of sections 711.05 and 711.10 of the Revised Code; 82517

(13) Pursuant to divisions (A) (1) and (3) of this section, 82518 prescribe standards for the siting, design, installation, 82519 operation, monitoring, maintenance, and abandonment of small 82520 flow on-site sewage treatment systems that may be used in this 82521
state; 82522

(14) Prescribe minimum criteria and procedures under which 82523 boards of health may establish household sewage treatment 82524 district management programs for the purpose of providing a 82525 responsive approach toward preventing or solving sewage 82526 treatment problems resulting from household sewage treatment 82527 systems within the districts established under the program. For 82528 purposes of division (A) (14) of this section, a board of health 82529 may enter into a contract with any entity to administer a 82530 household sewage treatment district management program. 82531

(15) Prescribe standards for the use of subsurface 82532 interceptor drains, perimeter drains, and engineered drainage to 82533 remove or divert any subsurface water from an area to be used 82534 for soil absorption of sewage in the soil of a sewage treatment 82535 system; 82536

(16) Prescribe standards for the inspection of septage hauling truck tanks by boards of health, including, but not limited to, tank seal safety specifications;

(17) Establish standards and testing methods to ensure that all septic tanks, other disposal component tanks, dosing tanks, pump vaults, household sewage treatment disposal system holding tanks and privy vaults, or other applicable sewage disposal system components manufactured after September 17, 2010, and used in this state are watertight and structurally sound;

(18) Require a board of health to give notice and an opportunity for a hearing, pursuant to section 3718.11 of the Revised Code, to an affected property owner regarding any of the following:

(a) The denial of an installation, operation, or alteration permit for a sewage treatment system;

(b) The imposition of a condition on the installation of a sewage treatment system;

(c) The required replacement of a sewage treatment system;

(d) Any other final order or decision of a board of health that is made under this chapter concerning which a property owner is claiming to be aggrieved or adversely affected.

The rules also shall establish procedures for giving such notice and for conducting the hearing required in rules adopted under division (A)(18) of this section.

(19) Prescribe standards for the regulation of gray water recycling systems;

(20) Prohibit a sewage treatment system from causing a public health nuisance; 82565

(21) Define economic impact for purposes of division (B) 82566 of this section and section 3718.022 of the Revised Code; 82567

(22) Establish statistical methods for evaluating sewage 82568 treatment system compliance for a twelve inch soil depth credit 82569 relative to bacterial parameters, such as fecal coliform and E. 82570 coli., that are derived from a minimum of one hundred forty-four 82571 consecutive data points. Such statistical methods shall include 82572 one of the following: 82573

(a) The upper confidence limit of the mean method using 82574 log-transformed data, with the upper confidence limit derived 82575 from one of the following: 82576

(i) A two-sided ninety-five per cent confidence interval 82577 for the mean and the maximum number of individual data points 82578 exceeding the treatment standard being five per cent; 82579

(ii) A two-sided ninety-nine per cent confidence interval 82580
for the mean and the maximum number of individual data points 82581 exceeding the treatment standard being ten per cent. 82582

(b) Any other statistical method that is equally 82583 protective of public health and welfare. 82584

The rule also shall specify that a soil depth credit shall 82585 be approved when the upper confidence limit of the mean using 82586 log-transformed data is less than the applicable fecal coliform 82587 or E. coli. treatment standard set forth in rules adopted in 82588 accordance with this division. 82589

The director may adopt other rules under division (A) of 82590 this section that the director determines are necessary to 82591 implement this chapter and to protect the public health and 82592 welfare. 82593

At least sixty days prior to adopting a rule under 82594 division (A) of this section, the director shall provide boards 82595 of health and any other interested parties an opportunity to 82596 comment on the rule. 82597

(B) (1) In accordance with section 3709.20 or 3709.21 of 82598 the Revised Code, as applicable, and subject to review by and 82599 approval of the director under division (C) of section 3718.05 82600 of the Revised Code, a board of health may adopt rules necessary 82601 for the public health providing for more stringent standards 82602 than those established in rules adopted by the director under 82603 division (A) of this section. In proposing or adopting the 82604 rules, a board of health shall consider and document the 82605 economic impact of the rules on property owners within the 82606 applicable health district. 82607

(2) A board that intends to adopt rules shall notify the 82608 department of health of the proposed rules and submit a copy of 82609 the proposed rules and the documentation of the economic impact 82610 of the rules at least ninety days prior to the proposed date of 82611 adoption. The director shall approve or disapprove any such 82612 proposed rule within ninety days after receiving a copy of the 82613 proposed rule from the board of health. 82614

(3) In reviewing a proposed rule, the director shall 82615 approve the rule if all of the following apply: 82616

(a) The proposed rule is not in conflict with this chapter 82617 or rules adopted under it. 82618

(b) The proposed rule is authorized by division (B) of 82619
this section. 82620

(c) The proposed rule is no less stringent than rules 82621 adopted by the director. 82622

(d) Unless otherwise authorized by this chapter or rules 82623 adopted under it, the proposed rule does not require design 82624 changes to a sewage treatment system, or component thereof, that 82625 differ from a design authorized in rules adopted under division 82626
(A) of this section, including rules adopted under division (A) 82627
the director under section 3718.04 of the Revised Code. 82629

(e) The proposed rule does not require operation or 82630 maintenance procedures for a sewage treatment system that 82631 conflict with operation or maintenance procedures authorized in 82632 rules adopted under division (A) of this section, including 82633 rules adopted under division (A) (1) or (A) (3) (a) (iii) or (iv) of 82634 this section, or approved by the director under section 3718.04 82635

(4) If a board of health fails to submit a proposed rule 82637 to the director or fails to demonstrate that the board has 82638 considered the economic impact of the proposed rule, the rule 82639 shall have no force or effect and is not enforceable. 82640

(C) The director shall not adopt rules under this chapter 82641 requiring a soil evaluator or soil scientist to evaluate the 82642 soil type and slope with respect to a sewage treatment system or 82643 a proposed sewage treatment system. 82644

Sec. 3718.04. (A) A manufacturer seeking approval for the 82645 installation and use of a sewage treatment system or a component 82646 of a system in this state that differs in design or function 82647 from systems or components of systems the use of which is 82648 authorized in rules adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised 82649 Code shall request an application form from the department of 82650 health. The applicant shall complete the form and include with 82651 it all of the information that is required by the department and 82652 the sewage treatment system technical advisory committee. The 82653 applicant shall submit a completed application and all required 82654 information to the director of health. 82655

(B) Upon receipt of an application, the director shall 82656 examine the application and all accompanying information to 82657 determine if the application is complete. If the director 82658 determines that the application is not complete, the director 82659 shall notify the applicant not later than sixty days after 82660 submission of the application that the application is not 82661 complete, provide a description of the information that is 82662 missing from the application, and return the application and all 82663 accompanying information to the applicant. The applicant may 82664 resubmit the application to the director if the application 82665 includes the information that was identified by the director. 82666 Not later than thirty days after receipt of a complete 82667 application, the director shall notify the committee of the 82668 complete application and send a copy of the complete application 82669 and all accompanying information to the committee together with 82670 a request that the committee recommend that the director approve 82671 or disapprove the system. 82672

Not later than ninety days after receipt of a complete 82673 application, the committee shall recommend approval or 82674 disapproval of the application and submit its recommendation in 82675 writing to the director. The director shall approve or 82676 disapprove the application not later than sixty days after the 82677 committee submits its recommendation to the director or, if the 82678 committee fails to recommend approval or disapproval within the 82679 required time, not later than one hundred twenty days after the 82680 submission of a complete application. If the director fails to 82681 approve or disapprove an application within the required time, 82682 the application shall be deemed approved. 82683

(C) In approving or disapproving an application, the 82684 director shall use the standards, guidelines, and protocols that 82685 the committee developed with the department for that purpose. 82686
The director shall not approve an application that fails to 82687 comply with those standards, guidelines, and protocols. If the 82688 committee recommends approval or disapproval of an application, 82689 the director shall consider the committee's recommendation 82690 before approving or disapproving the application. If the 82691 committee fails to provide advice or if the committee fails to 82692 recommend approval or disapproval of the application within the 82693 required time, the director may approve or disapprove the 82694 application without considering the advice of the committee. The 82695 director shall establish and include any appropriate terms and 82696 conditions with the approval of a sewage treatment system or 82697 component of a system for use in this state. For purposes of 82698 establishing soil absorption specifications for a sewage 82699 treatment system, the terms and conditions shall include 82700 standards regarding the sizing of the system. 82701

(D) If the director approves an application under this 82702 section, the director shall notify the applicant in writing. The 82703 director also shall notify boards of health in accordance with 82704 the procedures established in rules adopted under section 82705 3718.02 of the Revised Code that the sewage treatment system or 82706 component of a system that is the subject of the application is 82707 approved for statewide use. If the director disapproves an 82708 application under this section, the director shall notify the 82709 applicant in writing and provide a brief explanation for the 82710 disapproval. 82711

(E) Decisions of the director approving or disapproving 82712 applications under this section may be appealed in accordance 82713 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 82714

(F) No approval shall be required under this section with 82715 respect to a sewage treatment system or component of a system 82716 that has been approved by the director prior to ~~the effective~~ 82717 ~~date of this amendment~~ September 17, 2010, unless the 82718 manufacturer of the system or component changes the design or 82719 seeks modifications to any terms and conditions of the prior 82720 approval. 82721

(G) The director may revoke the approval of a sewage 82722 treatment system or component of a system if the director finds, 82723 based on substantial evidence, that the system or component 82724 fails to comply with applicable standards for the system or 82725 component. The revocation of an approval under this division may 82726 be appealed in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 82727

(H) (1) The director shall not implement or enforce any 82728 special device approval or similar policy imposing additional 82729 requirements or restrictions on a sewage treatment system or 82730 component of a system that combines the treatment of effluent 82731 with subsurface dispersal of treated effluent directly to the 82732 soil, sand bed, or gravel for any approval in effect as of 82733
December 31, 2020. 82734

(2) If the director issued an approval for such a system 82735 and the approval was in effect as of December 31, 2020, the 82736 system may be modified upon request by the manufacturer if the 82737 system meets the intent of applicable standards, guidelines, and 82738 protocols. However, the system's approval otherwise remains 82739 valid under the original terms and conditions and may not be 82740 revoked or subjected to any new application or monitoring 82741 requirements unless clear, independent statistically significant 82742 evidence demonstrates that the system design consistently 82743 underperforms relative to gravel distribution trenches. 82744

(3) Divisions (H) (1) and (2) of this section apply only to 82745 subsurface dispersal systems or components of a system and do 82746 not apply to effluent discharged into waters of the state. 82747

Sec. 3719.04. (A) A person ~~identified in division (B) (1)~~ 82748
~~(a) of section 4729.52 of the Revised Code who holds a category~~ 82749
~~III~~ license issued under that section 4729.52 of the Revised 82750 Code granting authority with respect to controlled substances 82751 may sell at wholesale controlled substances to any of the 82752 following persons and is subject to the following conditions: 82753

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 83199 denied in accordance with division (F) of this section, rules 83200 adopted under it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. 83201

(2) A person who desires to obtain a variance or renew a 83202 variance from the rules adopted under division (B) of this 83203 section shall submit to the director an application as 83204 prescribed by the director. The application shall contain detail 83205

(3) The director may hold a public hearing on an 83212 application submitted under division (F) of this section for a 83213 the general public. The director shall grant a variance only if 83234 the applicant demonstrates to the director's satisfaction that 83235 the requested action will not create a nuisance or a hazard to 83236 the health or safety of the public or to the environment. In 83237 granting a variance, the director shall state the specific 83238 the person to whom a variance has been issued to take action 83246 within the time that the director determines to be appropriate 83247 and reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard 83248 to the health or safety of the public or to the environment. 83249

(6) An application submitted under division (F) of this 83250 section shall not be denied and a variance shall not be revoked 83251 or modified under that division without a written order of the 83252 director stating the findings on which the denial, revocation, 83253 or modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to 83254 the applicant or holder of a variance by certified mail or by 83255 another type of mail that is accompanied by a receipt. 83256

(7) The director shall make available for public 83257 inspection at the principal office of the environmental 83258 protection agency a current list of pending applications for 83259 variances submitted under division (F) of this section and a 83260 current schedule of pending variance hearings under it. 83261

Sec. 3734.05. (A) (1) Except as provided in divisions (A) 83262
(6) and (7) of this section, no person shall operate or maintain 83263 a solid waste facility without a license issued under this 83264 division by the board of health of the health district in which 83265 the facility is located or by the director of environmental 83266 protection when the health district in which the facility is 83267 located is not on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the 83268

During the month of December, but before the first day of 83270 January of the next year, every person proposing to continue to 83271 operate an existing solid waste facility shall procure a license 83272 under this division to operate the facility for that year from 83273 the board of health of the health district in which the facility 83274 is located or, if the health district is not on the approved 83275 list under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, from the 83276 director. The application for such a license shall be submitted 83277 to the board of health or to the director, as appropriate, on or 83278 before the last day of September of the year preceding that for 83279 which the license is sought. In addition to the application fee 83280 prescribed in division (A) (2) of this section, a person who 83281 submits an application after that date shall pay an additional 83282 ten per cent of the amount of the application fee for each week 83283 that the application is late. Late payment fees accompanying an 83284 application submitted to the board of health shall be credited 83285 to the special fund of the health district created in division 83286 (B) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code, and late payment 83287 fees accompanying an application submitted to the director shall 83288 be credited to the general revenue fund. A person who has 83289 received a license, upon sale or disposition of a solid waste 83290 facility, and upon consent of the board of health and the 83291 director, may have the license transferred to another person. 83292
The board of health or the director may include such terms and 83293 conditions in a license or revision to a license as are 83294 appropriate to ensure compliance with this chapter and rules 83295 adopted under it. The terms and conditions may establish the 83296 authorized maximum daily waste receipts for the facility. 83297 Limitations on maximum daily waste receipts shall be specified 83298 in cubic yards of volume for the purpose of regulating the 83299 design, construction, and operation of solid waste facilities. 83300 Terms and conditions included in a license or revision to a 83301 license by a board of health shall be consistent with, and 83302 pertain only to the subjects addressed in, the rules adopted 83303 under division (A) of section 3734.02 and division (D) of 83304

(2) (a) Except as provided in divisions (A) (2) (b), (6), and 83306
(7) of this section, each person proposing to open a new solid 83307 waste facility or to modify an existing solid waste facility 83308 shall submit an application for a permit with accompanying 83309 detail plans and specifications to the environmental protection 83310 agency for required approval under the rules adopted by the 83311 director pursuant to division (A) of section 3734.02 of the 83312 Revised Code and applicable rules adopted under division (D) of 83313 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code at least two hundred seventy 83314 days before proposed operation of the facility and shall 83315 concurrently make application for the issuance of a license 83316 under division (A) (1) of this section with the board of health 83317 of the health district in which the proposed facility is to be 83318 located. 83319

(b) On and after the effective date of the rules adopted 83320 under division (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and 83321 division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code governing 83322 solid waste transfer facilities, each person proposing to open a 83323 new solid waste transfer facility or to modify an existing solid 83324 waste transfer facility shall submit an application for a permit 83325 with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, and 83326 information regarding the facility and its method of operation 83327 to the environmental protection agency for required approval 83328 under those rules at least two hundred seventy days before 83329 commencing proposed operation of the facility and concurrently 83330 shall make application for the issuance of a license under 83331 division (A)(1) of this section with the board of health of the 83332 health district in which the facility is located or proposed. 83333

(c) Each application for a permit under division (A)(2)(a) 83334 or (b) of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 83335 application fee of four hundred dollars that shall be credited 83336 to the general revenue fund. Each application for an annual 83337 license under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall be 83338 accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred 83339 dollars. If the application for an annual license is submitted 83340 to a board of health on the approved list under section 3734.08 83341
of the Revised Code, the application fee shall be credited to 83342
the special fund of the health district created in division (B) 83343 of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. If the application for 83344 an annual license is submitted to the director, the application 83345 fee shall be credited to the general revenue fund. If a permit 83346 or license is issued, the amount of the application fee paid 83347 shall be deducted from the amount of the permit fee due under 83348 division ~~(Q)~~(P) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code or the 83349 amount of the license fee due under division (A)(1), (2), (3), 83350
(4), or (5) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. 83351

(d) As used in divisions (A)(2)(d), (e), and (f) of this 83352 section, "modify" means any of the following: 83353

(i) Any increase of more than ten per cent in the total 83354 capacity of a solid waste facility; 83355

(ii) Any expansion of the limits of solid waste placement 83356

at a solid waste facility; 83357

(iii) Any increase in the depth of excavation at a solid 83358 waste facility; 83359

(iv) Any change in the technique of waste receipt or type 83360 of waste received at a solid waste facility that may endanger 83361 human health, as determined by the director by rules adopted in 83362 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 83363

Not later than forty-five days after submitting an 83364 application under division (A) (2) (a) or (b) of this section for 83365 a permit to open a new or modify an existing solid waste 83366 facility, the applicant, in conjunction with an officer or 83367 employee of the environmental protection agency, shall hold a 83368 public meeting on the application within the county in which the 83369 new or modified solid waste facility is or is proposed to be 83370 located or within a contiguous county. ~~Not~~ 83371

Not less than thirty days before holding the public 83372 meeting on the application, the applicant shall publish notice 83373 of the meeting in each newspaper of general circulation that is 83374 published in the county in which the facility is or is proposed 83375 to be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is 83376 published in the county, the applicant shall publish the notice 83377 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The notice 83378 shall contain the date, time, and location of the public meeting 83379 and a general description of the proposed new or modified 83380 facility. ~~Not~~ 83381

Not later than five days after publishing the notice, the 83382 applicant shall send by certified mail a copy of the notice and 83383 the date the notice was published to the director and the 83384 legislative authority of each municipal corporation, township, 83385 and county, and to the chief executive officer of each municipal corporation, in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. ~~At~~ 83386

At the public meeting, the applicant shall provide 83389 information and describe the application and respond to comments 83390 or questions concerning the application, and the officer or 83391 employee of the agency shall describe the permit application 83392 process. At the public meeting, any person may submit written or 83393 oral comments on or objections to the application. ~~Not~~ 83394

Not more than thirty days after the public meeting, the 83395 applicant shall provide the director with a copy of a transcript 83396 of the full meeting, copies of any exhibits, displays, or other 83397 materials presented by the applicant at the meeting, and the 83398 original copy of any written comments submitted at the meeting. 83399

(e) Except as provided in division (A) (2) (f) of this 83400 section, prior to taking an action, other than a proposed or 83401 final denial, upon an application submitted under division (A) 83402
(2) (a) of this section for a permit to open a new or modify an 83403 existing solid waste facility, the director shall hold a public 83404 information session and a public hearing on the application 83405 within the county in which the new or modified solid waste 83406 facility is or is proposed to be located or within a contiguous 83407 county. If the application is for a permit to open a new solid 83408 waste facility, the director shall hold the hearing not less 83409 than fourteen days after the information session. If the 83410 application is for a permit to modify an existing solid waste 83411 facility, the director may hold both the information session and 83412 the hearing on the same day unless any individual affected by 83413 the application requests in writing that the information session 83414 and the hearing not be held on the same day, in which case the 83415 director shall hold the hearing not less than fourteen days 83416 after the information session. The director shall publish notice 83417 of the public information session or public hearing not less 83418 than thirty days before holding the information session or 83419 hearing, as applicable. The notice shall be published in each 83420 newspaper of general circulation that is published in the county 83421 in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. ~~If no~~ 83422 ~~newspaper of general circulation is published in the county, the~~ 83423

~~director shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general~~ 83424
~~circulation in the county or by publication on the environmental~~ 83425 protection agency's official web site. The notice shall contain 83426 the date, time, and location of the information session or 83427 hearing, as applicable, and a general description of the 83428 proposed new or modified facility. At the public information 83429 session, an officer or employee of the environmental protection 83430 agency shall describe the status of the permit application and 83431 be available to respond to comments or questions concerning the 83432 application. At the public hearing, any person may submit 83433 written or oral comments on or objections to the approval of the 83434 application. The applicant, or a representative of the applicant 83435 who has knowledge of the location, construction, and operation 83436 of the facility, shall attend the information session and public 83437 hearing to respond to comments or questions concerning the 83438 facility directed to the applicant or representative by the 83439 officer or employee of the environmental protection agency 83440 presiding at the information session and hearing. 83441

(f) The solid waste management policy committee of a 83442 county or joint solid waste management district may adopt a 83443 resolution requesting expeditious consideration of a specific 83444 application submitted under division (A)(2)(a) of this section 83445 for a permit to modify an existing solid waste facility within 83446 the district. The resolution shall make the finding that 83447 expedited consideration of the application without the public 83448 information session and public hearing under division (A) (2) (e) 83449 of this section is in the public interest and will not endanger 83450

accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. Upon receiving 83452 such a resolution, the director, at the director's discretion, 83453 may issue a final action upon the application without holding a 83454 public information session or public hearing pursuant to 83455 division (A) (2) (e) of this section. 83456

(3) The director may issue an order in accordance with 83457
Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of a 83458 solid waste facility requiring the person to submit to the 83459 director updated engineering detail plans, specifications, and 83460 information regarding the facility and its method of operation 83461 for approval under rules adopted under division (A) of section 83462 3734.02 of the Revised Code and applicable rules adopted under 83463 division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code if, in the 83464 director's judgment, conditions at the facility constitute a 83465 substantial threat to public health or safety or are causing or 83466 contributing to or threatening to cause or contribute to air or 83467 water pollution or soil contamination. Any person who receives 83468 such an order shall submit the updated engineering detail plans, 83469 specifications, and information to the director within one 83470 hundred eighty days after the effective date of the order. 83471

(4) The director shall act upon any updated engineering 83472
plans, specifications, and information submitted under division 83473
(A) (3) of this section within one hundred eighty days after 83474 receiving them. If the director issues an order disapproving the 83475
(A) (3) of this section, the order shall include all of the 83477 following requirements: 83478

(a) That the owner or operator submit a plan for closure 83479 and post-closure care of the facility to the director for 83480 approval within six months after issuance of the order; 83481

(b) That the owner or operator cease accepting solid 83482 wastes for disposal or transfer at the facility; and 83483

(c) The owner or operator commence closure of the facility 83484 not later than one year after issuance of the order. 83485

If the director determines that closure of the facility 83486 within that one-year period would result in the unavailability 83487 of sufficient solid waste management facility capacity within 83488 the county or joint solid waste management district in which the 83489 facility is located to dispose of or transfer the solid waste 83490 generated within the district, the director in the order of 83491 disapproval may postpone commencement of closure of the facility 83492 for such period of time as the director finds necessary for the 83493 board of county commissioners or directors of the district to 83494 secure access to or for there to be constructed within the 83495 district sufficient solid waste management facility capacity to 83496 meet the needs of the district, provided that the director shall 83497 certify in the director's order that postponing the date for 83498 commencement of closure will not endanger ground water or any 83499 property surrounding the facility, allow methane gas migration 83500 to occur, or cause or contribute to any other type of 83501 environmental damage. 83502

If an emergency need for disposal capacity that may affect 83503 public health and safety exists as a result of closure of a 83504 facility under division (A) (4) of this section, the director may 83505 issue an order designating another solid waste facility to 83506 accept the wastes that would have been disposed of at the 83507 facility to be closed. 83508

(5) If the director determines that standards more 83509 stringent than those applicable in rules adopted under division 83510
(A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and division (D) of 83511 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or standards pertaining to 83512 subjects not specifically addressed by those rules, are 83513 necessary to ensure that a solid waste facility constructed at 83514 the proposed location will not cause a nuisance, cause or 83515 contribute to water pollution, or endanger public health or 83516 safety, the director may issue a permit for the facility with 83517 such terms and conditions as the director finds necessary to 83518 protect public health and safety and the environment. If a 83519 permit is issued, the director shall state in the order issuing 83520 it the specific findings supporting each such term or condition. 83521

(6) Divisions (A) (1) and (2) (a) of this section do not 83522 apply to a solid waste compost facility that accepts exclusively 83523 source separated yard wastes and that is registered under 83524 division (C) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code or, unless 83525 otherwise provided in rules adopted under division (N) (3) of 83526 section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, to a solid waste compost 83527 facility if the director has adopted rules establishing an 83528 alternative system for authorizing the establishment, operation, 83529 or modification of a solid waste compost facility under that 83530
division. 83531

(7) Divisions (A) (1) to (5) of this section do not apply 83532 to scrap tire collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and 83533 recovery facilities. The approval of plans and specifications, 83534 as applicable, and the issuance of registration certificates, 83535 permits, and licenses for those facilities are subject to 83536 sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 of the Revised Code, as applicable, 83537 and section 3734.81 of the Revised Code. 83538

