(b) If an attempted abortion results in the live birth of an infant, the infant is a legal person for all purposes under the laws of this Commonwealth;

(c) It is not an infringement on a woman’s right to terminate her pregnancy for this Commonwealth to assert its interest in protecting an infant whose live birth occurred as the result of an attempted abortion; and

(d) Without proper legal protection, newly born infants who survive attempted abortions will be denied appropriate life-saving or life-sustaining medical care and treatment and will be left to die.

(2) Based on the findings in subsection (1) of this section, the purposes of Sections 1 to 7 of this Act are to:

(a) Ensure the protection and promotion of the health and well-being of all infants born alive in this Commonwealth; and

(b) Mandate that healthcare providers give medically appropriate and appropriate and reasonable medical care and treatment to the infant; or

2. Medical facility other than a hospital results in a live birth, the physician attending the abortion shall provide immediate medical care to the infant and call 911 for an emergency transfer of the infant to a hospital that shall provide medically appropriate and reasonable medical care and treatment to the infant.

In addition, if death occurs after birth, a death certificate shall be issued.

(4) If, before the abortion, the mother, and if married, her husband, has or have stated in writing that she does, or they do, not wish to keep the infant in the event that the abortion results in a live birth, and this writing is not retracted before the attempted abortion, the infant, if born alive, shall immediately upon birth become a ward of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

(5) No person shall use any born alive infant for any type of scientific research or other kind of experimentation except as necessary to protect or preserve the life and health of the born alive infant.

3 of this Act; and

(3) Provide a basis for recovery for the parent of the infant, or the parent or guardian of the mother if the mother is a minor, for the wrongful death of the infant, whether or not the infant was viable at the time the attempted abortion was performed.
