SYNOPSIS

There are no substantive changes to the law created by this Bill. This Bill constitutes a clarification of the effect of the consumer law changes in House Substitute 1 for House Bill No. 247, enacted last year. Several sections in Chapter 25 of Title 6 contained references to § 2517 of Title 29, which was substantially modified by House Substitute 1 (moving the powers contained therein to several other sections). The Code Revisors designated § 2517 of Title 29 as “repealed” because of the changes to the section. This Bill eliminates the reference to § 2517 of Title 29 as having been repealed and provides a more general reference to the location of the relocated powers as “Chapter 25 of Title 29.”