(B) (1) No person shall operate or maintain an infectious 83539 waste treatment facility without a license issued by the board 83540 of health of the health district in which the facility is 83541 located or by the director when the health district in which the 83542 facility is located is not on the approved list under section 83543
3734.08 of the Revised Code. 83544

(2) (a) During the month of December, but before the first 83545 day of January of the next year, every person proposing to 83546 continue to operate an existing infectious waste treatment 83547 facility shall procure a license to operate the facility for 83548 that year from the board of health of the health district in 83549 which the facility is located or, if the health district is not 83550 on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, 83551 from the director. The application for such a license shall be 83552 submitted to the board of health or to the director, as 83553 appropriate, on or before the last day of September of the year 83554 preceding that for which the license is sought. In addition to 83555 the application fee prescribed in division (B) (2) (c) of this 83556 section, a person who submits an application after that date 83557 shall pay an additional ten per cent of the amount of the 83558 application fee for each week that the application is late. Late 83559 payment fees accompanying an application submitted to the board 83560 of health shall be credited to the special infectious waste fund 83561 of the health district created in division (C) of section 83562 3734.06 of the Revised Code, and late payment fees accompanying 83563 an application submitted to the director shall be credited to 83564 the general revenue fund. A person who has received a license, 83565 upon sale or disposition of an infectious waste treatment 83566

director, may have the license transferred to another person. 83568
The board of health or the director may include such terms and 83569 conditions in a license or revision to a license as are 83570 appropriate to ensure compliance with the infectious waste 83571 provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under them. 83572

(b) Each person proposing to open a new infectious waste 83573 treatment facility or to modify an existing infectious waste 83574 treatment facility shall submit an application for a permit with 83575 accompanying detail plans and specifications to the 83576 environmental protection agency for required approval under the 83577 rules adopted by the director pursuant to section 3734.021 of 83578 the Revised Code two hundred seventy days before proposed 83579 operation of the facility and concurrently shall make 83580 application for a license with the board of health of the health 83581 district in which the facility is or is proposed to be located. 83582 Not later than ninety days after receiving a complete 83583 application under division (B) (2) (b) of this section for a 83584 permit to open a new infectious waste treatment facility or 83585 modify an existing infectious waste treatment facility to expand 83586 its treatment capacity, or receiving a complete application 83587 under division (A) (2) (a) of this section for a permit to open a 83588 new solid waste incineration facility, or modify an existing 83589 solid waste incineration facility to also treat infectious 83590 wastes or to increase its infectious waste treatment capacity, 83591 that pertains to a facility for which a notation authorizing 83592 infectious waste treatment is included or proposed to be 83593 included in the solid waste incineration facility's license 83594 pursuant to division (B) (3) of this section, the director shall 83595 hold a public hearing on the application within the county in 83596 which the new or modified infectious waste or solid waste 83597 facility is or is proposed to be located or within a contiguous 83598 county. Not less than thirty days before holding the public 83599 hearing on the application, the director shall publish notice of 83600 the hearing in each newspaper that has general circulation and 83601 that is published in the county in which the facility is or is 83602 proposed to be located. ~~If there is no newspaper that has~~ 83603 ~~general circulation and that is published in the county, the~~ 83604

~~director shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general~~ 83605
protection agency's official web site. The notice shall contain 83607 the date, time, and location of the public hearing and a general 83608 description of the proposed new or modified facility. At the 83609 public hearing, any person may submit written or oral comments 83610 on or objections to the approval or disapproval of the 83611 application. The applicant, or a representative of the applicant 83612
who has knowledge of the location, construction, and operation 83613 of the facility, shall attend the public hearing to respond to 83614 comments or questions concerning the facility directed to the 83615 applicant or representative by the officer or employee of the 83616 environmental protection agency presiding at the hearing. 83617

(c) Each application for a permit under division (B) (2) (b) 83618 of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 83619 application fee of four hundred dollars that shall be credited 83620
license under division (B) (2) (a) of this section shall be 83622 accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred 83623 dollars. If the application for an annual license is submitted 83624
to a board of health on the approved list under section 3734.08 83625
the special infectious waste fund of the health district created 83627 in division (C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. If the 83628 application for an annual license is submitted to the director, 83629 the application fee shall be credited to the general revenue 83630 fund. If a permit or license is issued, the amount of the 83631 application fee paid shall be deducted from the amount of the 83632 permit fee due under division ~~(Q)~~ (P) of section 3745.11 of the 83633 Revised Code or the amount of the license fee due under division 83634

(C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. 83635

(d) The director may issue an order in accordance with 83636
Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of an 83637 infectious waste treatment facility requiring the person to 83638 submit to the director updated engineering detail plans, 83639 specifications, and information regarding the facility and its 83640 method of operation for approval under rules adopted under 83641 section 3734.021 of the Revised Code if, in the director's 83642 judgment, conditions at the facility constitute a substantial 83643 threat to public health or safety or are causing or contributing 83644 to or threatening to cause or contribute to air or water 83645 pollution or soil contamination. Any person who receives such an 83646 order shall submit the updated engineering detail plans, 83647
hundred eighty days after the effective date of the order. 83649

(e) The director shall act on any updated engineering 83650
(B) (2) (d) of this section within one hundred eighty days after 83652 receiving them. If the director disapproves any such updated 83653 engineering plans, specifications, and information, the director 83654 shall include in the order disapproving the plans the 83655 requirement that the owner or operator cease accepting 83656 infectious wastes for treatment at the facility. 83657

(3) Division (B) of this section does not apply to a 83658 generator of infectious wastes that meets any of the following 83659

conditions: 83660

(a) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices 83661 established by rules adopted under division (B) (2) (a) of section 83662 3734.021 of the Revised Code, any of the following wastes: 83663

(i) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises 83664 that are owned or operated by the generator; 83665

(ii) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator 83666 who has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 83667
3727.01 of the Revised Code; 83668

(iii) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing 83669 care to a patient by an emergency medical services organization 83670 as defined in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 83671

(b) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a 83672 crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit 83673 issued under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 83674

(c) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, 83675 or the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 83676

(i) Inspection under the "Federal Meat Inspection Act," 81 83677
Stat. 584 (1967), 21 U.S.C.A. 603, as amended; 83678

(ii) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 83679

(iii) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 83680

Nothing in division (B) of this section requires a 83681 facility that holds a license issued under division (A) of this 83682 section as a solid waste facility and that also treats 83683 infectious wastes by the same method, technique, or process to 83684 obtain a license under division (B) of this section as an 83685 infectious waste treatment facility. However, the solid waste 83686 facility license for the facility shall include the notation 83687 that the facility also treats infectious wastes. 83688

The director shall not issue a permit to open a new solid 83689 waste incineration facility unless the proposed facility 83690 complies with the requirements for the location of new 83691 infectious waste incineration facilities established in rules 83692 adopted under division (B) (2) (b) of section 3734.021 of the 83693
Revised Code. 83694

(C) Except for a facility or activity described in 83695 division (E) (3) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, a person 83696 who proposes to establish or operate a hazardous waste facility 83697 shall submit a complete application for a hazardous waste 83698 facility installation and operation permit and accompanying 83699 detail plans, specifications, and such information as the 83700 director may require to the environmental protection agency at 83701 least one hundred eighty days before the proposed beginning of 83702 operation of the facility. The applicant shall notify by 83703 certified mail the legislative authority of each municipal 83704 corporation, township, and county in which the facility is 83705 proposed to be located of the submission of the application 83706 within ten days after the submission or at such earlier time as 83707 the director may establish by rule. If the application is for a 83708 proposed new hazardous waste disposal or thermal treatment 83709 facility, the applicant also shall give actual notice of the 83710 general design and purpose of the facility to the legislative 83711 authority of each municipal corporation, township, and county in 83712 which the facility is proposed to be located at least ninety 83713 days before the permit application is submitted to the 83714
environmental protection agency. 83715

In accordance with rules adopted under section 3734.12 of 83716 the Revised Code, prior to the submission of a complete 83717 application for a hazardous waste facility installation and 83718 operation permit, the applicant shall hold at least one meeting 83719 in the township or municipal corporation in which the facility 83720 is proposed to be located, whichever is geographically closer to 83721 the proposed location of the facility. The meeting shall be open 83722 to the public and shall be held to inform the community of the 83723 proposed hazardous waste management activities and to solicit 83724 questions from the community concerning the activities. 83725

(D) (1) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the 83726 Revised Code, upon receipt of a complete application for a 83727 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit under 83728 division (C) of this section, the director shall consider the 83729 application and accompanying information to determine whether 83730 the application complies with agency rules and the requirements 83731 of division (D) (2) of this section. After making a 83732 determination, the director shall issue either a draft permit or 83733 a notice of intent to deny the permit. The director, in 83734 accordance with rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the 83735 Revised Code or with rules adopted to implement Chapter 3745. of 83736 the Revised Code, shall provide public notice of the application 83737 and the draft permit or the notice of intent to deny the permit, 83738 provide an opportunity for public comments, and, if significant 83739 interest is shown, schedule a public meeting in the county in 83740 which the facility is proposed to be located and give public 83741 notice of the date, time, and location of the public meeting in 83742 a newspaper of general circulation in that county. 83743

(2) The director shall not approve an application for a 83744 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit or an 83745 application for a modification under division (I) (3) of this 83746 section unless the director finds and determines as follows: 83747

(a) The nature and volume of the waste to be treated, 83748 stored, or disposed of at the facility; 83749

(b) That the facility complies with the director's 83750 hazardous waste standards adopted pursuant to section 3734.12 of 83751

(c) That the facility represents the minimum adverse 83753 environmental impact, considering the state of available 83754 technology and the nature and economics of various alternatives, 83755 and other pertinent considerations; 83756

(d) That the facility represents the minimum risk of all 83757 of the following: 83758

(i) Fires or explosions from treatment, storage, or 83759 disposal methods; 83760

(ii) Release of hazardous waste during transportation of 83761 hazardous waste to or from the facility; 83762

(iii) Adverse impact on the public health and safety. 83763

(e) That the facility will comply with this chapter and 83764
Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the Revised Code and all rules and 83765 standards adopted under them; 83766

(f) That if the owner of the facility, the operator of the 83767 facility, or any other person in a position with the facility 83768 from which the person may influence the installation and 83769 operation of the facility has been involved in any prior 83770 activity involving transportation, treatment, storage, or 83771 disposal of hazardous waste, that person has a history of 83772 compliance with this chapter and Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the 83773 Revised Code and all rules and standards adopted under them, the 83774
"Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 83775

42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, and all regulations adopted under 83776 it, and similar laws and rules of other states if any such prior 83777 operation was located in another state that demonstrates 83778 sufficient reliability, expertise, and competency to operate a 83779 hazardous waste facility under the applicable provisions of this 83780 chapter and Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the Revised Code, the 83781 applicable rules and standards adopted under them, and terms and 83782 conditions of a hazardous waste facility installation and 83783 operation permit, given the potential for harm to the public 83784 health and safety and the environment that could result from the 83785 irresponsible operation of the facility. For off-site 83786 facilities, as defined in section 3734.41 of the Revised Code, 83787 the director may use the investigative reports of the attorney 83788 general prepared pursuant to section 3734.42 of the Revised Code 83789 as a basis for making a finding and determination under division 83790
(D) (2) (f) of this section. 83791

(g) That the active areas within a new hazardous waste 83792 facility where acute hazardous waste as listed in 40 C.F.R. 83793 261.33 (e), as amended, or organic waste that is toxic and is 83794 listed under 40 C.F.R. 261, as amended, is being stored, 83795 treated, or disposed of and where the aggregate of the storage 83796 design capacity and the disposal design capacity of all 83797 hazardous waste in those areas is greater than two hundred fifty 83798 thousand gallons, are not located or operated within any of the 83799
following: 83800

(i) Two thousand feet of any residence, school, hospital, 83801 jail, or prison; 83802

(ii) Any naturally occurring wetland; 83803

(iii) Any flood hazard area if the applicant cannot show 83804 that the facility will be designed, constructed, operated, and 83805 maintained to prevent washout by a one-hundred-year flood. 83806

Division (D) (2) (g) of this section does not apply to the 83807 facility of any applicant who demonstrates to the director that 83808 the limitations specified in that division are not necessary 83809 because of the nature or volume of the waste and the manner of 83810 management applied, the facility will impose no substantial 83811 danger to the health and safety of persons occupying the 83812 structures listed in division (D) (2) (g) (i) of this section, and 83813 the facility is to be located or operated in an area where the 83814 proposed hazardous waste activities will not be incompatible 83815 with existing land uses in the area. 83816

(h) That the facility will not be located within the 83817 boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under 83818 Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area 83819 established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit 83820 of the national park system, or any property that lies within 83821 the boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that 83822 has not been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of 83823 the United States department of the interior, located in this 83824 state, or any candidate area located in this state identified 83825 for potential inclusion in the national park system in the 83826 edition of the "national park system plan" submitted under 83827 paragraph (b) of section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 83828 Stat. 825, 16 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of 83829 filing of the application for the permit, unless the facility 83830 will be used exclusively for the storage of hazardous waste 83831 generated within the park or recreation area in conjunction with 83832 the operation of the park or recreation area. Division (D) (2) (h) 83833 of this section does not apply to the facility of any applicant 83834 for modification of a permit unless the modification application 83835 proposes to increase the land area included in the facility or 83836 to increase the quantity of hazardous waste that will be 83837 treated, stored, or disposed of at the facility. 83838

(3) Not later than one hundred eighty days after the end 83839 of the public comment period, the director, without prior 83840 hearing, shall issue or deny the permit in accordance with 83841 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. If the director approves an 83842 application for a hazardous waste facility installation and 83843 operation permit, the director shall issue the permit, upon such 83844 terms and conditions as the director finds are necessary to 83845 ensure the construction and operation of the hazardous waste 83846 facility in accordance with the standards of this section. 83847

(E) No political subdivision of this state shall require 83848 any additional zoning or other approval, consent, permit, 83849 certificate, or condition for the construction or operation of a 83850 hazardous waste facility authorized by a hazardous waste 83851 facility installation and operation permit issued pursuant to 83852 this chapter, nor shall any political subdivision adopt or 83853 enforce any law, ordinance, or rule that in any way alters, 83854 impairs, or limits the authority granted in the permit. 83855

(F) The director may issue a single hazardous waste 83856 facility installation and operation permit to a person who 83857 operates two or more adjoining facilities where hazardous waste 83858 is stored, treated, or disposed of if the application includes 83859 detail plans, specifications, and information on all facilities. 83860
For the purposes of this section, "adjoining" means sharing a 83861 common boundary, separated only by a public road, or in such 83862 proximity that the director determines that the issuance of a 83863 single permit will not create a hazard to the public health or 83864 safety or the environment. 83865

(G) No person shall falsify or fail to keep or submit any 83866 plans, specifications, data, reports, records, manifests, or 83867 other information required to be kept or submitted to the 83868 director by this chapter or the rules adopted under it. 83869

(H) (1) Each person who holds an installation and operation 83870 permit issued under this section and who wishes to obtain a 83871 permit renewal shall submit a completed application for an 83872 installation and operation permit renewal and any necessary 83873 accompanying general plans, detail plans, specifications, and 83874 such information as the director may require to the director no 83875 later than one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration date 83876 of the existing permit or upon a later date prior to the 83877 expiration of the existing permit if the permittee can 83878 demonstrate good cause for the late submittal. The director 83879 shall consider the application and accompanying information, 83880 inspection reports of the facility, results of performance 83881 tests, a report regarding the facility's compliance or 83882 noncompliance with the terms and conditions of its permit and 83883 rules adopted by the director under this chapter, and such other 83884 information as is relevant to the operation of the facility and 83885 shall issue a draft renewal permit or a notice of intent to deny 83886 the renewal permit. The director, in accordance with rules 83887 adopted under this section or with rules adopted to implement 83888 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code, shall give public notice of 83889 the application and draft renewal permit or notice of intent to 83890 deny the renewal permit, provide for the opportunity for public 83891 comments within a specified time period, schedule a public 83892 meeting in the county in which the facility is located if 83893 significant interest is shown, and give public notice of the 83894 public meeting. 83895

(2) Within sixty days after the public meeting or close of 83896 the public comment period, the director, without prior hearing, 83897 shall issue or deny the renewal permit in accordance with 83898 Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director shall not issue 83899 a renewal permit unless the director determines that the 83900 facility under the existing permit has a history of compliance 83901 with this chapter, rules adopted under it, the existing permit, 83902 or orders entered to enforce such requirements that demonstrates 83903 sufficient reliability, expertise, and competency to operate the 83904 facility henceforth under this chapter, rules adopted under it, 83905 and the renewal permit. If the director approves an application 83906 for a renewal permit, the director shall issue the permit 83907 subject to the payment of the annual permit fee required under 83908 division (E) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and upon 83909 such terms and conditions as the director finds are reasonable 83910 to ensure that continued operation, maintenance, closure, and 83911 post-closure care of the hazardous waste facility are in 83912 accordance with the rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the 83913

Revised Code. 83914

(3) An installation and operation permit renewal 83915 application submitted to the director that also contains or 83916 would constitute an application for a modification shall be 83917 acted upon by the director in accordance with division (I) of 83918 this section in the same manner as an application for a 83919 modification. In approving or disapproving the renewal portion 83920 of a permit renewal application containing an application for a 83921 modification, the director shall apply the criteria established 83922 under division (H) (2) of this section. 83923

(4) An application for renewal or modification of a permit 83924 that does not contain an application for a modification as 83925 described in divisions (I) (3) (a) to (d) of this section shall 83926 not be subject to division (D) (2) of this section. 83927

(I) (1) As used in this section, "modification" means a 83928 change or alteration to a hazardous waste facility or its 83929 operations that is inconsistent with or not authorized by its 83930 existing permit or authorization to operate. Modifications shall 83931 be classified as Class 1, 2, or 3 modifications in accordance 83932 with rules adopted under division (K) of this section. 83933 Modifications classified as Class 3 modifications, in accordance 83934 with rules adopted under that division, shall be further 83935 classified by the director as either Class 3 modifications that 83936 are to be approved or disapproved by the director under 83937 divisions (I) (3) (a) to (d) of this section or as Class 3 83938 modifications that are to be approved or disapproved by the 83939 director under division (I) (5) of this section. Not later than 83940 thirty days after receiving a request for a modification under 83941 division (I) (4) of this section that is not listed in Appendix I 83942 to 40 C.F.R. 270.42 or in rules adopted under division (K) of 83943 this section, the director shall classify the modification and 83944 shall notify the owner or operator of the facility requesting 83945 the modification of the classification. Notwithstanding any 83946 other law to the contrary, a modification that involves the 83947 transfer of a hazardous waste facility installation and 83948 operation permit to a new owner or operator for any off-site 83949 facility as defined in section 3734.41 of the Revised Code shall 83950 be classified as a Class 3 modification. The transfer of a 83951 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to a 83952 new owner or operator for a facility that is not an off-site 83953 facility shall be classified as a Class 1 modification requiring 83954 prior approval of the director. 83955

(2) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the Revised 83956
Code, a hazardous waste facility installation and operation 83957 permit may be modified at the request of the director or upon 83958 the written request of the permittee only if any of the 83959

following applies: 83960

(a) The permittee desires to accomplish alterations, 83961 additions, or deletions to the permitted facility or to 83962 undertake alterations, additions, deletions, or activities that 83963 are inconsistent with or not authorized by the existing permit; 83964

(b) New information or data justify permit conditions in 83965 addition to or different from those in the existing permit; 83966

(c) The standards, criteria, or rules upon which the 83967 existing permit is based have been changed by new, amended, or 83968 rescinded standards, criteria, or rules, or by judicial decision 83969 after the existing permit was issued, and the change justifies 83970 permit conditions in addition to or different from those in the 83971 existing permit; 83972

(d) The permittee proposes to transfer the permit to 83973 another person. 83974

(3) The director shall approve or disapprove an 83975 application for a modification in accordance with division (D) 83976
(2) of this section and rules adopted under division (K) of this 83977 section for all of the following categories of Class 3 83978 modifications: 83979

(a) Authority to conduct treatment, storage, or disposal 83980 at a site, location, or tract of land that has not been 83981 authorized for the proposed category of treatment, storage, or 83982 disposal activity by the facility's permit; 83983

(b) Modification or addition of a hazardous waste 83984 management unit, as defined in rules adopted under section 83985 3734.12 of the Revised Code, that results in an increase in a 83986 facility's storage capacity of more than twenty-five per cent 83987 over the capacity authorized by the facility's permit, an 83988 increase in a facility's treatment rate of more than twenty-five 83989 per cent over the rate so authorized, or an increase in a 83990 facility's disposal capacity over the capacity so authorized. 83991

The authorized disposal capacity for a facility shall be 83992 calculated from the approved design plans for the disposal units 83993 at that facility. In no case during a five-year period shall a 83994 facility's storage capacity or treatment rate be modified to 83995 increase by more than twenty-five per cent in the aggregate 83996 without the director's approval in accordance with division (D) 83997
(2) of this section. Notwithstanding any provision of division 83998
(I) of this section to the contrary, a request for modification 83999 of a facility's annual total waste receipt limit shall be 84000 classified and approved or disapproved by the director under 84001 division (I) (5) of this section. 84002

(c) Authority to add any of the following categories of 84003 regulated activities not previously authorized at a facility by 84004 the facility's permit: storage at a facility not previously 84005 authorized to store hazardous waste, treatment at a facility not 84006 previously authorized to treat hazardous waste, or disposal at a 84007 facility not previously authorized to dispose of hazardous 84008 waste; or authority to add a category of hazardous waste 84009 management unit not previously authorized at the facility by the 84010 facility's permit. Notwithstanding any provision of division (I) 84011 of this section to the contrary, a request for authority to add 84012 or to modify an activity or a hazardous waste management unit 84013 for the purposes of performing a corrective action shall be 84014
division (I) (5) of this section. 84016

(d) Authority to treat, store, or dispose of waste types 84017 listed or characterized as reactive or explosive, in rules 84018 adopted under section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or any acute 84019 hazardous waste listed in 40 C.F.R. 261.33(e), as amended, at a 84020 facility not previously authorized to treat, store, or dispose 84021 of those types of wastes by the facility's permit unless the 84022 requested authority is limited to wastes that no longer exhibit 84023 characteristics meeting the criteria for listing or 84024 characterization as reactive or explosive wastes, or for listing 84025 as acute hazardous waste, but still are required to carry those 84026 waste codes as established in rules adopted under section 84027 3734.12 of the Revised Code because of the requirements 84028 established in 40 C.F.R. 261(a) and (e), as amended, that is, 84029 the "mixture," "derived-from," or "contained-in" regulations. 84030

(4) A written request for a modification from the 84031 permittee shall be submitted to the director and shall contain 84032 such information as is necessary to support the request. 84033 Requests for modifications shall be acted upon by the director 84034 in accordance with this section and rules adopted under it. 84035

(5) Class 1 modification applications that require prior 84036 approval of the director, as provided in division (I)(1) of this 84037 section or as determined in accordance with rules adopted under 84038 division (K) of this section, Class 2 modification applications, 84039 and Class 3 modification applications that are not described in 84040 divisions (I)(3)(a) to (d) of this section shall be approved or 84041 disapproved by the director in accordance with rules adopted 84042 under division (K) of this section. The board of county 84043 commissioners of the county, the board of township trustees of 84044 the township, and the city manager or mayor of the municipal 84045 corporation in which a hazardous waste facility is located shall 84046 receive notification of any application for a modification for 84047 that facility and shall be considered as interested persons with 84048 respect to the director's consideration of the application. 84049

As used in division (I) of this section:

overall operation of a facility.

The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a Class 1 modification that requires the director's approval within sixty days after receiving the request for modification.
The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a Class 2 modification within three hundred days after receiving the request for modification. The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a Class 3 modification within three hundred sixty-five days after receiving the request for modification.

Class 3 modification is a final action that is appealable under that chapter. In approving or disapproving a request for a modification, the director shall consider all comments pertaining to the request that are received during the public comment period and the public meetings. The administrative record for appeal of a final action by the director in approving

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a change or alteration to a hazardous waste facility described in division (E) (3) (a) or (b) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, or its operations, is a modification for the purposes of this section. An application for a modification at such a facility shall be submitted, classified, and approved or disapproved in accordance with divisions (I) (1) to (6) of this section in the same manner as a modification to a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit.

(J) (1) Except as provided in division (J) (2) of this section, an owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility that is operating in accordance with a permit by rule under rules adopted by the director under division (E) (3) (b) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code shall submit either a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit application for the facility or a modification application, whichever is required under division (J) (1) (a) or (b) of this section, within one hundred eighty days after the director has requested the application or upon a later date if the owner or operator demonstrates to the director good cause for the late submittal.

