AN ACT to amend the family court act, in relation to reentry of former foster children into foster care

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 6 of section 355.3 of the family court act, as 2 amended by chapter 663 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as 3 follows:
4 6. Successive extensions of placement under this section may be grant-5 ed, but no placement may be made or continued beyond the respondent's 6 eighteenth birthday without [~~the child's~~] his or her consent and in no
7 event past [~~the child's~~] his or her twenty-first birthday. A respondent, 8 who was previously placed with a local social services district pursuant 9 to section 353.3 of this chapter, including a district that has an 10 approved "close to home" plan, and who did not consent to remain in care 11 beyond his or her eighteenth birthday, as would be required in order to 12 remain in care, may move or, with his or her consent, may be the subject 13 of a motion by a social services official to reenter foster care in 14 accordance with the provisions of section one thousand ninety-one of 15 this act. A respondent, who was previously placed with, or transferred 16 to, the office of children and family services for placement in a non-17 secure level of care and who did not consent to remain in care beyond
18 his or her eighteenth birthday, as would be required in order to remain
19 in care, may move or, with his or her consent, may be the subject of a 20 motion by the office to reenter placement with the office in accordance

1 with the provisions of section one thousand ninety-one of this act; 2 provided, however, that no such respondent reentering placement with the 3 office shall be placed in a facility directly operated by the office
4 pursuant to section five hundred four of the executive law.

5 § 2. Subdivision (f) of section 756-a of the family court act, as 6 added by chapter 604 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

7 (f) Successive extensions of placement under this section may be 8 granted, but no placement may be made or continued beyond the child's 9 eighteenth birthday without his or her consent and in no event past his 10 or her twenty-first birthday. A child, who was previously placed with a 11 local social services district pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-12 six of this chapter, and who did not consent to remain in care beyond
13 his or her eighteenth birthday, as would be required in order to remain
14 in care, may move or, with his or her consent, may be the subject of a 15 motion by a social services official to reenter foster care in accord-16 ance with the provisions of section one thousand ninety-one of this act.

17 § 3. Section 1091 of the family court act is amended by adding a new 18 subdivision (d) to read as follows:

19 (d) For purposes of this section, "former foster care youth" shall 20 include a youth under the age of twenty-one who did not consent to 21 remain in foster care beyond his or her eighteenth birthday, as would be 22 required in order to remain in care, and who had been placed in foster
23 care pursuant to article three, seven, ten, ten-a or ten-c of this act 24 or section three hundred fifty-eight-a of the social services law or who 25 has been freed for adoption in accordance with section six hundred thir-
26 ty-six of this act or section three hundred eighty-three-c, three 27 hundred eighty-four or three hundred eighty-four-b of the social 28 services law but who has not yet been adopted.

29 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
