IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2013

Introduced by M. of A. GALEF, DUPREY, GUNTHER, OAKS, CROUCH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the process for local disciplinary actions against assessors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 324 to read as follows:

3 § 324. Local disciplinary actions. An assessor may be removed from 4 office for just cause by the appointing authority after a hearing upon 5 notice. A determination to remove an assessor or take other disciplinary 6 action as a result of the removal proceeding against an assessor shall 7 be subject to review by the commissioner or his or her designee within 8 the department upon application filed with the department by the asses-9 sor within thirty days after receipt by him or her of written notice of 10 such determination. The review by the commissioner or his or her desig-11 nee within the department shall be based upon the record and a tran-12 script of the hearing held by the appointing authority and such oral or 13 written argument as may be presented to the commissioner or his or her 14 designee within the department by the parties to the proceeding. Upon 15 completion of such review the commissioner or his or her designee within 16 the department shall affirm, reverse or modify the determination of the 17 appointing authority. The determination of the commissioner or his or 18 her designee within the department shall be subject to judicial review 19 in accordance with the provisions of article seventy-eight of the civil 20 practice law and rules.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