(a) If the owner or operator does not have a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit for any hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility, the owner or operator shall submit an application for such a permit to the director for the activities authorized by the permit by rule. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the director shall approve or disapprove the application for the permit in accordance with the procedures governing the approval or disapproval of permit renewals under division (H) of this section.

(b) If the owner or operator has a hazardous waste 84109 facility installation and operation permit for hazardous waste 84110 treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility other 84111 than those authorized by the permit by rule, the owner or 84112 operator shall submit to the director a request for modification 84113 in accordance with division (I) of this section. Notwithstanding 84114 any other provision of law to the contrary, the director shall 84115 approve or disapprove the modification application in accordance 84116 with division (I)(5) of this section. 84117

(2) The owner or operator of a boiler or industrial 84118 furnace that is conducting thermal treatment activities in 84119 accordance with a permit by rule under rules adopted by the 84120 director under division (E)(3)(b) of section 3734.02 of the 84121 Revised Code shall submit a hazardous waste facility 84122 installation and operation permit application if the owner or 84123 operator does not have such a permit for any hazardous waste 84124 treatment, storage, or disposal activities at the facility or, 84125 if the owner or operator has such a permit for hazardous waste 84126
than thermal treatment activities authorized by the permit by 84128 rule, a modification application to add those activities 84129 authorized by the permit by rule, whichever is applicable, 84130 within one hundred eighty days after the director has requested 84131 the submission of the application or upon a later date if the 84132 owner or operator demonstrates to the director good cause for 84133 the late submittal. The application shall be accompanied by 84134 information necessary to support the request. The director shall 84135 approve or disapprove an application for a hazardous waste 84136 facility installation and operation permit in accordance with 84137 division (D) of this section and approve or disapprove an 84138 application for a modification in accordance with division (I) 84139

(3) of this section, except that the director shall not 84140 disapprove an application for the thermal treatment activities 84141 on the basis of the criteria set forth in division (D) (2) (g) or 84142
(h) of this section. 84143

(3) As used in division (J) of this section: 84144

(a) "Modification application" means a request for a 84145 modification submitted in accordance with division (I) of this 84146
section. 84147

(b) "Thermal treatment," "boiler," and "industrial 84148 furnace" have the same meanings as in rules adopted under 84149
section 3734.12 of the Revised Code. 84150

(K) The director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or 84151 rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 84152 Code in order to implement divisions (H) and (I) of this 84153 section. Except when in actual conflict with this section, rules 84154 governing the classification of and procedures for the 84155 modification of hazardous waste facility installation and 84156 operation permits shall be substantively and procedurally 84157 identical to the regulations governing hazardous waste facility 84158 permitting and permit modifications adopted under the "Resource 84159 Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 84160 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended. 84161 eleven cents of the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the 84165 state treasury to the credit of the hazardous waste facility 84166 management fund created in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code 84167

In the case of solid wastes that are taken to a solid waste transfer facility located in this state prior to being transported for disposal at a solid waste disposal facility located in this state or outside of this state, the fees levied under this division shall be collected by the owner or operator of the transfer facility as a trustee for the state. The amount of fees required to be collected under this division at such a transfer facility shall equal the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the facility multiplied by the fees levied under 84189
84192
84193
84194
84195
84196
84197

this division. In the case of solid wastes that are not taken to 84198 a solid waste transfer facility located in this state prior to 84199 being transported to a solid waste disposal facility, the fees 84200 shall be collected by the owner or operator of the solid waste 84201 disposal facility as a trustee for the state. The amount of fees 84202 required to be collected under this division at such a disposal 84203 facility shall equal the total tonnage of solid wastes received 84204 at the facility that was not previously taken to a solid waste 84205 transfer facility located in this state multiplied by the fees 84206 levied under this division. Fees levied under this division do 84207 not apply to materials separated from a mixed waste stream for 84208 recycling by a generator or materials removed from the solid 84209 waste stream through recycling, as "recycling" is defined in 84210 rules adopted under section 3734.02 of the Revised Code. 84211

The owner or operator of a solid waste transfer facility 84212 or disposal facility, as applicable, shall prepare and file with 84213 the director of environmental protection each month a return 84214 indicating the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the 84215 facility during that month and the total amount of the fees 84216 required to be collected under this division during that month. 84217
In addition, the owner or operator of a solid waste disposal 84218 facility shall indicate on the return the total tonnage of solid 84219 wastes received from transfer facilities located in this state 84220 during that month for which the fees were required to be 84221 collected by the transfer facilities. The monthly returns shall 84222 be filed on a form prescribed by the director. Not later than 84223 thirty days after the last day of the month to which a return 84224 applies, the owner or operator shall mail to the director the 84225 return for that month together with the fees required to be 84226 collected under this division during that month as indicated on 84227 the return or may submit the return and fees electronically in a 84228 manner approved by the director. If the return is filed and the 84229 amount of the fees due is paid in a timely manner as required in 84230 this division, the owner or operator may retain a discount of 84231 three-fourths of one per cent of the total amount of the fees 84232 that are required to be paid as indicated on the return. 84233

The owner or operator may request an extension of not more 84234 than thirty days for filing the return and remitting the fees, 84235 provided that the owner or operator has submitted such a request 84236 in writing to the director together with a detailed description 84237 of why the extension is requested, the director has received the 84238 request not later than the day on which the return is required 84239 to be filed, and the director has approved the request. If the 84240 fees are not remitted within thirty days after the last day of 84241 the month to which the return applies or are not remitted by the 84242 last day of an extension approved by the director, the owner or 84243 operator shall not retain the three-fourths of one per cent 84244 discount and shall pay an additional ten per cent of the amount 84245 of the fees for each month that they are late. For purposes of 84246 calculating the late fee, the first month in which fees are late 84247 begins on the first day after the deadline has passed for timely 84248 submitting the return and fees, and one additional month shall 84249 be counted every thirty days thereafter. 84250

The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may 84251 request a refund or credit of fees levied under this division 84252 and remitted to the director that have not been paid to the 84253 owner or operator. Such a request shall be made only if the fees 84254 have not been collected by the owner or operator, have become a 84255 debt that has become worthless or uncollectable for a period of 84256 six months or more, and may be claimed as a deduction, including 84257 a deduction claimed if the owner or operator keeps accounts on 84258 an accrual basis, under the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," 68A 84259

Stat. 50, 26 U.S.C. 166, as amended, and regulations adopted 84260 under it. Prior to making a request for a refund or credit, an 84261 owner or operator shall make reasonable efforts to collect the 84262 applicable fees. A request for a refund or credit shall not 84263 include any costs resulting from those efforts to collect unpaid 84264 fees. 84265

A request for a refund or credit of fees shall be made in 84266 writing, on a form prescribed by the director, and shall be 84267 supported by evidence that may be required in rules adopted by 84268 the director under this chapter. After reviewing the request, 84269 and if the request and evidence submitted with the request 84270 indicate that a refund or credit is warranted, the director 84271 shall grant a refund to the owner or operator or shall permit a 84272 credit to be taken by the owner or operator on a subsequent 84273 monthly return submitted by the owner or operator. The amount of 84274 a refund or credit shall not exceed an amount that is equal to 84275 ninety days' worth of fees owed to an owner or operator by a 84276 particular debtor of the owner or operator. A refund or credit 84277 shall not be granted by the director to an owner or operator 84278 more than once in any twelve-month period for fees owed to the 84279 owner or operator by a particular debtor. 84280

If, after receiving a refund or credit from the director, 84281 an owner or operator receives payment of all or part of the 84282 fees, the owner or operator shall remit the fees with the next 84283 monthly return submitted to the director together with a written 84284 explanation of the reason for the submittal. 84285

For purposes of computing the fees levied under this 84286 division or division (B) of this section, any solid waste 84287 transfer or disposal facility that does not use scales as a 84288 means of determining gate receipts shall use a conversion factor 84289 of three cubic yards per ton of solid waste or one cubic yard 84290 per ton for baled waste, as applicable. 84291

The fees levied under this division and divisions (B) and 84292
(C) of this section are in addition to all other applicable fees 84293 and taxes and shall be paid by the customer or a political 84294 subdivision to the owner or operator of a solid waste transfer 84295 or disposal facility. In the alternative, the fees shall be paid 84296 by a customer or political subdivision to a transporter of waste 84297 who subsequently transfers the fees to the owner or operator of 84298 such a facility. The fees shall be paid notwithstanding the 84299 existence of any provision in a contract that the customer or a 84300 political subdivision may have with the owner or operator or 84301 with a transporter of waste to the facility that would not 84302 require or allow such payment regardless of whether the contract 84303 was entered prior to or after October 16, 2009. For those 84304 purposes, "customer" means a person who contracts with, or 84305 utilizes the solid waste services of, the owner or operator of a 84306 solid waste transfer or disposal facility or a transporter of 84307 solid waste to such a facility. 84308

(B) For the purposes specified in division (G) of this 84309 section, the solid waste management policy committee of a county 84310 or joint solid waste management district may levy fees upon the 84311 following activities: 84312

(1) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility 84313 located in the district of solid wastes generated within the 84314
district; 84315

(2) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility within 84316
the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of 84317
the district, but inside this state; 84318

(3) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility within 84319
the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of 84320
this state. 84321

The solid waste management plan of the county or joint 84322 district approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of the 84323 Revised Code and any amendments to it, or the resolution adopted 84324 under this division, as appropriate, shall establish the rates 84325 of the fees levied under divisions (B) (1), (2), and (3) of this 84326 section, if any, and shall specify whether the fees are levied 84327 on the basis of tons or cubic yards as the unit of measurement. 84328
A solid waste management district that levies fees under this 84329 division on the basis of cubic yards shall do so in accordance 84330 with division (A) of this section. 84331

The fee levied under division (B) (1) of this section shall 84332 be not less than one dollar per ton nor more than two dollars 84333 per ton, the fee levied under division (B) (2) of this section 84334 shall be not less than two dollars per ton nor more than four 84335 dollars per ton, and the fee levied under division (B) (3) of 84336 this section shall be not more than the fee levied under 84337 division (B) (1) of this section. 84338

Prior to the approval of the solid waste management plan 84339 of a district under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code, the 84340 solid waste management policy committee of a district may levy 84341 fees under this division by adopting a resolution establishing 84342 the proposed amount of the fees. Upon adopting the resolution, 84343 the committee shall deliver a copy of the resolution to the 84344 board of county commissioners of each county forming the 84345 district and to the legislative authority of each municipal 84346 corporation and township under the jurisdiction of the district 84347 and shall prepare and publish the resolution and a notice of the 84348 time and location where a public hearing on the fees will be 84349 held. Upon adopting the resolution, the committee shall deliver 84350 written notice of the adoption of the resolution; of the amount 84351 of the proposed fees; and of the date, time, and location of the 84352 public hearing to the director and to the fifty industrial, 84353 commercial, or institutional generators of solid wastes within 84354 the district that generate the largest quantities of solid 84355 wastes, as determined by the committee, and to their local trade 84356 associations. The committee shall make good faith efforts to 84357 identify those generators within the district and their local 84358 trade associations, but the nonprovision of notice under this 84359 division to a particular generator or local trade association 84360 does not invalidate the proceedings under this division. The 84361 publication shall occur at least thirty days before the hearing. 84362

After the hearing, the committee may make such revisions to the 84363 proposed fees as it considers appropriate and thereafter, by 84364 resolution, shall adopt the revised fee schedule. Upon adopting 84365 the revised fee schedule, the committee shall deliver a copy of 84366 the resolution doing so to the board of county commissioners of 84367 each county forming the district and to the legislative 84368 authority of each municipal corporation and township under the 84369 jurisdiction of the district. Within sixty days after the 84370 delivery of a copy of the resolution adopting the proposed 84371 revised fees by the policy committee, each such board and 84372 legislative authority, by ordinance or resolution, shall approve 84373 or disapprove the revised fees and deliver a copy of the 84374 ordinance or resolution to the committee. If any such board or 84375 legislative authority fails to adopt and deliver to the policy 84376 committee an ordinance or resolution approving or disapproving 84377 the revised fees within sixty days after the policy committee 84378 delivered its resolution adopting the proposed revised fees, it 84379 shall be conclusively presumed that the board or legislative 84380 authority has approved the proposed revised fees. The committee 84381 shall determine if the resolution has been ratified in the same 84382 manner in which it determines if a draft solid waste management 84383 plan has been ratified under division (B) of section 3734.55 of 84384

the Revised Code. 84385

The committee may amend the schedule of fees levied 84386 pursuant to a resolution adopted and ratified under this 84387 division by adopting a resolution establishing the proposed 84388 amount of the amended fees. The committee may repeal the fees 84389 levied pursuant to such a resolution by adopting a resolution 84390 proposing to repeal them. Upon adopting such a resolution, the 84391 committee shall proceed to obtain ratification of the resolution 84392 in accordance with this division. 84393

Not later than fourteen days after declaring the new fees 84394 to be ratified or the fees to be repealed under this division, 84395 the committee shall notify by certified mail the owner or 84396 operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is required 84397 to collect the fees of the ratification and the amount of the 84398 fees or of the repeal of the fees. Collection of any fees shall 84399 commence or collection of repealed fees shall cease on the first 84400 day of the second month following the month in which 84401 notification is sent to the owner or operator. 84402

Fees levied under this division also may be established, 84403 amended, or repealed by a solid waste management policy 84404 committee through the adoption of a new district solid waste 84405 management plan, the adoption of an amended plan, or the 84406 amendment of the plan or amended plan in accordance with 84407 sections 3734.55 and 3734.56 of the Revised Code or the adoption 84408 or amendment of a district plan in connection with a change in 84409 district composition under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code. 84410

Not later than fourteen days after the director issues an 84411 order approving a district's solid waste management plan, 84412 amended plan, or amendment to a plan or amended plan that 84413 the amount of the fees, if any. In the case of an initial or 84419 amended plan approved under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code 84420 in connection with a change in district composition, other than 84421 change has taken effect and of the amount of the fees, if any. 84427 Collection of any fees shall commence or collection of repealed 84428 fees shall cease on the first day of the second month following 84429 the month in which notification is sent to the owner or 84430 and of the amount of the fees or amended fees levied under 84445 divisions (B) (1) to (3) of this section pursuant to the 84446 district's initial or amended plan as so approved or, if 84447

If, in the case of a change in district composition 84454 involving the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, the 84455 director completes the actions required under division (G) (1) or 84456
(3) of section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, 84457 less than forty-five days before the beginning of a calendar 84458 from the change that obtained the director's approval of an 84460 initial or amended plan in connection with the change 84461 proceedings, shall notify by certified mail the owner or 84462 operator of each solid waste disposal facility that is required 84463 to collect the district's fees that the change is to take effect 84464 on the first day of January immediately following the mailing of 84465 the notice and of the amount of the fees or amended fees levied 84466 under divisions (B) (1) to (3) of this section pursuant to the 84467 district's initial or amended plan as so approved or, if 84468 or amended plan. Collection of any fees set forth in such a plan 84470 or amended plan shall commence on the first day of the second 84471 owner or operator. If such an initial or amended plan repeals a 84473 schedule of fees, collection of the fees shall cease on the 84474 first day of the second month following the month in which 84475 notification is sent to the owner or operator. 84476

If the schedule of fees that a solid waste management 84477 section is amended or repealed, the fees in effect immediately 84479 prior to the amendment or repeal shall continue to be collected 84480 until collection of the amended fees commences or collection of 84481 the repealed fees ceases, as applicable, as specified in this 84482 division. In the case of a change in district composition, money 84483 so received from the collection of the fees of the former 84484 facility located within the boundaries of the municipal 84509 corporation or township regardless of where the wastes were 84510 generated. 84511

The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or 84512 township may levy fees under this division by enacting an 84513 ordinance or adopting a resolution establishing the amount of 84514 the fees. Upon so doing the legislative authority shall mail a 84515 certified copy of the ordinance or resolution to the board of 84516 county commissioners or directors of the county or joint solid 84517 authority has been formed under section 343.011 of the Revised 84520 Code, to the board of trustees of that regional authority, the 84521 owner or operator of each solid waste disposal facility in the 84522 municipal corporation or township that is required to collect 84523 the fee by the ordinance or resolution, and the director of 84524 environmental protection. Although the fees levied under this 84525 division are levied on the basis of tons as the unit of 84526 the fees be levied on the basis of cubic yards as the unit of 84529 measurement based upon a conversion factor of three cubic yards 84530

(C) If any fee due is not paid timely in accordance with 84821 this section, the person liable for the fee shall pay interest, 84822 calculated at the rate per annum as prescribed by section 84823 5703.47 of the Revised Code, from the date the fee payment was 84824 due to the date of payment or to the date an assessment is 84825 issued, whichever occurs first. Interest shall be paid in the 84826 same manner as the fee, and the commissioner may collect the 84827 interest by assessment pursuant to section 3734.907 of the 84828
Revised Code. 84829

(D) If, in the estimation of the tax commissioner, the 84830 average liability of the person liable for the fee is such as 84831 not to merit monthly filing, the commissioner may authorize the 84832 person to file and pay at less frequent intervals. Returns are 84833 due by the twentieth day of the month following the close of the 84834 applicable reporting period authorized under this division. 84835

~~(E) If a return is filed and the amount of the fee shown 84836 to be due on the return is paid on or before the date that the 84837 return is required to be filed under division (A) of this 84838 section or pursuant to division (D) of this section, whichever 84839 is applicable, the person liable for the fee is entitled to a 84840 discount of four per cent of the amount shown to be due on the 84841 return. 84842~~

~~(F)~~ All money collected by the tax commissioner under this 84843 section shall be paid to the treasurer of state as revenue 84844 arising from the fee imposed by section 3734.901 of the Revised 84845
Code. 84846

Sec. 3734.907. (A) Any person required to pay the fee 84847 imposed by section 3734.901 of the Revised Code is personally 84848 liable for the fee. The tax commissioner may make an assessment, 84849 based upon any information in the commissioner's possession, 84850 against any person who fails to file a return or pay any fee, 84851 interest, or additional charge as required by sections 3734.90 84852 to 3734.9014 of the Revised Code. The commissioner shall give 84853 the person assessed written notice of the assessment in the 84854 manner provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the 84855 notice, the commissioner shall provide instructions on how to 84856 petition for reassessment and request a hearing on the petition. 84857

(B) When the information in the possession of the tax 84858 commissioner indicates that a person liable for the fee imposed 84859 by section 3734.901 of the Revised Code has not paid the full 84860 amount of fee due, the commissioner may audit a representative 84861 sample of the person's business and may issue an assessment 84862 based on the audit. 84863

(C) A penalty of up to fifteen per cent may be added to 84864 all amounts assessed under this section. The commissioner may 84865 adopt rules providing for the imposition and remission of the 84866 penalties. 84867

(D) Unless the person assessed files with the tax 84868 commissioner within sixty days after service of the notice of 84869 assessment, ~~either personally or by certified mail,~~ a written 84870 petition for reassessment signed by the person assessed or that 84871 person's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the 84872 assessment becomes final and the amount of the assessment is due 84873 and payable from the person assessed to the treasurer of state. 84874
The petition shall indicate the objections of the person 84875 assessed, but additional objections may be raised in writing if 84876 received by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the 84877 final determination. If the petition has been properly filed, 84878 the commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the 84879
Revised Code. 84880

(E) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of 84881 the assessment, including accrued interest, remains unpaid, a 84882 certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the 84883 assessment final may be filed in the office of the clerk of the 84884 court of common pleas in the county in which the person assessed 84885 resides or in which the person's business is conducted. If the 84886 person assessed maintains no place of business in this state and 84887 is not a resident of this state, the certified copy of the entry 84888 may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common 84889 pleas of Franklin county. 84890

Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall 84891 enter a judgment for the state against the person assessed in 84892 the amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "special judgments for state tire fee," and shall have the same effect as other judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment.

If the assessment is not paid in its entirety within sixty days after the day the assessment was issued, the portion of the assessment consisting of the fee due shall bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from the day the commissioner issues the assessment until the day the assessment is paid or until it is certified to the attorney general for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code, whichever comes first. If the unpaid portion of the assessment is certified to the attorney general for collection, the entire unpaid portion of the assessment shall bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from the date of certification until the date it is paid in its entirety. Interest shall be paid in the same manner as the fee and may be collected by the issuance of an assessment under this section.

(F) If the tax commissioner believes that collection of the fee will be jeopardized unless proceedings to collect or secure collection of the fee are instituted without delay, the commissioner may issue a jeopardy assessment against the person liable for the fee. Immediately upon the issuance of the jeopardy assessment, the commissioner shall file an entry with the clerk of the court of common pleas in the manner prescribed by division (E) of this section. Notice of the jeopardy assessment shall be served on the person assessed or the person's legal representative, as provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code, within five days of the filing of the entry 84924 with the clerk. The total amount assessed is immediately due and 84925 payable, unless the person assessed files a petition for 84926 reassessment in accordance with division (D) of this section and 84927 provides security in a form satisfactory to the commissioner and 84928 in an amount sufficient to satisfy the unpaid balance of the 84929 assessment. Full or partial payment of the assessment does not 84930 prejudice the commissioner's consideration of the petition for 84931 reassessment. 84932

(G) All money collected by the tax commissioner under this 84933
section shall be paid to the treasurer of state as revenue 84934
arising from the fee imposed by section 3734.901 of the Revised 84935
Code. 84936

Sec. 3735.67. (A) The owner of real property located in a 84937 community reinvestment area and eligible for exemption from 84938 taxation under a resolution adopted pursuant to section 3735.66 84939 of the Revised Code may file an application for an exemption 84940 from real property taxation of a percentage of the assessed 84941 valuation of a new structure, or of the increased assessed 84942 valuation of an existing structure after remodeling began, if 84943 the new structure or remodeling is completed after the effective 84944 date of the resolution adopted pursuant to section 3735.66 of 84945 the Revised Code. The application shall be filed with the 84946 housing officer designated for the community reinvestment area 84947 in which the property is located. If any part of the new 84948 structure or remodeled structure that would be exempted is of 84949 real property to be used for commercial or industrial purposes, 84950 the legislative authority and the owner of the property shall 84951 enter into a written agreement pursuant to section 3735.671 of 84952 the Revised Code prior to commencement of construction or 84953 remodeling; if such an agreement is subject to approval by the 84954 board of education of the school district within the territory 84955 of which the property is or will be located, the agreement shall 84956 not be formally approved by the legislative authority until the 84957 board of education approves the agreement in the manner 84958 prescribed by that section. If a structure is already subject to 84959 a written agreement pursuant to section 3735.671 of the Revised 84960 Code, is on the site of a proposed megaproject, and is expected 84961 to be owned or occupied by a megaproject operator as defined in 84962 division (A) (12) of section 122.17 of the Revised Code, or is 84963 not situated on the site of a proposed megaproject but is 84964 expected to be owned or occupied by a megaproject supplier that 84965 meets the requirements described in division (A) (13) (b) of 84966 section 122.17 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority 84967 may amend the agreement to cause the exemption for the structure 84968 to continue for a maximum amended term not exceeding thirty 84969 years by following the process for approving an agreement 84970 described in section 3735.671 of the Revised Code. 84971

(B) The housing officer shall verify the construction of 84972 the new structure or the cost of the remodeling of the existing 84973 structure and the facts asserted in the application. The housing 84974 officer shall determine whether the construction or remodeling 84975 meets the requirements for an exemption under this section. In 84976 cases involving a structure of historical or architectural 84977 significance, the housing officer shall not determine whether 84978 the remodeling meets the requirements for a tax exemption unless 84979 the appropriateness of the remodeling has been certified, in 84980 writing, by the society, association, agency, or legislative 84981 authority that has designated the structure or by any 84982 organization or person authorized, in writing, by such society, 84983 association, agency, or legislative authority to certify the 84984 appropriateness of the remodeling. 84985

(C) If the construction or remodeling meets the 84986 requirements for exemption, the housing officer shall forward 84987 the application to the county auditor with a certification as to 84988 the division of this section under which the exemption is 84989 granted, and the period and percentage of the exemption as 84990 determined by the legislative authority pursuant to that 84991 division. If the construction or remodeling is of commercial or 84992 industrial property and the legislative authority is not 84993 required to certify a copy of a resolution under section 84994 3735.671 of the Revised Code, the housing officer shall comply 84995 with the notice requirements prescribed under section 5709.83 of 84996 the Revised Code, unless the board has adopted a resolution 84997 under that section waiving its right to receive such a notice. 84998

(D) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, 84999 the tax exemption shall first apply in the year the construction 85000 or remodeling would first be taxable but for this section. In 85001 the case of remodeling that qualifies for exemption, a 85002 percentage, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the increased 85003 assessed valuation of an existing structure after remodeling 85004 began shall be exempted from real property taxation. In the case 85005 of construction of a structure that qualifies for exemption, a 85006 percentage, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the assessed 85007 value of the structure shall be exempted from real property 85008 taxation. In either case, the percentage shall be the percentage 85009 set forth in the agreement if the structure or remodeling is to 85010 be used for commercial or industrial purposes, or the percentage 85011 set forth in the resolution describing the community 85012 reinvestment area if the structure or remodeling is to be used 85013 for residential purposes. 85014

The construction of new structures and the remodeling of 85015 existing structures are hereby declared to be a public purpose 85016 for which exemptions from real property taxation may be granted 85017 for the following periods: 85018

(1) For every dwelling and commercial or industrial 85019 properties, located within the same community reinvestment area, 85020 upon which the cost of remodeling is at least two thousand five 85021 hundred dollars in the case of a dwelling containing not more 85022 than two family units or at least five thousand dollars in the 85023 case of all other property, a period to be determined by the 85024 legislative authority adopting the resolution, but not exceeding 85025 fifteen years. The period of exemption for a dwelling described 85026 in division (D) (1) of this section may be extended by a 85027 legislative authority for up to an additional ten years if the 85028 dwelling is a structure of historical or architectural 85029 significance, is a certified historic structure that has been 85030 subject to federal tax treatment under 26 U.S.C. 47 and 170(h), 85031 and units within the structure have been leased to individual 85032 tenants for five consecutive years; 85033

(2) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, 85034 for construction of every dwelling, and commercial or industrial 85035 structure located within the same community reinvestment area, a 85036 period to be determined by the legislative authority adopting 85037 the resolution, but not exceeding one of the following: 85038

(a) Thirty years, if the commercial or industrial 85039 structure is situated on the site of a megaproject and is owned 85040 ~~and or~~ occupied by a megaproject operator as defined in division 85041
(A) (12) of section 122.17 of the Revised Code, or is not 85042 situated on the site of a megaproject but is owned ~~and or~~ 85043 occupied by a megaproject supplier that meets the requirements 85044 described in division (A) (13) (b) of section 122.17 of the 85045
Revised Code; 85046

(b) Fifteen years, for any other dwelling or commercial or industrial structure.

(E) Any person, board, or officer authorized by section 5715.19 of the Revised Code to file complaints with the county board of revision may file a complaint with the housing officer challenging the continued exemption of any property granted an exemption under this section. A complaint against exemption shall be filed prior to the thirty-first day of December of the tax year for which taxation of the property is requested. The housing officer shall determine whether the property continues to meet the requirements for exemption and shall certify the housing officer's findings to the complainant. If the housing officer determines that the property does not meet the requirements for exemption, the housing officer shall notify the county auditor, who shall correct the tax list and duplicate accordingly.

(F) The owner of a dwelling constructed in a community reinvestment area may file an application for an exemption after the year the construction first became subject to taxation. The application shall be processed in accordance with the procedures prescribed under this section and shall be granted if the construction that is the subject of the application otherwise meets the requirements for an exemption under this section. If approved, the exemption sought in the application first applies in the year the application is filed. An exemption approved pursuant to this division continues only for those years remaining in the period described in division (D) (2) of this section. No exemption may be claimed for any year in that period that precedes the year in which the application is filed.

Sec. 3735.671. (A) If construction or remodeling of commercial or industrial property is to be exempted from 85077 taxation pursuant to section 3735.67 of the Revised Code, the 85078 legislative authority and the owner of the property, prior to 85079 the commencement of construction or remodeling, shall enter into 85080 a written agreement, binding on both parties for a period of 85081 time that does not end prior to the end of the period of the 85082 exemption, that includes all of the information and statements 85083 described in divisions (B) (1) to (8) of this section. Agreements 85084 may include terms not described in those divisions or otherwise 85085 prescribed by the model agreement adopted by the director of 85086 development under division (B) of this section, but such terms 85087 shall in no way derogate from the information and statements 85088 described in divisions (B) (1) to (8) of this section. 85089

(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (A) (2) or (3) 85090 of this section, an agreement entered into under this section 85091 shall not be approved by the legislative authority unless the 85092 board of education of the city, local, or exempted village 85093 school district within the territory of which the property is or 85094 will be located approves the agreement. For the purpose of 85095 obtaining such approval, the legislative authority shall certify 85096 a copy of the agreement to the board of education not later than 85097 forty-five days prior to approving the agreement, excluding 85098 Saturday, Sunday, and a legal holiday as defined in section 1.14 85099 of the Revised Code. The board of education, by resolution 85100 adopted by a majority of the board, shall approve or disapprove 85101 the agreement and certify a copy of the resolution to the 85102 legislative authority not later than fourteen days prior to the 85103 date stipulated by the legislative authority as the date upon 85104 which approval of the agreement is to be formally considered by 85105 the legislative authority. The board of education may include in 85106 the resolution conditions under which the board would approve 85107 the agreement. The legislative authority may approve an 85108 agreement at any time after the board of education certifies its 85109 resolution approving the agreement to the legislative authority, 85110 or, if the board approves the agreement conditionally, at any 85111 time after the conditions are agreed to by the board and the 85112 legislative authority. 85113

(2) Approval of an agreement by the board of education is 85114 not required under division (A)(1) of this section if, for each 85115 tax year the real property is exempted from taxation, the sum of 85116 the following quantities, as estimated at or prior to the time 85117 the agreement is formally approved by the legislative authority, 85118 equals or exceeds twenty-five per cent of the amount of taxes, 85119 as estimated at or prior to that time, that would have been 85120 charged and payable that year upon the real property had that 85121 property not been exempted from taxation: 85122

(a) The amount of taxes charged and payable on any portion 85123 of the assessed valuation of the new structure or of the 85124 increased assessed valuation of an existing structure after 85125 remodeling began that will not be exempted from taxation under 85126 the agreement; 85127

(b) The amount of taxes charged and payable on tangible 85128 personal property located on the premises of the new structure 85129 or of the structure to be remodeled under the agreement, whether 85130 payable by the owner of the structure or by a related member, as 85131 defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard 85132 to division (B) of that section. 85133

(c) The amount of any cash payment by the owner of the new 85134 structure or structure to be remodeled to the school district, 85135 the dollar value, as mutually agreed to by the owner and the 85136 board of education, of any property or services provided by the 85137 owner of the property to the school district, whether by gift, 85138 loan, or otherwise, and any payment by the legislative authority 85139 to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of the 85140

Revised Code. 85141

The estimates of quantities used for purposes of division 85142
(A) (2) of this section shall be estimated by the legislative 85143 authority. The legislative authority shall certify to the board 85144 of education that the estimates have been made in good faith. 85145 Departures of the actual quantities from the estimates 85146 subsequent to approval of the agreement by the board of 85147 education do not invalidate the agreement. 85148

(3) If a board of education has adopted a resolution 85149 waiving its right to approve agreements and the resolution 85150 remains in effect, approval of an agreement by the board is not 85151 required under division (A) (1) of this section. If a board of 85152 education has adopted a resolution allowing a legislative 85153 authority to deliver the notice required under this division 85154 fewer than forty-five business days prior to the legislative 85155 authority's execution of the agreement, the legislative 85156 authority shall deliver the notice to the board not later than 85157 the number of days prior to such execution as prescribed by the 85158 board in its resolution. If a board of education adopts a 85159 resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or shortening 85160 the notification period, the board shall certify a copy of the 85161 resolution to the legislative authority. If the board of 85162 education rescinds such a resolution, it shall certify notice of 85163 the rescission to the legislative authority. 85164

(4) If the owner of the property or the legislative 85165 authority agree to make any payment to the school district as 85166 described in division (A) (2) (c) of this section, the owner or 85167 legislative authority shall agree to make payments to the joint 85168 vocational school district within which the property is located 85169 at the same rate or amount and under the same terms received by 85170 the city, local, or exempted village school district. 85171

(B) The director of development shall adopt rules in 85172 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prescribing the 85173 form of a model agreement that a legislative authority may, in 85174 its discretion, use as the basis for an agreement to be executed 85175 under this section. The model agreement may include any term 85176 necessary for the administration and enforcement of such 85177 agreements by the director and legislative authority, but must 85178 include all of the following: 85179

(1) A space to include the description of real property to 85180 be exempted from taxation under the agreement and to identify 85181 the property's owners; 85182

(2) A space to denote the percentage of the assessed 85183 valuation of real property exempted from taxation and the period 85184 for which the exemption is granted; 85185

(3) A statement requiring the owner to pay real property 85186 taxes not exempted under the agreement, as required by law, and 85187 requiring rescission of the agreement if the owner fails to pay 85188 those taxes beginning in and after the year any such taxes are 85189 charged; 85190

(4) A statement that the owner certifies, at the time the 85191 agreement is executed, that the owner does not owe any 85192 delinquent property taxes or taxes for which the owner is liable 85193 under Chapter 5735., 5739., 5741., 5743., 5747., or 5753. of the 85194 Revised Code, or, if such delinquent taxes are owed, that the 85195 owner is paying the delinquent taxes pursuant to an undertaking 85196 enforceable by the state or an agent or instrumentality thereof, 85197 has filed a petition in bankruptcy, or has had a bankruptcy 85198 petition filed against the owner; 85199

(5) A statement requiring the owner to provide to the 85200 property tax incentive review council any information reasonably 85201 required by the council to evaluate the applicant's compliance 85202 with the agreement; 85203

(6) A statement that the agreement is not transferable or 85204 assignable without the approval of the legislative authority; 85205

(7) A statement describing the circumstances under which 85206 the legislative authority may revoke an agreement for 85207 noncompliance; 85208

(8) A statement requiring the owner to provide an estimate 85209 of the following for each agreement: 85210

(a) The number of employment opportunities created due to 85211
the remodeling or construction, as well as the payroll 85212
attributable to those opportunities; 85213

(b) The number of employment opportunities retained due to 85214
attributable to those opportunities. 85216

The model agreement shall also provide that a legislative 85217 authority may, but is not required to, include a statement 85218 describing the manner by which the legislative authority may 85219 recover already-received benefits, which may include an action 85220 brought in law or equity, a lien on the exempted property in the 85221 amount to be recovered, or other means. In the case of a lien on 85222 the exempted property, the lien shall attach, and may be 85223 perfected, collected, and enforced, in the same manner as a 85224 mortgage lien on real property, and otherwise has the same force 85225

and effect as a mortgage lien on real property. 85226

Once the director adopts rules prescribing a model 85227 agreement under this division, the model agreement may not be 85228 changed unless the director adopts, amends, or rescinds those 85229 rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 85230

(C) If any person that is party to an agreement granting 85231 an exemption from taxation discontinues operations at the 85232 structure to which that exemption applies prior to the 85233 expiration of the term of the agreement, that person, any 85234 successor to that person, and any related member shall not enter 85235 into an agreement under this section or section 5709.62, 85236 5709.63, or 5709.632 of the Revised Code, and no legislative 85237 authority shall enter into such an agreement with such a person, 85238 successor, or related member prior to the expiration of three 85239 years after the person's discontinuation of operations. As used 85240 in this division, "successor" means a person to which the assets 85241 or equity of another person has been transferred, which transfer 85242 resulted in the full or partial nonrecognition of gain or loss, 85243 or resulted in a carryover basis, both as determined by rule 85244 adopted by the tax commissioner. "Related member" has the same 85245 meaning as defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code 85246 without regard to division (B) of that section. 85247

The director of development shall review all agreements 85248 submitted to the director under section 3735.672 of the Revised 85249 Code for the purpose of enforcing this division. If the director 85250 determines there has been a violation of this division, the 85251 director shall notify the legislative authority of such 85252 violation, and the legislative authority immediately shall 85253 revoke the exemption granted under the agreement. 85254

(D) A political subdivision other than the legislative 85255 authority is not required to be a party to an agreement 85256 authorized under this section unless the political subdivision 85257 is a fee simple owner of real property subject to an exemption 85258 pursuant to section 3735.67 of the Revised Code that would 85259 otherwise be obligated to pay real property taxes for such real 85260 property. 85261

for and obtain a Title V permit under section 3704.036 of the 86606 Revised Code shall pay an annual fee of five thousand dollars in 86607 addition to the fees set forth in this division. For the 86608 purposes of this division, total emissions of air contaminants 86609 may be calculated using engineering calculations, emissions 86610 factors, material balance calculations, or performance testing 86611 procedures, as authorized by the director. 86612

The following fees shall be assessed on the total actual 86613 emissions from a source in tons per year of the regulated 86614 pollutants particulate matter, sulfur dioxide, nitrogen oxides, 86615 organic compounds, and lead: 86616

(1) Fifteen dollars per ton on the total actual emissions 86617 of each such regulated pollutant during the period July through 86618 December 1993, to be collected no sooner than July 1, 1994; 86619 emissions of each such regulated pollutant in calendar year 86624 1995, and each subsequent calendar year, to be collected no 86625 sooner than the fifteenth day of April of the year next 86626 succeeding the calendar year in which the emissions occurred. 86627

The fees levied under this division do not apply to that 86628 portion of the emissions of a regulated pollutant at a facility 86629 that exceed four thousand tons during a calendar year. 86630 section are for the purpose of providing funding for the Title V 86632 permit program. 86633

(2) The fees assessed under division (B) of this section 86634 do not apply to emissions from any electric generating unit 86635 designated as a Phase I unit under Title IV of the federal Clean 86636 Air Act prior to calendar year 2000. Those fees shall be 86637 assessed on the emissions from such a generating unit commencing 86638 in calendar year 2001 based upon the total actual emissions from 86639 the generating unit during calendar year 2000 and shall continue 86640 to be assessed each subsequent calendar year based on the total 86641 actual emissions from the generating unit during the preceding 86642 calendar year. 86643

(3) The director shall issue invoices to owners or 86644 operators of air contaminant sources who are required to pay a 86645 fee assessed under division (B) or (D) of this section. Any such 86646 invoice shall be issued no sooner than the applicable date when 86647 the fee first may be collected in a year under the applicable 86648 division, shall identify the nature and amount of the fee 86649 assessed, and shall indicate that the fee is required to be paid 86650 within thirty days after the issuance of the invoice. 86651 section, beginning January 1, 2004, each person who owns or 86653 operates an air contaminant source; who is required to apply for 86654 a permit to operate pursuant to rules adopted under division 86655 (G), or a variance pursuant to division (H), of section 3704.03 86656 of the Revised Code; and who is not required to apply for and 86657 obtain a Title V permit under section 3704.03 of the Revised 86658 Code shall pay a single fee based upon the sum of the actual 86659 annual emissions from the facility of the regulated pollutants 86660 compounds, and lead in accordance with the following schedule: 86662

to install or permits to operate have been issued for the air 86666 contaminant sources at the facility that include terms and 86667 conditions that lower the facility's potential to emit air 86668 contaminants below the major source thresholds established in 86669 rules adopted under section 3704.036 of the Revised Code. 86670

(b) ~~Beginning January 1, 2000, through June 30,~~ 86671

(3) The fees assessed under division (D) (1) of this	86679
section shall be collected annually no sooner than the fifteenth	86680 day of April, commencing in 2005. The fees assessed under	86681 division (D) (2) of this section shall be collected no sooner	86682 than the fifteenth day of April, commencing in 2000. The fees	86683 assessed under division (D) of this section in a calendar year 86684 shall be based upon the sum of the actual emissions of those 86685 regulated pollutants during the preceding calendar year. For the 86686 purpose of division (D) of this section, emissions of air 86687 contaminants may be calculated using engineering calculations, 86688 emission factors, material balance calculations, or performance 86689 testing procedures, as authorized by the director. The director, 86690 by rule, may require persons who are required to pay the fees 86691 assessed under division (D) of this section to pay those fees 86692 biennially rather than annually. 86693

(E) (1) Consistent with the need to cover the reasonable 86694 costs of the Title V permit program, the director annually shall 86695 increase the fees assessed on emissions prescribed in division 86696 (B) of this section by the percentage, if any, by which the 86697 consumer price index for the most recent calendar year ending 86698 before the beginning of a year exceeds the consumer price index 86699 for calendar year 1989. Upon calculating an increase in fees 86700 authorized by division (E) (1) of this section, the director 86701 shall compile revised fee schedules for the purposes of division 86702 (B) of this section and shall make the revised schedules 86703 available to persons required to pay the fees assessed under 86704 that division and to the public. 86705

(2) For the purposes of division (E) (1) of this section: 86706

(a) The consumer price index for any year is the average 86707 of the consumer price index for all urban consumers published by 86708 the United States department of labor as of the close of the 86709 twelve-month period ending on the thirty-first day of August of 86710 that year. 86711

(b) If the 1989 consumer price index is revised, the 86712 director shall use the revision of the consumer price index that 86713 is most consistent with that for calendar year 1989. 86714

(F) Each person who is issued a permit to install pursuant 86715 to rules adopted under division (F) of section 3704.03 of the 86716 Revised Code on or after July 1, 2003, shall pay the fees 86717 specified in the following schedules: 86718 to another sewage sludge facility in this state for further 87411 treatment prior to disposal in this state shall not be required 87412 to pay the annual sludge fee for the tons of sewage sludge that 87413 have been transferred. In such a case, the sewage sludge 87414 facility that disposes of the sewage sludge shall pay the annual 87415 sludge fee. However, the facility transferring the sewage sludge 87416 shall pay the one-hundred-dollar minimum fee required under 87417 division ~~(Y)~~~~(2)~~~~(a)~~(X) (2) (a) of this section. 87418 another entity for disposal, the sewage sludge facility in this 87421 state shall be required to pay the annual sludge fee for the 87422 tons of sewage sludge that have been transferred. 87423

(d) A sewage sludge facility that generates sewage sludge 87424 resulting from an average daily discharge flow of less than five 87425 thousand gallons per day is not subject to the fees assessed 87426 amount that may be charged under division ~~(Y) (5)~~ (X) (5) of this 87432

If the director does not adjust the amount of the annual 87476 sludge fee in response to a person's objections, the person may 87477 appeal the director's determination in accordance with Chapter 87478
119. of the Revised Code. 87479

Not later than the first day of June, the director shall 87480 notify the objecting person regarding whether the director has 87481 person identifying the amount of the annual sludge fee assessed 87486 and stating the first day of July as the deadline for payment. 87487

Not later than the first day of July, any person who is 87488 required to do so shall pay the annual sludge fee. Any person 87489 to defray the costs of administering and enforcing provisions in 87497 Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it 87498 that govern the use, storage, treatment, or disposal of sewage 87499 sludge. 87500

(7) Beginning in fiscal year 2001, and every two years 87501 thereafter, the director shall review the total amount of moneys 87502 generated by the annual sludge fees to determine if that amount 87503 exceeded six hundred thousand dollars in either of the two 87504 preceding fiscal years. If the total amount of moneys in the 87505 fund exceeded six hundred thousand dollars in either fiscal 87506 year, the director, after review of the fee structure and 87507 consultation with affected persons, shall issue an order 87508 reducing the amount of the fees levied under division ~~(Y)~~(X) of 87509 this section so that the estimated amount of moneys resulting 87510 from the fees will not exceed six hundred thousand dollars in 87511 any fiscal year. 87512

If, upon review of the fees under division ~~(Y)~~(7) ~~(X)~~ (7) of 87513 this section and after the fees have been reduced, the director 87514 determines that the total amount of moneys collected and 87515 accumulated is less than six hundred thousand dollars, the 87516 director, after review of the fee structure and consultation 87517 with affected persons, may issue an order increasing the amount 87518 of the fees levied under division ~~(Y)~~(X) of this section so that 87519 the estimated amount of moneys resulting from the fees will be 87520 approximately six hundred thousand dollars. Fees shall never be 87521 increased to an amount exceeding the amount specified in 87522 division ~~(Y) (7)~~ (X) (7) of this section. 87523

Notwithstanding section 119.06 of the Revised Code, the 87524 director may issue an order under division ~~(Y) (7)~~ (X) (7) of this 87525 section without the necessity to hold an adjudicatory hearing in 87526 connection with the order. The issuance of an order under this 87527 division is not an act or action for purposes of section 3745.04 87528
of the Revised Code. 87529

appointments to the council. The initial appointment to the 87614 council by the chancellor shall be for a term ending two years 87615 after October 1, 1990. Of the initial appointments made to the 87616 council by the governor, three shall be for a term ending one 87617 year after October 1, 1990, and three shall be for a term ending 87618 two years after October 1, 1990. Thereafter, the terms of office 87619 of the members appointed by the chancellor and the governor 87620 shall be for two years, with each term ending on the same day of 87621 the same month as the term that it succeeds. Each member shall 87622 hold office from the date of appointment until the end of the 87623 term for which the member was appointed. Members may be 87624 reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided 87625 for original appointments. Any member appointed to fill a 87626 vacancy occurring prior to the expiration date of the term for 87627 which the member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office 87628 as a member of the board of trustees for the remainder of that 87629 term. A member of the council appointed by the chancellor or the 87630 environmental protection shall serve as the chairperson of the 87638 council. The council annually shall select from among its 87639 is necessary to take action on any matter. 87642

Serving as a member of the council does not constitute 87643 holding a public office or a position of employment under the 87644 laws of this state and does not constitute grounds for the 87645 removal of public officers or employees from their offices or 87646 positions of employment. The chancellor may at any time remove a 87647 member of the council appointed by the chancellor for 87648 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office. The governor 87649 may at any time remove a member of the council appointed by the 87650 governor for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office. 87651

Members of the council appointed by the chancellor and the 87652 governor shall serve without compensation. Members of the 87653 council shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary 87654 expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members 87655 of the council from moneys credited to the environmental 87656 education fund created in section 3745.22 of the Revised Code. 87657

(B) The council shall advise and assist the director of 87658 environmental protection in the implementation and 87659 administration of section 3745.22 of the Revised Code and shall 87660 review and comment on all expenditures from the fund proposed by 87661
the director. 87662

(C) The council may adopt bylaws for the regulation and 87663 conduct of the council's affairs and may propose to the director 87664 of environmental protection expenditures from the fund. 87665

Sec. 3748.13. (A) The director of health shall inspect 87666 sources of radiation for which licensure or registration by the 87667 handler is required, and the sources' shielding and 87668 surroundings, according to the schedule established in rules 87669 adopted under division (D) of section 3748.04 of the Revised 87670 the Revised Code, the director shall inspect all records and 87672 operating procedures of handlers that install or service sources 87673 of radiation and all sources of radiation for which licensure of 87674 radioactive material or registration of radiation-generating 87675 equipment by the handler is required. The director may make 87676 other inspections upon receiving complaints or other evidence of 87677 a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under it. 87678

The director shall require any hospital registered under 87679 division (A) of section 3701.07 of the Revised Code to develop 87680 and maintain a quality assurance program for all sources of 87681 radiation-generating equipment. A certified radiation expert 87682 shall conduct oversight and maintenance of the program and shall 87683 file a report of audits of the program with the director on 87684 forms prescribed by the director. The audit reports shall become 87685 part of the inspection record. 87686

(C) (1) Except as provided in division (C) (2) of this	87697
section, the fee for the inspection of a facility that proposes	87698 to handle radioactive material or radiation-generating equipment	87699 and is not licensed or registered, and for which no license or	87700 registration application is pending at the time of inspection,	87701 is four hundred seventy-four dollars plus the applicable fee	87702 specified in rules adopted under division (A) (9) of section	87703

(2) For a facility that is, or is operated by, a medical practitioner or medical-practitioner group and proposes to handle radiation-generating equipment, the fee for an inspection if the facility is not licensed or registered, and no license or registration is pending at the time of inspection, is four hundred seventy-four dollars plus the fee applicable under the schedule in division (B) (2) of this section.

(H) If the director determines that a board of health of a 87750 city or general health district is qualified to conduct 87751 inspections of radiation-generating equipment, the director may 87752 delegate to the board, by contract, the authority to conduct 87753 such inspections. In making a determination of the 87754 qualifications of a board of health to conduct those 87755 inspections, the director shall evaluate the credentials of the 87756 individuals who are to conduct the inspections of radiation- 87757 generating equipment and the radiation detection and measuring 87758 equipment available to them for that purpose. If a contract is 87759 entered into, the board shall have the same authority to make 87760 inspections of radiation-generating equipment as the director 87761 has under this chapter and rules adopted under it. The contract 87762 shall stipulate that only individuals approved by the director 87763 the director and the board of health of the contracting health 87767 district. The director may reevaluate the credentials of the 87768 inspection personnel and their radiation detecting and measuring 87769 equipment as often as the director considers necessary and may 87770 terminate any contract with the board of health of any health 87771 district that, in the director's opinion, is not satisfactorily 87772 performing the terms of the contract. 87773

(I) The director may enter at all reasonable times upon 87774 any public or private property to determine compliance with this 87775 chapter and rules adopted under it. 87776 member of a local emergency planning committee may vote on 87826 resolutions of the commission that apply uniformly to all local 87827 emergency planning committees and districts in the state and do 87828 not provide a grant or other pecuniary benefit to the member's 87829 district or the committee of which the member is a member. 87830

The governor shall make the initial appointments to the 87831 commission within thirty days after December 14, 1988. Of the 87832 initial appointments to the commission, five shall be for a term 87833 of two years and five shall be for a term of one year. 87834 Thereafter, terms of office of the appointed members of the 87835 commission shall be for two years, with each term ending on the 87836 same day of the same month as did the term that it succeeds. 87837 Each member shall hold office from the date of appointment until 87838 the end of the term for which the member was appointed. Members 87839 may be reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner 87840 provided for original appointments. Any member appointed to fill 87841 a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for 87842 which the member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office 87843 for the remainder of that term. A member shall continue in 87844 office subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term 87845 until the member's successor takes office or until a period of 87846 administer this chapter. Additional meetings may be held at the 87856 behest of either a co-chairperson or a majority of the members. 87857

The commission shall, by adoption of internal management rules 87858 under division (B) (9) of this section, establish an executive 87859 committee and delegate to it the performance of such of the 87860 commission's duties and powers under this chapter as are 87861 required or authorized to be so delegated by that division. The 87862 commission may organize itself into such additional committees 87863 as it considers necessary or convenient to implement and 87864 administer this chapter. The director of environmental 87865 protection and the director of public safety or their designees 87866 shall serve as co-chairpersons of the commission and the 87867 executive committee. Except as otherwise provided in this 87868 chapter, a majority of the voting members of the commission 87869 constitutes a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of 87870 the voting members of the commission is necessary for any action 87871 taken by the commission. Meetings of the executive committee 87872 conducted for the purpose of determining whether to issue an 87873 enforcement order or request that a civil action, civil penalty 87874 section 121.22 of the Revised Code pursuant to division (D) of 87877 that section. 87878

Except for the purposes of Chapters 102. and 2921. and 87879 sections 9.86 and 109.36 to 109.366 of the Revised Code, serving 87880 as an appointed member of the commission does not constitute 87881 holding a public office or position of employment under the laws 87882 of this state and does not constitute grounds for removal of 87883 public officers or employees from their offices or positions of 87884 employment. 87885

(B) The commission shall: 87886

(1) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 87887
Revised Code that are consistent with and equivalent in scope, 87888 content, and coverage to the "Emergency Planning and Community 87889 Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, 87890 and applicable regulations adopted under it: 87891

(a) Identifying or listing extremely hazardous substances 87892 and establishing a threshold planning quantity for each such 87893 substance. To the extent consistent with that act and applicable 87894 regulations adopted under it, the rules may establish threshold 87895 planning quantities based upon classes of those substances or 87896 categories of facilities at which such substances are present. 87897

(b) Listing hazardous chemicals, establishing threshold 87898 quantities for those chemicals, establishing categories of 87899 health and physical hazards of those chemicals, establishing 87900 criteria or procedures for identifying those chemicals and the 87901 appropriate hazard categories of those chemicals, and 87902 establishing ranges of quantities for those chemicals to be used 87903 in preparing emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms 87904 under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code. To the extent 87905 consistent with that act and applicable regulations adopted 87906 under it, the rules may establish threshold quantities based 87907 upon classes of those chemicals or categories of facilities 87908 where those chemicals are present. 87909

To the extent consistent with that act, the threshold 87910 quantities for purposes of the submission of lists of hazardous 87911 chemicals under section 3750.07 and the submission of emergency 87912 and hazardous chemical inventory forms under section 3750.08 of 87913 the Revised Code may differ. 87914

(c) Identifying or listing hazardous substances and 87915 establishing reportable quantities of each of those substances 87916 and each extremely hazardous substance. In addition to being 87917 consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, and coverage 87918 to that act and applicable regulations adopted under it, the 87919 rules shall be consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, 87920 and coverage to regulations identifying or listing hazardous 87921 substances and reportable quantities of those substances adopted 87922 under the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, 87923 and Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2779, 42 U.S.C.A. 9602, as 87924 amended. 87925

(d) Prescribing the information to be included in the 87926 lists of hazardous chemicals required to be submitted under 87927
section 3750.07 of the Revised Code; 87928

(e) Prescribing the information to be included in the 87929 emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms required to be 87930 submitted under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code. If the 87931 commission establishes its own emergency and hazardous chemical 87932 inventory form, the rules shall authorize owners and operators 87933 of facilities who also have one or more facilities located 87934 outside the state for which they are required to submit 87935 inventory forms under the federal act and regulations adopted 87936 under it to submit their annual inventories on forms prescribed 87937 by the administrator of the United States environmental 87938 protection agency under that act instead of on forms prescribed 87939 by the commission and shall require those owners or operators to 87940 submit any additional information required by the commission's 87941 inventory form on an attachment to the federal form. 87942

(f) Establishing procedures for giving verbal notice of 87943 releases under section 3750.06 of the Revised Code and 87944 prescribing the information to be provided in such a notice and 87945 in the follow-up written notice required by that section; 87946

(g) Establishing standards for determining valid needs for 87947 the release of tier II information under division (B) (4) of 87948
section 3750.10 of the Revised Code; 87949

(h) Identifying the types or categories of information 87950 submitted or obtained under this chapter and rules adopted under 87951 it that constitute confidential business information; 87952

(i) Establishing criteria and procedures to protect trade 87953 secret and confidential business information from unauthorized 87954 disclosure; 87955

(j) Establishing other requirements or authorizations that 87956 the commission considers necessary or appropriate to implement, 87957 administer, and enforce this chapter. 87958

(2) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 87959
Revised Code to implement and administer this chapter that may 87960 be more stringent than the "Emergency Planning and Community 87961 Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, 87962
and regulations adopted under it. Rules adopted under division 87963 (B) (2) of this section shall not be inconsistent with that act 87964 or the regulations adopted under it. The rules shall: 87965

(a) Prescribe the information to be included in the 87966 chemical emergency response and preparedness plans prepared and 87967 submitted by local emergency planning committees under section 87968

(b) Establish criteria and procedures for reviewing the 87970 chemical emergency response and preparedness plans of local 87971 emergency planning committees required by section 3750.04 of the 87972 Revised Code and the annual exercise of those plans and for 87973 providing concurrence or requesting modifications in the plans 87974 and the exercise of those plans. The criteria shall include, 87975 without limitation, the requirement that each exercise of a 87976 committee's plan involve, in addition to local emergency 87977 response and medical personnel, either a facility that is 87978 subject to the plan or a transporter of materials that are 87979 identified or listed as hazardous materials by regulations 87980 adopted under the "Hazardous Materials Transportation Act," 88 87981

Stat. 2156 (1975), 49 U.S.C.A. 1801, as amended. 87982

(c) Establish policies and procedures for maintaining 87983 information submitted to the commission and local emergency 87984 planning committees under this chapter, and for receiving and 87985 fulfilling requests from the public for access to review and to 87986 obtain copies of that information. The criteria and procedures 87987 shall include the following requirements and authorizations 87988 regarding that information and access to it: 87989

(i) Information that is protected as trade secret 87990 information or confidential business information under this 87991 chapter and rules adopted under it shall be kept in files that 87992 are separate from those containing information that is not so 87993 protected. 87994

and control of the commission or committee. 87997

(iii) A person who, either in person or by mail, requests 87998 to obtain a copy of a material safety data sheet submitted under 87999 this chapter by a facility owner or operator shall submit a 88000 separate application for each facility for which a material 88001 safety data sheet is being requested. 88002

(iv) A person who requests to receive by mail a copy of 88003 information submitted under this chapter by a facility owner or 88004 operator shall submit a separate application for each facility 88005 for which information is being requested and shall specify both 88006 the facility for which information is being requested and the 88007 particular types of documents requested. 88008

(v) Only employees of the commission or committee shall 88009 copy information in the files of the commission or committee. 88010

(vi) The commission or committee may require any person 88011 who requests to review or obtain a copy of information in its 88012 files to schedule an appointment for that purpose with the 88013 information coordinator of the commission or committee at least 88014 twenty-four hours before arriving at the office of the 88015 commission or committee for the review or copy. 88016

(vii) Any person who seeks access to information in the 88017 files of the commission or a local emergency planning committee 88018 shall submit a written application, either in person or by mail, 88019 to the information coordinator on a form provided by the 88020 commission or committee. The person also shall provide the 88021 person's name and current mailing address on the application and 88022 may be requested by the commission or committee to provide basic 88023 adopted under it. Application forms may be obtained by mail or 88026 in person or by request by telephone at the office of the 88027 commission or committee during regular business hours. Upon 88028 receipt of a request for an application by telephone or mail, 88029 the information coordinator shall promptly mail an application 88030 to the person who requested it. 88031

(viii) The application form shall provide the applicant 88032 with a means of indicating that the applicant's name and address 88033 are to be kept confidential. If the applicant so indicates, that 88034 information is not a public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a member or employee of the commission or committee or an employee of the environmental protection agency. When a name and address are to be kept confidential, they also shall be deleted from the copy of the application required to be placed in the file of the facility under division (B)(2)(c)(xii) of this section and shall be withheld from any log of information requests kept by the commission or committee pursuant to that division.

(ix) Neither the commission nor a local emergency planning committee shall charge any fee for access to review information in its files when no copies or computer searches of that information are requested.

(x) An applicant shall be informed of the cost of copying, mailing, or conducting a computer search of information on file with the commission or committee before such a copy or search is made, and the commission or committee shall collect the appropriate fees as established under section 3750.13 of the Revised Code. Each applicant shall acknowledge on the application form that the applicant is aware that the applicant will be charged for copies and computer searches of that information the applicant requests and for the costs of mailing copies of the information to the applicant.

(xi) The commission or committee may require a person requesting copies of information on file with it to take delivery of them in the office of the commission or committee whenever it considers the volume of the information to be large enough to make mailing or delivery by a parcel or package delivery service impractical.

(xii) When the commission or committee receives a request 88065 for access to review or obtain copies of information in its 88066 files, it shall not routinely notify the owner or operator of 88067 the facility involved, but instead shall either keep a log or 88068 file of requests for the information or shall place a copy of 88069 each completed application form in the file for the facility to 88070 which the application pertains. Such a log or file shall be 88071 available for review by the public and by the owners and 88072 operators of facilities required to submit information to the 88073 commission or committee under this chapter and rules adopted 88074
under it. 88075

(d) Require that claims for the protection, as a trade 88076 secret, of information obtained under this chapter regarding 88077 extremely hazardous substances identified or listed in rules 88078 adopted under division (B) (1) (a) of this section and hazardous 88079 chemicals identified or listed in rules adopted under division 88080 (B) (1) (b) of this section be submitted to the administrator of 88081 the United States environmental protection agency for 88082 determination under section 322 of the the "Emergency Planning 88083 and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1747, 42 88084 U.S.C.A. 11042, and regulations adopted under that section; 88085

(e) Establish criteria and procedures for the issuance of 88086 variances under divisions (B) and (C) of section 3750.11 of the 88087 Revised Code. The rules shall require that, before approval of 88088 an application for a variance, the commission or committee find 88089
by a preponderance of the scientific evidence based upon 88090 generally accepted scientific principles or laboratory tests 88091 that the extremely hazardous substances, hazardous chemicals, or 88092 hazardous substances that would be subject to the reporting 88093 requirement pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to 88094 public health or safety or to the environment, or pose an 88095 extraordinary risk of injury to emergency management personnel 88096 responding to a release of the chemicals or substances, when the 88097 substances or chemicals are present at a facility in an amount 88098 equal to or exceeding the quantity for which reporting would be 88099 required under the reporting requirement for which the variance 88100 is sought. The rules shall also require that before approval of 88101 an application for a variance, the commission or committee find 88102 by a preponderance of the evidence that the development and 88103 implementation of a local emergency response plan for releases 88104 of the substances or chemicals covered by the reporting 88105 requirement will reduce the risk of catastrophic injury to 88106 public health or safety or to the environment, or will reduce 88107 the extraordinary risk of injury to responding emergency 88108 management personnel, in the event of a release of the 88109 substances or chemicals and find by a preponderance of the 88110 evidence that the reporting requirement is necessary for the 88111 development of such a local emergency response plan. The rules 88112 shall require that when determining whether the substances or 88113 chemicals that would be subject to the reporting requirement 88114 pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to public health 88115 or safety or to the environment, or pose an extraordinary risk 88116 of injury to emergency management personnel responding to a 88117 release of the substance or chemical, the commission or 88118 committee consider all of the following factors: 88119

(i) The specific characteristics and degree and nature of 88120 the hazards posed by a release of the extremely hazardous 88121 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances; 88122

(ii) The proximity of the facilities that would be subject 88123 to the reporting requirement to residential areas, to areas 88124 where significantly large numbers of people are employed or 88125 otherwise congregate, and to environmental resources that are 88126 subject to injury; 88127

(iii) The quantities of the extremely hazardous 88128 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances that 88129 are routinely present at facilities that would be subject to the 88130 reporting requirement; 88131

(iv) The frequency with which the extremely hazardous 88132 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances are 88133 present at the facilities that would be subject to the reporting 88134 requirement in quantities for which reporting would be required 88135 thereunder. 88136

(f) Establish criteria and procedures for the issuance of 88137 orders under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the Revised Code 88138 requiring the placement of emergency response lock box units. 88139
The rules shall require that before approval of an application 88140 for issuance of such an order, the commission or committee find 88141
by a preponderance of the scientific evidence based upon 88142
generally accepted scientific principles or laboratory tests 88143 that the presence of the extremely hazardous substances, 88144 hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances in the quantities 88145 in which they are routinely or intermittently present at the 88146 facility for which the order is sought pose a substantial risk 88147 of catastrophic injury to public health or safety or to the 88148 environment, or pose an extraordinary risk of injury to 88149 responding emergency management personnel, in the event of a 88150 release of any of those substances or chemicals from the 88151 facility. The rules shall require that before approval of an 88152 application for issuance of such an order, the commission or 88153 committee also find by a preponderance of the evidence that the 88154 placement of an emergency response lock box unit at the facility 88155 is necessary to protect against the substantial risk of 88156 catastrophic injury to public health or safety or the 88157 environment, or to protect against an extraordinary risk of 88158 injury to responding emergency management personnel, in the 88159 event of a release of any of the extremely hazardous substances, 88160 hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances routinely or 88161 intermittently present at the facility. The rules shall require 88162 that when determining whether the extremely hazardous 88163 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances present 88164 at the facility pose a substantial risk of catastrophic injury 88165 to public health or safety or to the environment, or pose an 88166 extraordinary risk of injury to responding emergency management 88167 personnel, in the event of a release of any of those substances 88168 or chemicals from the facility, the commission or committee 88169 consider all of the following factors: 88170

(i) The specific characteristics and the degree and nature 88171 of the hazards posed by a release of the extremely hazardous 88172 substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances present 88173
at the facility; 88174

(ii) The proximity of the facility to residential areas, 88175 to areas where significantly large numbers of people are 88176 employed or otherwise congregate, and to environmental resources 88177 that are subject to injury; 88178

(iii) The quantities of the extremely hazardous 88179
substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances that 88180 are routinely present at the facility; 88181

(iv) The frequency with which the extremely hazardous 88182
substances, hazardous chemicals, or hazardous substances are 88183 present at the facility. 88184

(g) Establish procedures to be followed by the commission 88185 and the executive committee of the commission for the issuance 88186 of orders under this chapter. 88187

(3) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 88188 adopt rules establishing reportable quantities for releases of 88189 oil that are consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, 88190 and coverage to section 311 of the "Federal Water Pollution 88191 Control Act Amendments of 1972," 86 Stat. 862, 33 U.S.C.A. 1321, 88192 as amended, and applicable regulations adopted under it; 88193

(4) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 88194
Revised Code establishing criteria and procedures for 88195 identifying or listing extremely hazardous substances in 88196 addition to those identified or listed in rules adopted under 88197 division (B)(1)(a) of this section and for establishing 88198 threshold planning quantities and reportable quantities for the 88199 added extremely hazardous substances; for identifying or listing 88200 hazardous chemicals in addition to those identified or listed in 88201 rules adopted under division (B)(1)(b) of this section and for 88202 establishing threshold quantities and categories of health and 88203 physical hazards for the added hazardous chemicals; and for 88204 identifying or listing hazardous substances in addition to those 88205 identified or listed in rules adopted under division (B)(1)(c) 88206 of this section and for establishing reportable quantities for 88207 the added hazardous substances. The criteria for identifying or 88208 listing additional extremely hazardous substances and 88209 establishing threshold planning quantities and reportable 88210 quantities therefor and for identifying or listing additional 88211 hazardous chemicals and establishing threshold quantities and 88212 categories of health and physical hazards for the added 88213 hazardous chemicals shall be consistent with and equivalent to 88214 applicable criteria therefor under the "Emergency Planning and 88215 Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 88216

U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under it. The criteria 88217 for identifying additional hazardous substances and for 88218 establishing reportable quantities of the added hazardous 88219 substances shall be consistent with and equivalent to the 88220 applicable criteria for identifying or listing hazardous 88221 substances and establishing reportable quantities therefor under 88222 the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and 88223 Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2779, 42 U.S.C.A. 9602, as 88224 amended, and regulations adopted under it. 88225

The rules shall require that, before identifying or 88226 listing any such additional extremely hazardous substance, 88227 hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance and establishing a 88228 threshold planning quantity, threshold quantity, or reportable 88229 quantity therefor, the commission find by a preponderance of the 88230 scientific evidence based on generally accepted scientific 88231 principles or laboratory tests that the substance or chemical 88232 poses a substantial risk of catastrophic injury to public health 88233 or safety or to the environment, or poses an extraordinary risk 88234
of injury to emergency management personnel responding to a 88235 release of the chemical or substance, when the chemical or 88236 substance is present at a facility in an amount equal to the 88237 proposed threshold planning quantity or threshold quantity or, 88238 in the instance of a proposed additional extremely hazardous 88239 substance or hazardous substance, poses a substantial risk of 88240 catastrophic injury to public health or safety or to the 88241 environment if a release of the proposed reportable quantity of 88242 the substance occurs. The rules shall further require that, 88243 before so identifying or listing a substance or chemical, the 88244 commission find by a preponderance of the evidence that the 88245 development and implementation of state or local emergency 88246 response plans for releases of the substance or chemical will 88247 reduce the risk of a catastrophic injury to public health or 88248 safety or to the environment, or will reduce the extraordinary 88249 risk of injury to responding emergency response personnel, in 88250 the event of a release of the substance or chemical and find by 88251 a preponderance of the evidence that the identification or 88252 listing of the substance or chemical is necessary for the 88253 development of state or local emergency response plans for 88254 releases of the substance or chemical. The rules shall require 88255 that the commission consider the toxicity of the substance or 88256 chemical in terms of both the short-term and long-term health 88257 effects resulting from exposure to it and its reactivity, 88258 volatility, dispersibility, combustibility, and flammability 88259 when determining the risks posed by a release of the substance 88260 or chemical and, as appropriate, when establishing a threshold 88261 planning quantity, threshold quantity, reportable quantity, or 88262 category of health or physical hazard for it. 88263

(5) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 88264
Revised Code establishing criteria and procedures for receiving 88265 and deciding claims for protection of information as a trade 88266 secret that are applicable only to extremely hazardous 88267 substances and hazardous chemicals identified or listed in rules 88268 adopted under division (C) (5) of this section. The rules shall 88269 be equivalent in scope, content, and coverage to section 322 of 88270 the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 88271 1986," 100 Stat. 1747, 42 U.S.C.A. 11042, and regulations 88272
adopted under it. 88273

(6) (a) After consultation with the fire marshal, adopt 88274 rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 88275 establishing standards for the construction, placement, and use 88276 of emergency response lock box units at facilities that are 88277 subject to this chapter. The rules shall establish all of the 88278

following: 88279

(i) Specific standards of construction for lock box units; 88280

(ii) The specific types of information that shall be 88281 placed in the lock box units required to be placed at a facility 88282 by an order issued under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the 88283 Revised Code, which shall include the location of on-site 88284 emergency fire-fighting and spill cleanup equipment; a diagram 88285 of the public and private water supply and sewage systems 88286 serving the facility that are known to the owner or operator of 88287 the facility; a copy of the emergency and hazardous chemical 88288 inventory form for the facility most recently required to be 88289 submitted under section 3750.08 of the Revised Code from which 88290 the owner or operator may withhold information claimed or 88291 determined to be trade secret information pursuant to rules 88292 adopted under division (B) (2) (d) of this section, or pursuant to 88293 division (B) (14) of this section and rules adopted under 88294 division (B) (5) of this section, and confidential business 88295 information identified in rules adopted under division (B) (1) (h) 88296 of this section; a copy of the local fire department's and 88297 facility's emergency management plans for the facility, if any; 88298 a current list of the names, positions, addresses, and telephone 88299 numbers of all key facility personnel knowledgeable in facility 88300 safety procedures and the locations at the facility where 88301 extremely hazardous substances, hazardous chemicals, and 88302 hazardous substances are produced, used, or stored. The rules 88303 shall stipulate that, in the instance of lock box units placed 88304 voluntarily at facilities by the owners or operators of the 88305 facilities, such information shall be maintained in them as is 88306 prescribed by agreement by the owner or operator and the fire 88307 department having jurisdiction over the facility. 88308

(iii) The conditions that shall be met in order to provide 88309 safe and expedient access to a lock box unit during a release or 88310 threatened release of an extremely hazardous substance, 88311 hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance. 88312

(b) Unless the owner or operator of a facility is issued 88313 an order under division (D) of section 3750.11 of the Revised 88314 Code requiring the owner or operator to place a lock box unit at 88315 the facility, the owner or operator may place a lock box unit at 88316 the facility at the owner's or operator's discretion. If the 88317 owner or operator chooses to place a lock box unit at the 88318 facility, the responsibility to deposit information in the lock 88319 box unit is in addition to any other obligations established in 88320
this chapter. 88321

(c) Any costs associated with the purchase, construction, 88322 or placement of a lock box unit shall be paid by the owner or 88323 operator of the facility. 88324

(7) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 88325 adopt rules governing the application for and awarding of grants 88326 under division (C) of section 3750.14 and division (B) of 88327
section 3750.15 of the Revised Code; 88328

(8) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 88329
Revised Code establishing reasonable maximum fees that may be 88330 charged by the commission and local emergency planning 88331 committees for copying information in the commission's or 88332 committee's files to fulfill requests from the public for that 88333 information; 88334

(9) Adopt internal management rules governing the 88335 operations of the commission. The internal management rules 88336 shall establish an executive committee of the commission 88337 consisting of the director of environmental protection or the 88338 director's designee, the director of public safety or the 88339 director's designee, the attorney general or the attorney 88340 general's designee, one of the appointed members of the 88341 commission representing industries subject to this chapter to be 88342 appointed by the commission, one of the appointed members of the 88343 commission representing the interests of environmental advocacy 88344 organizations to be appointed by the commission, and one other 88345 appointed member or member ex officio of the commission to be 88346 appointed by the commission. The executive committee has 88347 exclusive authority to issue enforcement orders under section 88348 3750.18 of the Revised Code and to request the attorney general 88349 to bring a civil action, civil penalty action, or criminal 88350 action under section 3750.20 of the Revised Code in the name of 88351 the commission regarding violations of this chapter, rules 88352 adopted under it, or orders issued under it. The internal 88353 management rules may set forth the other specific powers and 88354 duties of the commission that the executive committee may 88355 exercise and carry out and the conditions under which the 88356 executive committee may do so. The internal management rules 88357 shall not authorize the executive committee to issue variances 88358 under division (B) or (C) of section 3750.11 of the Revised Code 88359 or orders under division (D) of that section. 88360

(10) Oversee and coordinate the implementation and 88361 enforcement of this chapter and make such recommendations to the 88362 director of environmental protection and the director of public 88363 safety as it considers necessary or appropriate to improve the 88364 implementation and enforcement of this chapter; 88365

(11) Make allocations of moneys under division (B) of 88366 section 3750.14 of the Revised Code and make grants under 88367 division (C) of section 3750.14 and division (B) of section 88368

(12) Designate an officer of the environmental protection 88370 agency to serve as the commission's information coordinator 88371 under this chapter; 88372

(13) Not later than December 14, 1989, develop and 88373 distribute a state emergency response plan that defines the 88374 emergency response roles and responsibilities of the state 88375 agencies that are represented on the commission and that 88376 provides appropriate coordination with the national contingency 88377 plan and the regional contingency plan required by section 105 88378 of the "Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and 88379 Liability Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 2767, 42 U.S.C.A. 9601, as 88380 amended. The plan shall ensure a well-coordinated response by 88381 state agencies that may be involved in assisting local emergency 88382 responders during a major release of oil or a major sudden and 88383 accidental release of a hazardous substance or extremely 88384 hazardous substance. The plan may incorporate existing state 88385 emergency response plans by reference. At least annually, the 88386 commission and the state agencies that are represented on it 88387 shall jointly exercise the state plan in conjunction with the 88388 exercise of a local emergency response plan by a local emergency 88389 planning committee under section 3750.04 of the Revised Code. 88390 After any such exercise, the commission shall review the state 88391 plan and make such revisions in it as the commission considers 88392 necessary or appropriate. 88393

(14) Receive and decide claims for the protection of 88394 information as a trade secret that pertain only to extremely 88395 hazardous substances and hazardous chemicals identified or 88396 listed by rules adopted under division (C)(5) of this section. 88397
If the commission determines that the claim meets the criteria 88398 established in rules adopted under division (B) (5) of this 88399 section, it shall issue an order to that effect in accordance 88400 with section 3750.18 of the Revised Code. If the commission 88401 determines that the claim does not meet the criteria established 88402 in those rules, it shall issue an order to that effect in 88403 accordance with section 3750.18 of the Revised Code. 88404

(15) Annually compile, make available to the public, and 88405 submit to the president of the senate and the speaker of the 88406 house of representatives a summary report on the number of 88407 facilities estimated to be subject to regulation under sections 88408 3750.05, 3750.07, and 3750.08 of the Revised Code, the number of 88409 facilities reporting to the commission, an estimate of the 88410 percentage of facilities in compliance with those sections, and 88411 recommendations regarding the types of activities the commission 88412 considers necessary to improve such compliance. The commission 88413 shall base its estimate of the number of facilities that are 88414 subject to regulation under those sections on the current 88415 estimates provided by the local emergency planning committees 88416 under division (D) (6) of section 3750.03 of the Revised Code. 88417

(C) The commission may: 88418

(1) Procure by contract the temporary or intermittent 88419 services of experts or consultants when those services are to be 88420 performed on a part-time or fee-for-service basis and do not 88421 involve the performance of administrative duties; 88422

(2) Enter into contracts or agreements with political 88423 subdivisions or emergency planning districts for the purposes of 88424
this chapter; 88425

(3) Accept on behalf of the state any gift, grant, or 88426 contribution from any governmental or private source for the 88427

(4) Enter into contracts, agreements, or memoranda of 88429 understanding with any state department, agency, board, 88430 commission, or institution to obtain the services of personnel 88431 thereof or utilize resources thereof for the purposes of this 88432 chapter. Employees of a state department, agency, board, 88433 commission, or institution providing services to the commission 88434 under any such contract, agreement, or memorandum shall perform 88435 only those functions and provide only the services provided for 88436 in the contract, agreement, or memorandum. 88437

(5) Identify or list extremely hazardous substances in 88438 addition to those identified or listed in rules adopted under 88439 division (B)(1)(a) of this section and establish threshold 88440 planning quantities and reportable quantities for the additional 88441 extremely hazardous substances, identify or list hazardous 88442 chemicals in addition to those identified or listed in rules 88443 adopted under division (B)(1)(b) of this section and establish 88444 threshold quantities and categories of health and physical 88445 hazards for the added chemicals, and identify or list hazardous 88446 substances in addition to those identified or listed in rules 88447 adopted under division (B)(1)(c) of this section and establish 88448 reportable quantities for the added hazardous substances. The 88449 commission may establish threshold planning quantities for the 88450 additional extremely hazardous substances based upon classes of 88451 those substances or categories of facilities at which they are 88452 present and may establish threshold quantities for the 88453 additional hazardous chemicals based upon classes of those 88454 chemicals or categories of facilities where they are present. 88455
The commission shall identify or list such additional substances 88456 or chemicals and establish threshold planning quantities, 88457 threshold quantities, reportable quantities, and hazard 88458 categories therefor in accordance with the criteria and 88459 procedures established in rules adopted under division (B) (4) of 88460 this section and, after compliance with those criteria and 88461 procedures, by the adoption of rules in accordance with Chapter 88462 119. of the Revised Code. The commission shall not adopt rules 88463 under division (C) (5) of this section modifying any threshold 88464 planning quantity established in rules adopted under division 88465 (B) (1) (a) of this section, any threshold quantity established in 88466 rules adopted under division (B) (1) (b) of this section, or any 88467 reportable quantity established in rules adopted under division 88468

(B) (1) (c) of this section. 88469

If, after the commission has adopted rules under division 88470
(C) (5) of this section identifying or listing an extremely 88471 hazardous substance, hazardous chemical, or hazardous substance, 88472 the administrator of the United States environmental protection 88473 agency identifies or lists the substance or chemical as an 88474 extremely hazardous substance or hazardous chemical under the 88475
"Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 88476 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, or identifies or lists a 88477 commission shall rescind its rules adopted under division (C) (5) 88481 of this section pertaining to the substance or chemical and 88482 adopt the appropriate rules under division (B) (1) (a), (b), or 88483

(c) of this section. 88484

(6) From time to time, request the director of 88485 environmental protection and the executive director of the 88486 emergency management agency to review implementation, 88487 administration, and enforcement of the chemical emergency 88488 response planning and reporting programs created by this chapter 88489

and rules adopted under it regarding their effectiveness in 88490 findings to the commission. Upon receipt of their findings, the 88495 commission may make such recommendations for legislative and 88496 chapter. 88499

(D) Except as provided in section 3750.06 of the Revised 88500 including the storage incident to transportation, of any 88502 substance or chemical subject to the requirements of this 88503 chapter, including the transportation and distribution of 88504

(E) This chapter authorizes the state, through the 88506 emergency response commission, the department of public safety, 88507 and the environmental protection agency, to establish and 88508 maintain chemical emergency response planning and preparedness, 88509 community right-to-know, and hazardous substance and extremely 88510 hazardous substance release reporting programs that are 88511 consistent with and equivalent in scope, coverage, and content 88512 to the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 88513 1986," 100 Stat. 1729, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations 88514 adopted under it, except as otherwise specifically required or 88515 to implement, administer, and enforce this chapter and to 88518 perform the duties and exercise the powers of the state 88519 emergency response commission under that act and regulations 88520 adopted under it and under this chapter. 88521

Sec. 3769.088. (A) (1) If any permit holder required by 88522 this chapter to pay the taxes levied by sections 3769.08, 88523 3769.087, 3769.26, and 3769.28 of the Revised Code fails to pay 88524 the taxes as required, the tax commissioner may make an 88525 assessment against the permit holder based upon any information 88526 in the commissioner's possession. 88527

(2) If a permit holder required to remit taxes or file a 88528 report electronically in the manner prescribed under section 88529 3769.103 of the Revised Code fails to do so, the tax 88530 commissioner may impose an additional penalty of fifty dollars 88531 or ten per cent of the tax due as shown on the report, whichever 88532 is greater. 88533

(3) A penalty of up to fifteen per cent may be added to 88534 the amount of every assessment made under this section. 88535

(4) The commissioner may adopt rules providing for the 88536 imposition and remission of penalties added to assessments made 88537 under this section. 88538

(5) The commissioner shall give the party assessed written 88539 notice of the assessment in the manner provided in section 88540 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the notice, the commissioner 88541 shall provide instructions on how to petition for reassessment 88542 and request a hearing on the petition. 88543

(B) Unless the party assessed files with the tax 88544
assessment, ~~either personally or by certified mail,~~ a written 88546 petition for reassessment signed by the party assessed or that 88547 party's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the 88548

and payable from the party assessed to the commissioner. The 88550 petition shall indicate the objections of the party assessed, 88551 but additional objections may be raised in writing if received 88552 by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the final 88553 determination. If the petition has been properly filed, the 88554 commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the Revised 88555
Code. 88556

(C) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of 88557 the assessment remains unpaid, including accrued interest, a 88558 certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the 88559
court of common pleas in the county in which the place, track, 88561 or enclosure for which the permit was issued is located or the 88562 county in which the party assessed resides or has its principal 88563 place of business. If the party assessed maintains no place of 88564 business in this state and is not a resident of this state, the 88565 certified copy of the entry may be filed in the office of the 88566 clerk of the court of common pleas of Franklin county. 88567

Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall 88568 enter a judgment for the state against the party assessed in the 88569 amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the 88570 clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "special judgments for state 88571 horse racing tax," and shall have the same effect as other 88572 judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the 88573 request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to 88574 sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment. 88575

If the assessment is not paid in its entirety within sixty 88576 days after the day the assessment was issued, the portion of the 88577 assessment consisting of tax due shall bear interest at the rate 88578 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from 88579

the day the tax commissioner issues the assessment until the day 88580 the assessment is paid or until it is certified to the attorney 88581 general for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code, 88582 whichever comes first. If the unpaid portion of the assessment 88583 is certified to the attorney general for collection, the entire 88584 unpaid portion of the assessment shall bear interest at the rate 88585 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from 88586
the date of certification until the date it is paid in its 88587 entirety. Interest shall be paid in the same manner as the tax 88588 and may be collected by the issuance of an assessment under this 88589
section. 88590

(D) All money collected by the tax commissioner under this 88591 section shall be treated as revenue arising from the taxes 88592 imposed by sections 3769.08, 3769.087, 3769.26, and 3769.28 of 88593

Sec. 3770.071. (A) As used in this section, "lottery prize 88595 award" does not include a prize award from a video lottery 88596 terminal and does not include winnings from lottery sports 88597 gaming, except that "lottery prize award" includes winnings from 88598 lottery sports gaming wagers placed through a terminal described 88599 in division (B) (3) of section 3770.24 of the Revised Code. 88600

(B) If the amount of the prize money or the cost of goods 88601 or services awarded as a lottery prize award meets or exceeds 88602 the reportable winnings amounts set by 26 U.S.C. 6041, or a 88603 subsequent analogous section of the Internal Revenue Code, the 88604 director of the state lottery commission or the director's 88605 designee shall consult the data match program established under 88606 section 3123.89 of the Revised Code to determine whether the 88607 person is subject to a final and enforceable determination of 88608 default made under sections 3123.01 to 3123.07 of the Revised 88609

Code. If so, the director or the director's designee shall 88610 withhold an amount from the prize award in accordance with 88611
section 3123.89 of the Revised Code. 88612

Sec. 3770.072. (A) As used in this section, "prize 88613 winner," and "transferee," and ~~"transferor"~~ have the same 88614 meanings as in section 3770.10 of the Revised Code. 88615

(B) The state lottery commission shall deduct amounts from 88616 lottery prize awards and file returns in accordance with 88617 ~~sections~~ section 5747.062 ~~and 5747.064~~ of the Revised Code and 88618 any rules adopted by the tax commissioner pursuant to ~~those~~ 88619 ~~sections~~ that section. This division also applies to lottery 88620 prize award payments the commission remits to transferees. 88621

~~(C) (1) (a)~~ (C) (1) Each transferee shall deduct and withhold 88622 from each gross amount payable to each prize winner four per 88623 cent of the gross amount payable prior to making any other 88624 reduction required by this chapter. 88625

~~(b) Subject to division (C) (1) (c) of this section, each~~ 88626 ~~transferee, including any transferee that is a related member,~~ 88627
~~as defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code, to the~~ 88628 ~~transferor, shall deduct and withhold from each amount payable~~ 88629
~~to a transferor that is not a prize winner four per cent of the~~ 88630 ~~portion of the payment representing gain or income the~~ 88631 ~~transferor will recognize in connection with the payment.~~ 88632

~~(c) For purposes of division (C) (1) (b) of this section,~~ 88633
~~the portion of any payment representing gain or income~~ 88634 ~~recognized by the transferor shall be computed in accordance~~ 88635
~~with the Internal Revenue Code. The transferor shall prepare a~~ 88636 ~~written statement setting forth that amount and sign the~~ 88637 ~~statement under penalty of perjury. Within five days before the~~ 88638

~~date on which the payment is to be made, the transferor shall~~ 88639 ~~deliver the written statement to the transferee and deliver a~~ 88640
~~copy of the written statement to the tax commissioner. If the~~ 88641 ~~transferee does not receive the written statement by the time~~ 88642
~~the payment is made, the transferee shall withhold four per cent~~ 88643
~~of the entire amount of the payment. If the tax commissioner~~ 88644 ~~notifies the transferee that the transferor has erroneously~~ 88645 ~~computed the amount of gain or income recognized, the transferee~~ 88646 ~~shall withhold four per cent of the entire amount of each~~ 88647 ~~payment to be made after the transferee receives the notice.~~ 88648

~~(d) The tax commissioner may impose a penalty of up to one~~ 88649 ~~thousand dollars for any person failing to timely deliver to the~~ 88650 ~~tax commissioner the copy of the written statement as required~~ 88651
~~by division (C) (1) (e) of this section. Proceeds from the~~ 88652 ~~imposition of the penalty shall be considered as revenue arising~~ 88653
~~from the tax imposed under section 5733.06 or 5747.02 of the~~ 88654
~~Revised Code, as applicable.~~ 88655

(2) With respect to amounts deducted and withheld pursuant 88656 to division (C) (1) of this section, each transferee shall comply 88657 with divisions (A) (2) to (4) of section 5747.062 of the Revised 88658
Code. 88659

(3) An employee of a corporation, limited liability 88660 company, or business trust having control or supervision of or 88661 charged with the responsibility of filing the report and making 88662 the payment required by division (C) of this section and section 88663 5747.062 of the Revised Code, or an officer, member, manager, or 88664 trustee of a corporation, limited liability company, or business 88665 trust who is responsible for the execution of the corporation's, 88666 limited liability company's, or business trust's fiscal 88667 responsibilities, shall be personally liable for failure to file 88668 the report or pay the amount due as required by division (C) of 88669 this section and section 5747.062 of the Revised Code. The 88670 dissolution, termination, or bankruptcy of a corporation, 88671 limited liability company, or business trust does not discharge 88672 a responsible officer's, member's, manager's, employee's, or 88673 trustee's liability for a failure of the corporation, limited 88674 liability company, or business trust to file returns or pay the 88675 amount due. 88676

(4) (a) The tax commissioner may make an assessment against 88677 any person listed in division (C) (1) or (3) of this section for 88678 determinations, making the assessment final, and filing the 88682 entry that makes the assessment final. Section 5717.02 of the 88683 Revised Code shall apply to appeals of the commissioner's final 88684 decision in connection with assessments issued pursuant to 88685

division (C) (4) of this section. 88686

(b) An assessment issued against any person listed in 88687 division (C) (1) or (3) of this section shall not be considered 88688 an election of remedies or a bar to an assessment against any 88689 other person for the failure to comply with division (C) (1) of 88690 this section. No assessment shall be issued against any person 88691 who is so listed if the amount required to be withheld has been 88692 paid by another. 88693

(c) The assessment shall include interest at the rate per 88694 annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code on 88695 liability from the time the payment is due until the date of 88696 assessment. Interest shall continue to accrue from the date of 88697 assessment until the date the assessment is paid in full. Any 88698 interest accruing subsequent to the date of the issuance of the 88699 assessment shall be considered to be an additional deficiency 88700 for which the tax commissioner may issue subsequent assessments. 88701

The initial assessment and any subsequent assessments may 88702 include a penalty in an amount not to exceed twice the 88703 applicable interest charged under this division. 88704

Sec. 3770.073. (A) As used in this section, "lottery prize 88705 commission or its designee with access to the real time data 88712 match program described in sections 3772.37 and 3775.16 of the 88713 Revised Code for the purpose of identifying prize winners who 88714 owe amounts to the state or a political subdivision. 88715

(C) If a person is entitled to a lottery prize award and 88716 is indebted to the state for the payment of any tax, workers' 88717 of unemployment contribution, or certified claim under section 88719 131.02 or 131.021 of the Revised Code, ~~or~~ is indebted to a 88720 person. If the amount of the prize award is less than the amount 88734 of the debt, the entire amount of the prize award shall be 88735 deducted and paid in partial satisfaction of the debt. 88736

(2) If the prize award will be paid in annual 88737 installments, on the date the initial installment payment is 88738 due, deduct from that installment and pay to the attorney 88739 general an amount in satisfaction of the debt and, if necessary 88740 to collect the full amount of the debt, do the same for any 88741 subsequent annual installments, at the time the installments 88742 become due and owing to the person, until the debt is fully 88743 satisfied. 88744

~~(B)~~ (D) If a person entitled to a lottery prize award owes 88745 consult the data match program established under section 3123.89 88759 of the Revised Code to determine whether the person is subject 88760 to a final and enforceable determination of default made under 88761 sections 3123.01 to 3123.07 of the Revised Code. If so, the 88762 owes lottery sales receipts held in trust on behalf of the state 88779 lottery commission as described in division (H) (4) of section 88780 attorney general an amount in satisfaction of the debt and pay 88784 any remainder to that person. If the amount of the prize award 88785 is less than the amount of the debt, the entire amount of the 88786 prize award shall be deducted and paid in partial satisfaction 88787 of the debt. 88788

(C) If a person entitled to a prize award from a video lottery terminal owes more than one debt, any debt owed to the state shall be satisfied first, subject to both section 5739.33 and division (G) of section 5747.07 of the Revised Code having first priority, and subject to division (D) of this section. 88789

(c) In no case shall any local code or regulation differ 89760 from the state residential building code for either the erection 89761 code or regulation addresses subject matter not addressed by the 89764 state residential building code or is adopted pursuant to 89765 of construction at variance with what is described in any rule 89805 the board of building standards adopts or issues or that is 89806 authorized by any section of the Revised Code. Nothing in this 89807 section shall be construed as requiring approval, by rule, of 89808 plans for an industrialized unit that conforms with the rules 89809 the board of building standards adopts pursuant to section 89810

3781.11 of the Revised Code. 89811

(D) The board shall recommend rules, codes, and standards 89812 to help carry out the purposes of section 3781.06 of the Revised 89813 Code and to help secure uniformity of state administrative 89814 rulings and local legislation and administrative action to the 89815 bureau of workers' compensation, the director of commerce, any 89816 other department, officer, board, or commission of the state, 89817 and to legislative authorities and building departments of 89818 counties, townships, and municipal corporations, and shall 89819 recommend that they audit those recommended rules, codes, and 89820 persons to enforce the state residential building code for the 89832 erection and construction of new residential buildings, to 89833 enforce the nonresidential building code, or to enforce both the 89834 residential and the nonresidential building codes. A department 89835 certified to enforce the state residential building code for the 89836 erection and construction of new residential buildings may also 89837 enforce the state residential building code for the repair and 89838 alteration of existing residential buildings upon obtaining the 89839 appropriate certification from the board, in accordance with 89840 this section, for the department and its personnel. 89841 department, personnel, or person may enforce only the type of 89842 building code for which certified. 89843

(3) The board shall not require a building department, its 89844 personnel, or any persons that it employs to be certified for 89845 residential building code enforcement if that building 89846 department does not enforce the state residential building code. 89847
The board shall specify, in rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 89848 119. of the Revised Code, the requirements for certification for 89849 residential and nonresidential building code enforcement, which 89850 shall be consistent with this division. The requirements for 89851 residential and nonresidential certification may differ. Except 89852 as otherwise provided in this division, the requirements shall 89853 include, but are not limited to, the satisfactory completion of 89854 an initial examination and, to remain certified, the completion 89855 of a specified number of hours of continuing building code 89856 education within each three-year period following the date of 89857 certification which shall be not less than thirty hours. The 89858 rules shall provide that continuing education credits and 89859 certification issued by the council of American building 89860 officials, national model code organizations, and agencies or 89861 entities the board recognizes are acceptable for purposes of 89862 this division. The rules shall specify requirements that are 89863 consistent with the provisions of section 5903.12 of the Revised 89864

Code relating to active duty military service and are 89865 compatible, to the extent possible, with requirements the 89866 council of American building officials and national model code 89867 organizations establish. 89868

(4) The board shall establish and collect a certification 89869 and renewal fee for building department personnel, and persons 89870 and employees of persons, firms, or corporations as described in 89871 this section, who are certified pursuant to this division. 89872

(5) Any individual certified pursuant to this division 89873 shall complete the number of hours of continuing building code 89874 education that the board requires or, for failure to do so, 89875 forfeit certification. 89876

(6) This division does not require or authorize the board 89877 to certify personnel of municipal, township, and county building 89878 departments, and persons and employees of persons, firms, or 89879 corporations as described in this section, whose 89880 responsibilities do not include the exercise of enforcement 89881 authority, the approval of plans and specifications, or making 89882 inspections under the state residential and nonresidential 89883 building codes. 89884

(7) Enforcement authority for approval of plans and 89885 specifications and enforcement authority for inspections may be 89886 exercised, and plans and specifications may be approved and 89887 inspections may be made on behalf of a municipal corporation, 89888 township, or county, by any of the following who the board of 89889 building standards certifies: 89890

(8) Municipal, township, and county building departments 89905 have jurisdiction within the meaning of sections 3781.03, 89906 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code, only with respect to 89907 the types of buildings and subject matters for which they are 89908 certified under this section. 89909

(9) A certified municipal, township, or county building 89910 department may exercise enforcement authority, accept and 89911 approve plans and specifications, and make inspections pursuant 89912 to sections 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code 89913 for a park district created pursuant to Chapter 1545. of the 89914 Revised Code upon the approval, by resolution, of the board of 89915 park commissioners of the park district requesting the 89916 department to exercise that authority and conduct those 89917 activities, as applicable. 89918

(10) Certification shall be granted upon application by 89919 the municipal corporation, the board of township trustees, or 89920 governing all of the following: 89947

(a) The certification of building department personnel and 89948 persons and employees of persons, firms, or corporations 89949 exercising authority pursuant to division (E) (7) of this 89950 section. The rules shall disqualify any employee of the 89951 department or person who contracts for services with the 89952 that work. 89962

(b) The minimum services to be provided by a certified 89963 building department. 89964

(12) The board of building standards may revoke or suspend 89965 certification to enforce the residential and nonresidential 89966 building codes, on petition to the board by any person affected 89967
own motion. Hearings shall be held and appeals permitted on any 89969 proceedings for certification or revocation or suspension of 89970 certification in the same manner as provided in section 3781.101 89971 building standards. 89973

(13) Upon certification, and until that authority is 89974 revoked, any county or township building department shall 89975 of the Revised Code or boards of township trustees under Chapter 89979

505. of the Revised Code. 89980

(b) The rules may require the third-party examiner or inspector be certified pursuant to sections 3781.10 and 3783.03 of the Revised Code and authorized to conduct such plans examination or inspection elsewhere in this state or to demonstrate equivalent competency as specified and determined by the board of building standards.

(c) Fees charged by a third-party examiner or inspector are in addition to any fees prescribed by the political subdivision pursuant to section 3781.102 of the Revised Code and 90010 are the responsibility of the building owner. 90011

(d) The issuance of certificates of plan approval under 90012 section 3791.04 of the Revised Code and certificates of 90013 occupancy or completion remains the exclusive authority of the 90014 certified personnel employed by or under contract with a 90015 certified municipal, township, and county building department 90016 and shall not be issued by a third-party examiner or inspector. 90017

(F) In addition to hearings sections 3781.06 to 3781.18 90018 and 3791.04 of the Revised Code require, the board of building 90019 standards shall make investigations and tests, and require from 90020 other state departments, officers, boards, and commissions 90021 information the board considers necessary or desirable to assist 90022 it in the discharge of any duty or the exercise of any power 90023 mentioned in this section or in sections 3781.06 to 3781.18, 90024
3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code. 90025

(G) The board shall adopt rules and establish reasonable 90026 fees for the review of all applications submitted where the 90027 applicant applies for authority to use a new material, assembly, 90028 or product of a manufacturing process. The fee shall bear some 90029 reasonable relationship to the cost of the review or testing of 90030 the materials, assembly, or products and for the notification of 90031 approval or disapproval as provided in section 3781.12 of the 90032
Revised Code. 90033

(H) The residential construction advisory committee shall 90034 provide the board with a proposal for a state residential 90035 building code that the committee recommends pursuant to division 90036 (D) (1) of section 4740.14 of the Revised Code. Upon receiving a 90037 recommendation from the committee that is acceptable to the 90038 board, the board shall adopt rules establishing that code as the 90039 state residential building code. 90040

(I) (1) The committee may provide the board with proposed 90041 rules to update or amend the state residential building code 90042 that the committee recommends pursuant to division (E) of 90043
section 4740.14 of the Revised Code. 90044

(2) If the board receives a proposed rule to update or 90045 amend the state residential building code as provided in 90046 division (I) (1) of this section, the board either may accept or 90047 reject the proposed rule for incorporation into the residential 90048 building code. If the board does not act to either accept or 90049 reject the proposed rule within ninety days after receiving the 90050 proposed rule from the committee as described in division (I) (1) 90051 of this section, the proposed rule shall become part of the 90052 residential building code. 90053

(J) The board shall cooperate with the director of 90054 children and youth when the director promulgates rules pursuant 90055 to section 5104.05 of the Revised Code regarding safety and 90056 sanitation in type A family child care homes. 90057

(K) The board shall adopt rules to implement the 90058 requirements of section 3781.108 of the Revised Code. 90059 department certified pursuant to division (E) of section 3781.10 90061 of the Revised Code as of September 14, 1970, and that, as of 90062 that date, was inspecting single-family, two-family, and three- 90063 family residences, and any township building department 90064 certified pursuant to division (E) of section 3781.10 of the 90065 Revised Code, is hereby declared to be certified to inspect 90066 single-family, two-family, and three-family residences 90067 containing industrialized units, and shall inspect the buildings 90068 or classes of buildings subject to division (E) of section 90069

3781.10 of the Revised Code. 90070

(B) Each board of county commissioners may adopt, by 90071 resolution, rules establishing standards and providing for the 90072 licensing of electrical and heating, ventilating, and air 90073 conditioning contractors who are not required to hold a valid 90074 and unexpired license pursuant to Chapter 4740. of the Revised 90075
Code. 90076

Rules adopted by a board of county commissioners pursuant 90077 to this division may be enforced within the unincorporated areas 90078 of the county and within any municipal corporation where the 90079 legislative authority of the municipal corporation has 90080 contracted with the board for the enforcement of the county 90081 rules within the municipal corporation pursuant to section 90082 307.15 of the Revised Code. The rules shall not conflict with 90083 rules adopted by the board of building standards pursuant to 90084 section 3781.10 of the Revised Code or by the department of 90085 commerce pursuant to Chapter 3703. of the Revised Code. This 90086 division does not impair or restrict the power of municipal 90087 corporations under Section 3 of Article XVIII, Ohio 90088 Constitution, to adopt rules concerning the erection, 90089 construction, repair, alteration, and maintenance of buildings 90090 and structures or of establishing standards and providing for 90091 the licensing of specialty contractors pursuant to section 90092
715.27 of the Revised Code. 90093

A board of county commissioners, pursuant to this 90094 division, may require all electrical contractors and heating, 90095 ventilating, and air conditioning contractors, other than those 90096 who hold a valid and unexpired license issued pursuant to 90097 Chapter 4740. of the Revised Code, to successfully complete an 90098 impose a fee and additional requirements for a license to engage 90100 in their respective occupations within the jurisdiction of the 90101 board's rules under this division. 90102

(C) No board of county commissioners shall require any 90103 specialty contractor who holds a valid and unexpired license 90104 issued pursuant to Chapter 4740. of the Revised Code to 90105 technical skills in order to engage in the type of contracting 90107 for which the license is held, within the unincorporated areas 90108 of the county and within any municipal corporation whose 90109 legislative authority has contracted with the board for the 90110 enforcement of county regulations within the municipal 90111 corporation, pursuant to section 307.15 of the Revised Code. 90112

(D) A board may impose a fee for registration of a 90113
specialty contractor who holds a valid and unexpired license 90114 issued pursuant to Chapter 4740. of the Revised Code before that 90115 specialty contractor may engage in the type of contracting for 90116 which the license is held within the unincorporated areas of the 90117 county and within any municipal corporation whose legislative 90118 authority has contracted with the board for the enforcement of 90119 county regulations within the municipal corporation, pursuant to 90120 section 307.15 of the Revised Code, provided that the fee is the 90121 same for all specialty contractors who wish to engage in that 90122 type of contracting. If a board imposes such a fee, the board 90123 immediately shall permit a specialty contractor who presents 90124

(N) An individual is "partially unemployed" in any week 92263 if, due to involuntary loss of work, the total remuneration 92264 payable to the individual for such week is less than the 92265 individual's weekly benefit amount. 92266

(O) "Week" means the calendar week ending at midnight 92267
Saturday unless an equivalent week of seven consecutive calendar 92268 days is prescribed by the director. 92269

(1) "Qualifying week" means any calendar week in an 92270 individual's base period with respect to which the individual 92271 earns or is paid remuneration in employment subject to this 92272 chapter. A calendar week with respect to which an individual 92273 earns remuneration but for which payment was not made within the 92274 base period, when necessary to qualify for benefit rights, may 92275 be considered to be a qualifying week. The number of qualifying 92276 weeks which may be established in a calendar quarter shall not 92277 exceed the number of calendar weeks in the quarter. 92278

(2) "Average weekly wage" means the amount obtained by 92279 dividing an individual's total remuneration for all qualifying 92280 weeks during the base period by the number of such qualifying 92281 weeks, provided that if the computation results in an amount 92282 that is not a multiple of one dollar, such amount shall be 92283 rounded to the next lower multiple of one dollar. 92284

(P) "Weekly benefit amount" means the amount of benefits 92285 an individual would be entitled to receive for one week of total 92286

(Q) (1) "Base period" means the first four of the last five 92288 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day 92289

(2) If an individual does not have sufficient qualifying 92292 weeks and wages in the base period to qualify for benefit 92293 rights, the individual's base period shall be the four most 92294 recently completed calendar quarters preceding the first day of 92295 the individual's benefit year. Such base period shall be known 92296 as the "alternate base period." If information as to weeks and 92297 wages for the most recent quarter of the alternate base period 92298 is not available to the director from the regular quarterly 92299 reports of wage information, which are systematically 92300 accessible, the director may, consistent with the provisions of 92301 section 4141.28 of the Revised Code, base the determination of 92302 eligibility for benefits on the affidavit of the claimant with 92303 respect to weeks and wages for that calendar quarter. The 92304 claimant shall furnish payroll documentation, where available, 92305 in support of the affidavit. The determination based upon the 92306 alternate base period as it relates to the claimant's benefit 92307 rights, shall be amended when the quarterly report of wage 92308 information from the employer is timely received and that 92309 information causes a change in the determination. As provided in 92310 division (B) of section 4141.28 of the Revised Code, any 92311 benefits paid and charged to an employer's account, based upon a 92312 claimant's affidavit, shall be adjusted effective as of the 92313 beginning of the claimant's benefit year. No calendar quarter in 92314 a base period or alternate base period shall be used to 92315 establish a subsequent benefit year. 92316

(3) The "base period" of a combined wage claim, as 92317 described in division (H) of section 4141.43 of the Revised 92318 Code, shall be the base period prescribed by the law of the 92319 state in which the claim is allowed. 92320

(4) For purposes of determining the weeks that comprise a 92321 completed calendar quarter under this division, only those weeks 92322 ending at midnight Saturday within the calendar quarter shall be 92323 utilized. 92324

(R) (1) "Benefit year" with respect to an individual means 92325
the fifty-two week period beginning with the first day of that 92326 week with respect to which the individual first files a valid 92327 application for determination of benefit rights, and thereafter 92328
the fifty-two week period beginning with the first day of that 92329 week with respect to which the individual next files a valid 92330 application for determination of benefit rights after the 92331 termination of the individual's last preceding benefit year, 92332 except that the application shall not be considered valid unless 92333 the individual has had employment in six weeks that is subject 92334 to this chapter or the unemployment compensation act of another 92335 state, or the United States, and has, since the beginning of the 92336 individual's previous benefit year, in the employment earned 92337 three times the average weekly wage determined for the previous 92338 benefit year. The "benefit year" of a combined wage claim, as 92339 described in division (H) of section 4141.43 of the Revised 92340 Code, shall be the benefit year prescribed by the law of the 92341 state in which the claim is allowed. Any application for 92342 determination of benefit rights made in accordance with section 92343 4141.28 of the Revised Code is valid if the individual filing 92344 such application is unemployed, has been employed by an employer 92345 or employers subject to this chapter in at least twenty 92346 qualifying weeks within the individual's base period, and has 92347 earned or been paid remuneration at an average weekly wage of 92348 not less than twenty-seven and one-half per cent of the 92349 statewide average weekly wage for such weeks. For purposes of 92350 determining whether an individual has had sufficient employment 92351 since the beginning of the individual's previous benefit year to 92352 file a valid application, "employment" means the performance of 92353 services for which remuneration is payable. 92354

determination of benefit rights made in accordance with section 92357 4141.28 of the Revised Code is valid if the individual satisfies 92358 the criteria described in division (R)(1) of this section, and 92359 if the reason for the individual's separation from employment is 92360 not disqualifying pursuant to division (D)(2) of section 4141.29 92361 or section 4141.291 of the Revised Code. A disqualification 92362 imposed pursuant to division (D)(2) of section 4141.29 or 92363 section 4141.291 of the Revised Code must be removed as provided 92364 in those sections as a requirement of establishing a valid 92365 application for benefit years beginning on and after December 26, 2004, but before July 1, 2022. Effective for benefit years beginning on and after July 1, 2022, any application for determination of benefit rights made in accordance with section 4141.28 of the Revised Code is valid if the individual satisfies the criteria described in division (R)(1) of this section. A disqualification imposed pursuant to division (D)(2) of section 4141.29 or section 4141.291 of the Revised Code does not affect the validity of an application.

(3) The statewide average weekly wage shall be calculated by the director once a year based on the twelve-month period ending the thirtieth day of June, as set forth in division (B)(3) of section 4141.30 of the Revised Code, rounded down to the nearest dollar. Increases or decreases in the amount of remuneration required to have been earned or paid in order for individuals to have filed valid applications shall become effective on Sunday of the calendar week in which the first day of January occurs that follows the twelve-month period ending the thirtieth day of June upon which the calculation of the statewide average weekly wage was based.

as prescribed by this chapter. Such contributions become due and 92827 shall be paid by each employer to the director of job and family 92828 services for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance 92829 with such regulations as the director prescribes, and shall not 92830 be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of 92831 individuals in the employer's employ. 92832

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of 92833 a dollar may be disregarded unless it amounts to fifty cents or 92834 more, in which case it may be increased to the next higher 92835 dollar. 92836

~~(B) (1) Any contribution or payment in lieu of 92837 contribution, due from an employer on or before December 31, 92838 1992, shall, if not paid when due, bear interest at the rate of 92839 ten per cent per annum. In such computation any fraction of a 92840 month shall be considered as a full month. 92841~~

~~(2) Any contribution, payment in lieu of contribution, 92842 interest, forfeiture, or fine due from an employer on or after 92843 January 1, 1993 before December 31, 2025, shall, if not paid when 92844 due, bear interest at the annual rate of fourteen per cent 92845 compounded monthly on the aggregate receivable balance due. In 92846 such computation any fraction of a month shall be considered as 92847 a full month. 92848~~

(2) Any contribution, payment in lieu of contribution, 92849
interest, forfeiture, or fine due from an employer on or after 92850 January 1, 2026, shall, if not paid when due, bear interest at 92851 the interest rate established by the state tax commissioner 92852 pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code, not exceeding 92853 fifteen per cent. In such computation any fraction of a month 92854 shall be considered as a full month. 92855

(C) The director may waive the interest assessed under 92856 division ~~(B) (2)~~ (B) of this section if the employer meets all of 92857 the following conditions within thirty days after the date the 92858 director mails or delivers the notice of assessment of interest: 92859

(1) Provides to the director a written request for a 92860 waiver of interest clearly demonstrating that the employer's 92861 failure to timely pay contributions, payments in lieu of 92862 contributions, interest, forfeiture, and fines was a result of 92863 circumstances beyond the control of the employer or the 92864 employer's agent, except that negligence on the part of the 92865 employer or the employer's agent shall not be considered beyond 92866 the control of the employer or the employer's agent; 92867

(2) Furnishes to the director all quarterly reports 92868 required under section 4141.20 of the Revised Code; 92869

(3) Pays in full all contributions, payments in lieu of 92870 contributions, interest, forfeiture, and fines for each quarter 92871 for which such payments are due. 92872

The director shall deny an employer's request for a waiver 92873 of interest after finding that the employer's failure to timely 92874 furnish reports or make payments as required under this chapter 92875 was due to an attempt to evade payment. 92876

(D) Any contribution, interest, forfeiture, or fine 92877 required to be paid under this chapter by any employer shall, if 92878 not paid when due, become a lien upon the real and personal 92879 property of such employer. Upon failure of such employer to pay 92880 the contributions, interest, forfeiture, or fine required to be 92881 paid under this chapter, the director shall file notice of such 92882 lien, for which there shall be no charge, in the office of the 92883 county recorder of the county in which it is ascertained that 92884 such employer owns real estate or personal property. The 92885 director shall notify the employer by mail of the lien. The 92886 absence of proof that the notice was sent does not affect the 92887 validity of the lien. Such lien shall not be valid as against 92888 the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser, judgment 92889 creditor, or other lienholder of record at the time such notice 92890 is filed. 92891

If the employer acquires real or personal property after 92892 notice of lien is filed, such lien shall not be valid as against 92893 the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, subsequent bona fide 92894 purchaser for value, judgment creditor, or other lienholder of 92895 record to such after-acquired property, unless the notice of 92896 lien is refiled after such property was acquired by the employer 92897 and before the competing lien attached to such after-acquired 92898 property or before the conveyance to such subsequent bona fide 92899 purchaser for value. 92900

Such a notice shall be recorded in the county recorder's 92901 official records and indexed in the direct and reverse indexes 92902 under the name of the employer. When such unpaid contributions, 92903 interest, forfeiture, or fines have been paid, the employer may 92904 record with the county recorder of the county in which such 92905 notice of lien has been filed and recorded, notice of such 92906 payment, and the notice of payment shall be recorded in the 92907 county recorder's official records and indexed in the direct and 92908 reverse indexes. For recording the notice of payment, the county 92909 recorder shall charge and receive from the employer a base fee 92910 of two dollars for services and a housing trust fund fee of two 92911 dollars pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code. 92912

(E) Notwithstanding other provisions in this section, the 92913 director may reduce, in whole or in part, the amount of 92914 interest, forfeiture, or fines required to be paid under this 92915 chapter if the director determines that the reduction is in the 92916 best interest of the unemployment compensation fund. 92917

(F) Assessment of contributions shall not be made after 92918 four years from the date on which such contributions became 92919 payable, and no action in court for the collection of 92920 contributions without assessment of such contributions shall be 92921 begun after the expiration of five years from the date such 92922 contributions became payable. In case of a false or fraudulent 92923 report or of a willful attempt in any manner to evade 92924 contributions, such contributions may be assessed or a 92925 proceeding in court for the collection of such contributions may 92926 be begun without assessment at any time. When the assessment of 92927 contributions has been made within such four-year period 92928 provided, action in court to collect such contributions may be 92929 begun within, but not later than, six years after such 92930 assessment. 92931

(G) In the event of a distribution of an employer's 92932 assets, pursuant to an order of any court under the law of this 92933 state, including any receivership, assignment for benefit of 92934 creditors, adjudicated insolvency, or similar proceedings, 92935 contributions, interest, forfeiture, or fine then or thereafter 92936 due have the same priority as provided by law for the payment of 92937 taxes due the state and shall be paid out of the trust fund in 92938 the same manner as provided for other claims for unpaid taxes 92939 due the state. 92940

(H) If the attorney general finds after investigation that 92941 any claim for delinquent contributions, interest, forfeitures, 92942 or fines owing to the director is uncollectible, in whole or in 92943 part, the attorney general shall recommend to the director the 92944 cancellation of such claim or any part thereof. The director may 92945 thereupon effect such cancellation. 92946

(C) REVIEW COMMISSION

92961

(1) JURISDICTION

92962

The commission shall provide an opportunity for a fair hearing to the interested parties of appeals over which the commission has jurisdiction. The commission has jurisdiction over an appeal on transfer or on direct appeal to the commission. If the commission concludes that a pending appeal does not warrant a hearing, the commission may remand the appeal to the director for redetermination. The commission retains jurisdiction until the appeal is remanded to the director or a final decision is issued and appealed to court, or the time to request a review or to appeal a decision of a hearing officer or

(2) CONDUCT OF HEARINGS

Hearings before the commission are held at the hearing officer level and the review level. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, initial hearings involving claims for compensation and other unemployment compensation issues are conducted at the hearing officer level by hearing officers appointed by the commission. Hearings at the review level are conducted by hearing officers appointed by the commission, by members of the commission acting either individually or collectively, and by members of the commission and hearing officers acting jointly. In all hearings conducted at the review level, the commission shall designate the hearing officer or officers who are to conduct the hearing. When the term "hearing officer" is used in reference to hearings conducted at the review level, the term includes members of the commission. All decisions issued at the review level are issued by the commission.

Provisions contained in the remainder of this paragraph apply to hearings at both the hearing officer level and the review level. The principles of due process in administrative hearings shall be applied to all hearings conducted under the authority of the commission. In conducting hearings, all hearing officers shall control the conduct of the hearing, exclude irrelevant or cumulative evidence, and give weight to the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. Hearing officers have an affirmative duty to question parties and witnesses in order to ascertain the relevant facts and to fully and fairly develop the record. Hearing officers are not bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of procedure. No person shall impose upon the claimant or the employer any burden of proof as is required in a court of law. The proceedings at hearings shall be recorded by mechanical means or otherwise as may be prescribed by the commission. In 93006 the absence of further proceedings, the record need not be 93007 transcribed. After considering all of the evidence, a hearing 93008 officer shall issue a written decision that sets forth the facts 93009 as the hearing officer finds them to be, cites the applicable 93010 law, and gives the reasoning for the decision. 93011

(3) HEARING OFFICER LEVEL 93012

When an appeal is transferred to the commission by the 93013 director, the commission shall notify all interested parties of 93014 the time and place of the hearing and assign the appeal for a 93015 hearing by a hearing officer. The hearings shall be de novo, 93016 except that the director's file pertaining to a case shall be 93017 included in the record to be considered. 93018

Following a hearing, the hearing officer shall affirm, 93019 modify, or reverse the determination of the director in the 93020 manner that appears just and proper. The hearing officer's 93021 written decision shall be sent to all interested parties. The 93022 decision shall state the right of an interested party to request 93023 a review by the commission. 93024

A request for review shall be filed within twenty-one days 93025 after the decision was sent to the party, or within an extended 93026 period as provided under division (D)(9) of this section. The 93027 hearing officer's decision shall become final unless a request 93028 for review is filed and allowed or the commission removes the 93029 appeal to itself within twenty-one days after the hearing 93030 officer's decision is sent. 93031

(4) REVIEW LEVEL 93032

At the review level, the commission may affirm, modify, or 93033 reverse previous determinations by the director or at the 93034 hearing officer level. At the review level, the commission may 93035 affirm, modify, or reverse a hearing officer's decision or 93036 remand the decision to the hearing officer level for further 93037 hearing. The commission shall consider an appeal at the review 93038 level under the following circumstances: when an appeal is 93039 required to be heard initially at the review level under this 93040 chapter; when the commission on its own motion removes an appeal 93041 to itself within twenty-one days after the hearing officer's 93042 decision is sent; when the assigned hearing officer refers an 93043 appeal to the commission before the hearing officer's decision 93044 is sent; or when an interested party files a request for review 93045 with the commission within twenty-one days after the hearing 93046

officer's decision is sent. 93047

(5) COMMISSION EXAMINATION 93048

The commission shall consider a request for review by an 93049 interested party, including the reasons for the request. The 93050 commission may adopt rules prescribing the methods for 93051 requesting a review. The commission may allow or disallow the 93052 request for review. The disallowance of a request for review 93053 constitutes a final decision by the commission. 93054

(6) REVIEW PROCEDURE 93055

If the commission allows a request for review, the 93056 commission shall notify all interested parties of that fact and 93057 provide a reasonable period of time, as the commission defines 93058 by rule, in which interested parties may file a response. After 93059 that period of time, the commission, based on the record before 93060 it, may do one of the following: affirm the decision of the 93061 hearing officer; provide for the appeal to be heard or reheard 93062 at the hearing officer or review level; provide for the appeal 93063 to be heard at the review level as a potential precedential 93064 decision; or provide for the decision to be rewritten without 93065 further hearing at the review level. When a further hearing is 93066 provided or the decision is rewritten, the commission may 93067 affirm, modify, or reverse the previous decision. 93068

If a member of the commission is unable or unavailable to 93069 consider an appeal allowed by the commission, the other members 93070 of the commission may appoint a hearing officer as a temporary 93071 commissioner to fulfill the unable or unavailable commissioner's 93072 duties with respect to the appeal. The members of the commission 93073 may not appoint the hearing officer who decided the appeal at 93074 the hearing officer level. 93075

(7) NOTICES 93076

The commission shall send written notice to all interested 93077 parties when it orders an appeal to be heard or reheard. The 93078 notice shall include the reasons for the hearing or rehearing. 93079

(8) PRECEDENTIAL 93080

An appeal the commission identifies as potentially 93081 precedential shall be heard at the review level. In the notice 93082 for that type of hearing, the commission shall notify the 93083 director, all interested parties, and any other parties, as the 93084 commission determines appropriate, that the appeal is designated 93085 as potentially precedential. After the hearing, parties shall be 93086 given the opportunity to submit briefs on the issue or issues 93087 involved. The commission may designate a decision as 93088 precedential after issuing the decision or at any point in the 93089 appeal process, even if the commission does not initially 93090 identify the appeal as potentially precedential. 93091

(9) MASS APPEALS 93092

When the commission determines that it has five appeals 93093 pending that have common facts or common issues, the commission 93094 may transfer the appeals to the review level on its own motion 93095 to be heard as a mass appeal, including appeals from claimants 93096 separated due to a labor dispute, on the condition that there 93097 are fewer than twenty-five claimants involved. 93098

To facilitate a mass hearing, the commission may allow an 93099 authorized agent to accept notice of hearing on behalf of 93100 claimants. An authorized agent may waive this notice of hearing 93101 and also the sending of decisions to individual claimants 93102 represented by the agent. 93103

(D) SPECIAL PROVISIONS 93104

(1) TIMELINESS OF APPEALS 93105

The date of the mailing provided by the director or the 93106 commission is sufficient evidence upon which to conclude that a 93107 determination, redetermination, or decision was sent to the 93108 party on that date. Appeals may be filed with the director, 93109 commission, with an employee of another state or federal agency 93110 charged with the duty of accepting claims, or with the 93111 unemployment insurance commission of Canada. Any timely written 93112 notice by an interested party indicating a desire to appeal 93113 shall be accepted. 93114

The director, commission, or authorized agent must receive 93115 the appeal within the specified appeal period in order for the 93116 appeal to be deemed timely filed, except that: if the United 93117 States postal service is used as the means of delivery, the 93118 enclosing envelope must have a postmark date or postal meter 93119 postmark that is on or before the last day of the specified 93120 appeal period; and where the postmark is illegible or missing, 93121 the appeal is timely filed if received not later than the end of 93122 the fifth calendar day following the last day of the specified 93123 appeal period. 93124

The director and the commission may adopt rules pertaining 93125 to alternate methods of filing appeals under this section. 93126

(2) WAIVER 93127

Interested parties may waive, in writing, a hearing at 93128 either the hearing officer or review level. If the parties waive 93129 a hearing, the hearing officer shall issue a decision based on 93130 the evidence of record. 93131

(3) TELEPHONE HEARINGS 93132

Hearing officers may conduct hearings at either the 93133 hearing officer or review level in person or by telephone or 93134 interactive video conference. The commission shall adopt rules 93135 that designate the circumstances under which hearing officers 93136 may conduct a hearing by telephone or interactive video 93137 conference or grant a party to the hearing the opportunity to 93138 object to a hearing by telephone or interactive video 93139 conference. An interested party whose hearing would be by 93140 telephone or interactive video conference may elect to have an 93141 in-person hearing, provided that the party agrees to have the 93142 hearing at the time and place the commission determines pursuant 93143 to rule. 93144

(4) EVENING HEARINGS 93145

Unless the commission grants a request for an evening 93146 telephone or interactive video conference hearing, hearing 93147 officers shall conduct hearings at the hearing officer and 93148 review level during normal business hours. An interested party 93149 who is regularly employed throughout those hours may request to 93150 have a hearing by telephone or interactive video conference 93151 during the evening. The commission shall grant or deny a request 93152 for an evening telephone or interactive video conference 93153 hearing. If a conflict concerning a request for an evening 93154 hearing and an in-person hearing arises, the commission shall 93155 schedule the hearing by telephone or interactive video 93156 conference during evening hours. 93157

(5) NO APPEARANCE -- APPELLANT 93158

For hearings at either the hearing officer or review 93159 level, if the appealing party fails to appear at the hearing, 93160 the hearing officer shall dismiss the appeal. The commission 93161 shall vacate the dismissal upon a showing that written notice of 93162 the hearing was not sent to that party's last known address, or 93163 good cause for the appellant's failure to appear is shown to the 93164 commission within fourteen days after the hearing date. 93165

If the commission finds that the appealing party's reason 93166 for failing to appear does not constitute good cause for failing 93167 to appear, the commission shall send written notice of that 93168 finding, and the appealing party may request a hearing to 93169 present testimony on the issue of good cause for failing to 93170 appear. The appealing party shall file a request for a hearing 93171 on the issue of good cause for failing to appear within ten days 93172 after the commission sends written notice indicating a finding 93173 of no good cause for failing to appear. 93174

(6) NO APPEARANCE -- APPELLEE 93175

For hearings at either the hearing officer or review 93176 level, if the appellee fails to appear at the hearing, the 93177 hearing officer shall proceed with the hearing and shall issue a 93178 decision based on the evidence of record. The commission shall 93179 vacate the decision upon a showing that written notice of the 93180 hearing was not sent to the appellee's last known address, or 93181 good cause for the appellee's failure to appear is shown to the 93182 commission within fourteen days after the hearing date. 93183

(7) AGENT 93184

Any appeal or request for review may be executed on behalf 93185 of any party or any group of claimants by an agent. 93186

(8) COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL 93187

No finding of fact or law, decision, or order of the 93188 director, hearing officer, the commission, or a reviewing court 93189 under this section or section 4141.28 of the Revised Code shall 93190 be given collateral estoppel or res judicata effect in any 93191 separate or subsequent judicial, administrative, or arbitration 93192 proceeding, other than a proceeding arising under this chapter. 93193

(9) EXTENSION OF APPEAL PERIODS 93194

The time for filing an appeal or a request for review 93195 under this section or a court appeal under section 4141.282 of 93196 the Revised Code shall be extended in the manner described in 93197 the following four sentences. When the last day of an appeal 93198 period is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal 93199 period is extended to the next work day after the Saturday, 93200 Sunday, or legal holiday. When an interested party provides 93201 certified medical evidence stating that the interested party's 93202 physical condition or mental capacity prevented the interested 93203 party from filing an appeal or request for review under this 93204 section within the appropriate twenty-one-day period, the appeal 93205 period is extended to twenty-one days after the end of the 93206 physical or mental condition, and the appeal or request for 93207 review is considered timely filed if filed within that extended 93208 period. When an interested party provides evidence, which 93209 evidence may consist of testimony from the interested party, 93210 that is sufficient to establish that the party did not actually 93211 receive the determination or decision within the applicable 93212 appeal period under this section, and the director or the 93213 commission finds that the interested party did not actually 93214 receive the determination or decision within the applicable 93215 appeal period, then the appeal period is extended to twenty-one 93216 days after the interested party actually receives the 93217 determination or decision. When an interested party provides 93218 evidence, which evidence may consist of testimony from the 93219 interested party, that is sufficient to establish that the party 93220 did not actually receive a decision within the thirty-day appeal 93221 period provided in section 4141.282 of the Revised Code, and a 93222 court of common pleas finds that the interested party did not 93223 actually receive the decision within that thirty-day appeal 93224 period, then the appeal period is extended to thirty days after 93225 the interested party actually receives the decision. 93226

Sec. 4141.29. Each eligible individual shall receive 93227 benefits as compensation for loss of remuneration due to 93228 involuntary total or partial unemployment in the amounts and 93229 subject to the conditions stipulated in this chapter. 93230

(A) No individual is entitled to a waiting period or 93231 benefits for any week unless the individual: 93232

(1) Has filed a valid application for determination of 93233 benefit rights in accordance with section 4141.28 of the Revised 93234
Code; 93235

(2) Has made a claim for benefits in accordance with 93236
section 4141.28 of the Revised Code; 93237

(3) (a) Has registered for work and thereafter continues to 93238 report to an employment office or other registration place 93239 maintained or designated by the director of job and family 93240 services. Registration shall be made in accordance with the time 93241 limits, frequency, and manner prescribed by the director. 93242

(b) For purposes of division (A)(3) of this section, an 93243 individual has "registered" upon doing any of the following: 93244

(i) Filing an application for benefit rights; 93245

(ii) Making a weekly claim for benefits; 93246

(iii) Reopening an existing claim following a period of 93247 employment or nonreporting. 93248

(c) After an applicant is registered, that registration 93249 continues for a period of three calendar weeks, including the 93250 week during which the applicant registered. However, an 93251 individual is not registered for purposes of division (A)(3) of 93252 this section during any period in which the individual fails to 93253 report, as instructed by the director, or fails to reopen an 93254 existing claim following a period of employment. 93255

(d) The director may, for good cause, extend the period of 93256 registration. 93257

(e) For purposes of this section, "report" means contact 93258 and, except as provided in division (A)(4)(a)(ii) or (iii) of 93262 this section, is actively seeking suitable work either in a 93263 locality in which the individual has earned wages subject to 93264 this chapter during the individual's base period, or if the 93265 individual leaves that locality, then in a locality where 93266 suitable work normally is performed. 93267

(ii) The director may waive the requirement that a 93268 claimant be actively seeking work when the director finds that 93269 the individual has been laid off and the employer who laid the 93270 individual off has notified the director within ten days after 93271 the layoff, that work is expected to be available for the 93272 individual within a specified number of days not to exceed 93273 forty-five calendar days following the last day the individual 93274 worked. In the event the individual is not recalled within the 93275 specified period, this waiver shall cease to be operative with 93276 respect to that layoff. 93277

(iii) The director may waive the requirement that a 93278 claimant be actively seeking work if the director determines 93279 that the individual has been laid off and the employer who laid 93280 the individual off has notified the director in accordance with 93281 division (C) of section 4141.28 of the Revised Code that the 93282 employer has closed the employer's entire plant or part of the 93283 employer's plant for a purpose other than inventory or vacation 93284 that will cause unemployment for a definite period not exceeding 93285 twenty-six weeks beginning on the date the employer notifies the 93286 director, for the period of the specific shutdown, if all of the 93287 following apply: 93288

(I) The employer and the individuals affected by the 93289 layoff who are claiming benefits under this chapter jointly 93290 request the exemption. 93291

(II) The employer provides that the affected individuals 93292 shall return to work for the employer within twenty-six weeks 93293 after the date the employer notifies the director. 93294

(III) The director determines that the waiver of the 93295 active search for work requirement will promote productivity and 93296 economic stability within the state. 93297

(iv) Division (A) (4) (a) (iii) of this section does not 93298 exempt an individual from meeting the other requirements 93299 specified in division (A) (4) (a) (i) of this section to be able to 93300 work and otherwise fully be available for work. An exemption 93301 granted under division (A) (4) (a) (iii) of this section may be 93302 granted only with respect to a specific plant closing. 93303

(b) (i) The individual shall be instructed as to the 93304 efforts that the individual must make in the search for suitable 93305 work, including that, within six months after October 11, 2013, 93306 the individual shall register with the OhioMeansJobs web site, 93307 except in any of the following circumstances: 93308

(I) The individual is an individual described in division 93309
(A) (4) (b) (iii) of this section; 93310

(II) Where the active search for work requirement has been 93311 waived under division (A) (4) (a) of this section; 93312

(III) Where the active search for work requirement is 93313 considered to be met under division (A) (4) (c), (d), or (e) of 93314
this section. 93315

(ii) An individual who is registered with the 93316
OhioMeansJobs web site shall receive a weekly listing of 93317 available jobs based on information provided by the individual 93318 at the time of registration. For each week that the individual 93319 claims benefits, the individual shall keep a record of the 93320 individual's work search efforts and shall produce that record 93321 in the manner and means prescribed by the director. 93322

(iii) No individual shall be required to register with the 93323
OhioMeansJobs web site if the individual is legally prohibited 93324 from using a computer, has a physical or visual impairment that 93325 makes the individual unable to use a computer, or has a limited 93326 ability to read, write, speak, or understand a language in which 93327 the OhioMeansJobs web site is available. 93328

(iv) As used in division (A) (4) (b) of this section: 93329

(I) "OhioMeansJobs web site" has the same meaning as in 93330
section 6301.01 of the Revised Code. 93331

(II) "Registration" includes the creation, electronic 93332 posting, and maintenance of an active, searchable resume. 93333 approved by the director meets the requirement of this division, 93335 if attendance was recommended by the director and the individual 93336 is regularly attending the course and is making satisfactory 93337 progress. An individual also meets the requirements of this 93338 division if the individual is participating and advancing in a 93339 training program, as defined in division (P) of section 5709.61 93340 of the Revised Code, and if an enterprise, defined in division 93341

(B) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, is paying all or 93342 part of the cost of the individual's participation in the 93343 training program with the intention of hiring the individual for 93344 employment as a new employee, as defined in division (L) of 93345 section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, for at least ninety days 93346 after the individual's completion of the training program. 93347

(d) An individual who becomes unemployed while attending a 93348 regularly established school and whose base period qualifying 93349 weeks were earned in whole or in part while attending that 93350 school, meets the availability and active search for work 93351 requirements of division (A) (4) (a) of this section if the 93352 individual regularly attends the school during weeks with 93353 respect to which the individual claims unemployment benefits and 93354 makes self available on any shift of hours for suitable 93355 employment with the individual's most recent employer or any 93356 other employer in the individual's base period, or for any other 93357

(a) of this section if the individual provides documentation 93363 that the individual is eligible for a referral or placement upon 93364 request and in a manner prescribed by the director. 93365

(f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, 93366 no otherwise eligible individual shall be denied benefits for 93367 any week because the individual is in training approved under 93368 section 236(a)(1) of the "Trade Act of 1974," 88 Stat. 1978, 19 93369 U.S.C.A. 2296, nor shall that individual be denied benefits by 93370 reason of leaving work to enter such training, provided the work 93371 left is not suitable employment, or because of the application 93372 to any week in training of provisions in this chapter, or any 93373 applicable federal unemployment compensation law, relating to 93374 availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to 93375 employment office or other place of registration maintained or 93445 it is shown that the individual is not financing, participating 93467 in, or directly interested in such labor dispute; 93468

(ii) The individual's employment was with an employer not 93469 dispute, unless the individual's employer is a wholly owned 93472 subsidiary of the employer engaged in the dispute, or unless the 93473 individual actively participates in or voluntarily stops work 93474 because of such dispute. If it is established that the claimant 93475 was laid off for an indefinite period and not recalled to work 93476 prior to the dispute, or was separated by the employer prior to 93477 the dispute for reasons other than the labor dispute, or that 93478 the individual obtained a bona fide job with another employer 93479 while the dispute was still in progress, such labor dispute 93480

(b) The individual has been given a disciplinary layoff 93482 for misconduct in connection with the individual's work. 93483

(2) For the duration of the individual's unemployment if 93484 employment and where such employment, if offered as new work, 93512 would be considered not suitable under the provisions of 93513 divisions (E) and (F) of this section. Any benefits that would 93514 otherwise be chargeable to the account of the employer from whom 93515 under division (D) (2) (a) (iii) of this section shall be charged 93522 to the account of the reimbursing employer and not to the 93523 mutualized account, except as provided in division (D) (2) of 93524

section 4141.24 of the Revised Code. 93525

(iv) When an individual has been issued a definite layoff 93526 date by the individual's employer and before the layoff date, 93527 section. However, if the individual fails to meet the employment 93531 and earnings requirements of division (A) (2) of section 4141.291 93532 of the Revised Code, then the individual, pursuant to division 93533 (A) (5) of this section, shall be ineligible for benefits for any 93534 week of unemployment that occurs prior to the layoff date. 93535

(v) The individual's spouse is a member of the armed 93536

~~purpose~~ purposes of division (D) (2) (a) (v) of this section, 93545

U.S.C. 101. 93547

(b) The individual has refused without good cause to 93548 accept an offer of suitable work when made by an employer either 93549 in person or to the individual's last known address, or has 93550 when directed to do so by a local employment office of this 93552 state or another state, provided that this division shall not 93553 cause a disqualification for a waiting week or benefits under 93554 the following circumstances: 93555

(i) When work is offered by the individual's employer and 93556 the individual is not required to accept the offer pursuant to 93557 the terms of the labor-management contract or agreement; or 93558

(ii) When the individual is attending a training course 93559 pursuant to division (A) (4) of this section except, in the event 93560 of a refusal to accept an offer of suitable work or a refusal or 93561 failure to investigate a referral, benefits thereafter paid to 93562 such individual shall not be charged to the account of any 93563 employer and, except as provided in division (B) (1) (b) of 93564 section 4141.241 of the Revised Code, shall be charged to the 93565 mutualized account as provided in division (B) of section 93566

4141.25 of the Revised Code. 93567

(c) Such individual quit work to marry or because of 93568 marital, parental, filial, or other domestic obligations. 93569

(d) The individual became unemployed by reason of 93570 commitment to any correctional institution. 93571

(e) The individual became unemployed because of dishonesty 93572 in connection with the individual's most recent or any base 93573 period work. Remuneration earned in such work shall be excluded 93574 from the individual's total base period remuneration and 93575 qualifying weeks that otherwise would be credited to the 93576 individual for such work in the individual's base period shall 93577 not be credited for the purpose of determining the total 93578 benefits to which the individual is eligible and the weekly 93579 benefit amount to be paid under section 4141.30 of the Revised 93580 Code. Such excluded remuneration and noncredited qualifying 93581 weeks shall be excluded from the calculation of the maximum 93582 amount to be charged, under division (D) of section 4141.24 and 93583 section 4141.33 of the Revised Code, against the accounts of the 93584 individual's base period employers. In addition, no benefits 93585

For purposes of division (D) (2) (e) of this section, 93588 "dishonesty" means the commission of substantive theft, fraud, 93589 or deceitful acts. 93590

(3) For purposes of division (D) (2) (a) of this section, an 93591 individual shall be considered to have quit work without just 93592 cause if all of the following apply: 93593

(a) The individual is provided temporary work assignments 93594 by the individual's employer under agreed terms and conditions 93595 conditions to inquire with the individual's employer for 93598 available work assignments upon the conclusion of each work 93599 assignment. 93600

(c) Suitable work assignments are available with the 93601 employer, but the individual fails to contact the employer to 93602 inquire about work assignments. 93603

(E) No individual otherwise qualified to receive benefits 93604 shall lose the right to benefits by reason of a refusal to 93605 accept new work if: 93606

(1) As a condition of being so employed the individual 93607 would be required to join a company union, or to resign from or 93608 refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization, or would 93609 be denied the right to retain membership in and observe the 93610 lawful rules of any such organization. 93611

(2) The position offered is vacant due directly to a 93612 strike, lockout, or other labor dispute. 93613

(3) The work is at an unreasonable distance from the 93614 individual's residence, having regard to the character of the 93615 work the individual has been accustomed to do, and travel to the 93616 place of work involves expenses substantially greater than that 93617 required for the individual's former work, unless the expense is 93618 provided for. 93619

(4) The remuneration, hours, or other conditions of the 93620 work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual 93621 than those prevailing for similar work in the locality. 93622

(F) Subject to the special exceptions contained in 93623 division (A) (4) (f) of this section and section 4141.301 of the 93624 Revised Code, in determining whether any work is suitable for a 93625 claimant in the administration of this chapter, the director, in 93626 addition to the determination required under division (E) of 93627 this section, shall consider the degree of risk to the 93628 claimant's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical 93629 fitness for the work, the individual's prior training and 93630 experience, the length of the individual's unemployment, the 93631 distance of the available work from the individual's residence, 93632 and the individual's prospects for obtaining local work. 93633

(G) The "duration of unemployment" as used in this section 93634 means the full period of unemployment next ensuing after a 93635 separation from any base period or subsequent work and until an 93636 or of the United States, and until such individual has worked 93639 six weeks and for those weeks has earned or been paid 93640 remuneration equal to six times an average weekly wage of not 93641 less than: eighty-five dollars and ten cents per week beginning 93642 on June 26, 1990; and beginning on and after January 1, 1992, 93643 twenty-seven and one-half per cent of the statewide average 93644 weekly wage as computed each first day of January under division 93645 (B) (3) of section 4141.30 of the Revised Code, rounded down to 93646 the nearest dollar, except for purposes of division (D) (2) (c) of 93647 this section, such term means the full period of unemployment 93648 next ensuing after a separation from such work and until such 93649 individual has become reemployed subject to the terms set forth 93650 above, and has earned wages equal to one-half of the 93651 individual's average weekly wage or sixty dollars, whichever is 93652 less. 93653

(H) If a claimant is disqualified under division (D) (2) 93654
(a), (c), or (d) of this section or found to be qualified under 93655 the exceptions provided in division (D) (2) (a) (i), (iii), (iv), 93656 or (v) of this section or division (A) (2) of section 4141.291 of 93657 the Revised Code, then benefits that may become payable to such 93658 claimant, which are chargeable to the account of the employer 93659 from whom the individual was separated under such conditions, 93660 shall be charged to the mutualized account provided in section 93661 4141.25 of the Revised Code, provided that no charge shall be 93662 made to the mutualized account for benefits chargeable to a 93663 reimbursing employer, except as provided in division (D) (2) of 93664 section 4141.24 of the Revised Code. In the case of a 93665 reimbursing employer, the director shall refund or credit to the 93666 account of the reimbursing employer any over-paid benefits that 93667 are recovered under division (B) of section 4141.35 of the 93668 Revised Code. Amounts chargeable to other states, the United 93669 States, or Canada that are subject to agreements and 93670 arrangements that are established pursuant to section 4141.43 of 93671 the Revised Code shall be credited or reimbursed according to 93672 the agreements and arrangements to which the chargeable amounts 93673 are subject. 93674

(I) (1) Benefits based on service in employment as provided 93675 in divisions (B) (2) (a) and (b) of section 4141.01 of the Revised 93676 Code shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and 93677 subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis 93678 of other service subject to this chapter; except that after 93679
December 31, 1977: 93680

(a) Benefits based on service in an instructional, 93681 research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution 93682 of higher education, as defined in division (Y) of section 93683 4141.01 of the Revised Code; or for an educational institution 93684 as defined in division (CC) of section 4141.01 of the Revised 93685 Code, shall not be paid to any individual for any week of 93686 unemployment that begins during the period between two 93687 successive academic years or terms, or during a similar period 93688 between two regular but not successive terms or during a period 93689 of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's 93690 contract, if the individual performs such services in the first 93691 of those academic years or terms and has a contract or a 93692 reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services 93693 in any such capacity for any such institution in the second of 93694 those academic years or terms. 93695

(b) Benefits based on service for an educational 93696 institution or an institution of higher education in other than 93697 capacity, shall not be paid to any individual for any week of 93699 unemployment which begins during the period between two 93700 successive academic years or terms of the employing educational 93701 institution or institution of higher education, provided the 93702 individual performed those services for the educational 93703 institution or institution of higher education during the first 93704 such academic year or term and, there is a reasonable assurance 93705 that such individual will perform those services for any 93706 educational institution or institution of higher education in 93707 the second of such academic years or terms. 93708

If compensation is denied to any individual for any week 93709 under division (I) (1) (b) of this section and the individual was 93710 not offered an opportunity to perform those services for an 93711 institution of higher education or for an educational 93712 institution for the second of such academic years or terms, the 93713 individual is entitled to a retroactive payment of compensation 93714 for each week for which the individual timely filed a claim for 93715 compensation and for which compensation was denied solely by 93716 reason of division (I)(1)(b) of this section. An application for 93717 retroactive benefits shall be timely filed if received by the 93718 director or the director's deputy within or prior to the end of 93719 the fourth full calendar week after the end of the period for 93720 which benefits were denied because of reasonable assurance of 93721 employment. The provision for the payment of retroactive 93722 benefits under division (I)(1)(b) of this section is applicable 93723 to weeks of unemployment beginning on and after November 18, 93724 1983. The provisions under division (I)(1)(b) of this section 93725 shall be retroactive to September 5, 1982, only if, as a 93726 condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the 93727

"Federal Unemployment Tax Act," 53 Stat. 183 (1939), 26 U.S.C.A. 93728 3301 to 3311, the United States secretary of labor determines 93729 that retroactivity is required by federal law. 93730

(c) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after 93731
December 31, 1977, benefits shall be denied to any individual 93732 for any week which commences during an established and customary 93733 vacation period or holiday recess, if the individual performs 93734 any services described in divisions (I)(1)(a) and (b) of this 93735 section in the period immediately before the vacation period or 93736 holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the 93737 individual will perform any such services in the period 93738 immediately following the vacation period or holiday recess. 93739

(d) With respect to any services described in division (I) 93740
(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, benefits payable on the 93741 basis of services in any such capacity shall be denied as 93742 specified in division (I)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section to 93743 any individual who performs such services in an educational 93744 institution or institution of higher education while in the 93745 employ of an educational service agency. For this purpose, the 93746 term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or 93747 governmental entity that is established and operated exclusively 93748 for the purpose of providing services to one or more educational 93749 institutions or one or more institutions of higher education. 93750

(e) Any individual employed by a county board of 93751 developmental disabilities shall be notified by the thirtieth 93752 day of April each year if the individual is not to be reemployed 93753 the following academic year. 93754

(f) Any individual employed by a school district, other 93755 than a municipal school district as defined in section 3311.71 93756 of the Revised Code, shall be notified by the first day of June 93757 each year if the individual is not to be reemployed the 93758 following academic year. 93759

(2) No disqualification will be imposed, between academic 93760 years or terms or during a vacation period or holiday recess 93761 under this division, unless the director or the director's 93762 deputy has received a statement in writing from the educational 93763 institution or institution of higher education that the claimant 93764 has a contract for, or a reasonable assurance of, reemployment 93765 for the ensuing academic year or term. 93766

(3) If an individual has employment with an educational 93767 institution or an institution of higher education and employment 93768 with a noneducational employer, during the base period of the 93769 individual's benefit year, then the individual may become 93770 eligible for benefits during the between-term, or vacation or 93771 holiday recess, disqualification period, based on employment 93772 performed for the noneducational employer, provided that the 93773 employment is sufficient to qualify the individual for benefit 93774 rights separately from the benefit rights based on school 93775 employment. The weekly benefit amount and maximum benefits 93776 payable during a disqualification period shall be computed based 93777 solely on the nonschool employment. 93778

(J) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of employment 93779 performed by an alien, unless the alien had been lawfully 93780 admitted to the United States for permanent residence at the 93781 time the services were performed, was lawfully present for 93782 purposes of performing the services, or was otherwise 93783 permanently residing in the United States under color of law at 93784 the time the services were performed, under section 212(d) (5) of 93785 the "Immigration and Nationality Act," 66 Stat. 163, 8 U.S.C.A. 93786 1101: 93787

(1) Any data or information required of individuals 93788 applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not 93789 payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly 93790 required from all applicants for benefits. 93791

(2) In the case of an individual whose application for 93792 benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that 93793 benefits to the individual are not payable because of the 93794 individual's alien status shall be made except upon a 93795 preponderance of the evidence that the individual had not, in 93796 fact, been lawfully admitted to the United States. 93797

(K) The director shall establish and utilize a system of 93798 profiling all new claimants under this chapter that: 93799 regular compensation and will need job search assistance 93801 services to make a successful transition to new employment; 93802

(2) Refers claimants identified pursuant to division (K) 93803
(1) of this section to reemployment services, such as job search 93804 assistance services, available under any state or federal law; 93805

(3) Collects follow-up information relating to the 93806 services received by such claimants and the employment outcomes 93807 for such claimant's subsequent to receiving such services and 93808 utilizes such information in making identifications pursuant to 93809 division (K) (1) of this section; and 93810

(4) Meets such other requirements as the United States 93811 secretary of labor determines are appropriate. 93812

(L) Except as otherwise provided in division (A) (6) of 93813 this section, ineligibility pursuant to division (A) of this 93814 section shall begin on the first day of the week in which the 93815 claimant becomes ineligible for benefits and shall end on the 93816 last day of the week preceding the week in which the claimant 93817 satisfies the eligibility requirements. 93818

(M) The director may adopt rules that the director 93819 considers necessary for the administration of division (A) of 93820
this section. 93821

application for classification of such employment as seasonal. 93843 Whenever in any industry it is customary to operate because of 93844 climatic conditions or because of the seasonal nature of such 93845 industry only during regularly recurring periods of forty weeks 93846 or less duration, benefits shall be payable only during the 93847 longest seasonal periods which the best practice of such 93848 industry will reasonably permit. The director shall determine, ~~after~~ 93849 ~~investigation, hearing, and due notice,~~ whether the 93850 industry is seasonal and, if seasonal, establish seasonal 93851 periods for such seasonal employer. The director shall make the 93852 determination based on the application for classification filed 93853 under this section and any other relevant information available. 93854 Until such determination by the director, no industry or 93855 employment shall be deemed seasonal. 93856

(C) When the director has determined such seasonal 93857 performs services that significantly consist of services 93885 performed in seasonal employment shall not be paid benefits for 93886 seasonal periods if the individual performed those services in 93888 the first of the seasonal periods and there is reasonable 93889 assurance that the individual will perform those services in the 93890 later of the seasonal periods. The director shall adopt rules 93891 for the implementation of this division. 93892 basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of 93894 participating in sports or athletic events or training or 93895 preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during 93896 the period between two successive sport seasons, or similar 93897 periods, if the individual performed services in the first of 93898 the seasons, or similar periods, and there is a reasonable 93899
