 158 purchaser also presents a copy of his Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles driver's record showing

 162 person who is not a citizen of the United States or who is not a person lawfully admitted for permanent

 165 review its criminal history record information to determine if the buyer or transferee is prohibited from 166 possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law, (b) inform the dealer if its record indicates 167 that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited, and (c) provide the dealer with a unique reference number 168 for that inquiry.

169 2. The State Police shall provide its response to the requesting dealer during the dealer's request, or

 171 purchaser or transferee has a disqualifying criminal record or has been acquitted by reason of insanity
 172 and committed to the custody of the Commissioner of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, 173 the State Police shall have until the end of the dealer's next business day to advise the dealer if its 174 records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state
 175 or federal law. If not so advised by the end of the dealer's next business day, a dealer who has fulfilled 176 the requirements of subdivision 1 may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be 177 deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer. In case of electronic failure or 178 other circumstances beyond the control of the State Police, the dealer shall be advised immediately of 179 the reason for such delay and be given an estimate of the length of such delay. After such notification,
 180 the State Police shall, as soon as possible but in no event later than the end of the dealer's next business 181 day, inform the requesting dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from 182 possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. A dealer who fulfills the requirements of 183 subdivision 1 and is told by the State Police that a response will not be available by the end of the 184 dealer's next business day may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in 185 violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer.

186 3. Except as required by subsection D of § 9.1-132, the State Police shall not maintain records longer
187 than 30 days, except for multiple handgun transactions for which records shall be maintained for 12
188 months, from any dealer's request for a criminal history record information check pertaining to a buyer
189 or transferee who is not found to be prohibited from possessing and transporting a firearm under state or 190 federal law. However, the log on requests made may be maintained for a period of 12 months, and such 191 log shall consist of the name of the purchaser, the dealer identification number, the unique approval 192 number and the transaction date.

193 4. On the last day of the week following the sale or transfer of any firearm, the dealer shall mail or 194 deliver the written consent form required by subsection A to the Department of State Police. The State 195 Police shall immediately initiate a search of all available criminal history record information to 196 determine if the purchaser is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm under state or federal 197 law. If the search discloses information indicating that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited from 198 possessing or transporting a firearm, the State Police shall inform the chief law-enforcement officer in 199 the jurisdiction where the sale or transfer occurred and the dealer without delay.

200 5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, rifles and shotguns may be purchased by 201 persons who are citizens of the United States or persons lawfully admitted for permanent residence but 202 residents of other states under the terms of subsections A and B upon furnishing the dealer with one 203 photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the person's state of residence and one
204 other form of identification determined to be acceptable by the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

205 6. For the purposes of this subsection, the phrase "dealer's next business day" shall not include 206 December 25.

207 C. No dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any firearm, except when the 208 transaction involves a rifle or a shotgun and can be accomplished pursuant to the provisions of 209 subdivision B 5 to any person who is not a resident of Virginia unless he has first obtained from the 210 Department of State Police a report indicating that a search of all available criminal history record
211 information has not disclosed that the person is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm
212 under state or federal law. The dealer shall obtain the required report by mailing or delivering the 213 written consent form required under subsection A to the State Police within 24 hours of its execution. If 214 the dealer has complied with the provisions of this subsection and has not received the required report
215 from the State Police within 10 days from the date the written consent form was mailed to the 216 Department of State Police, he shall not be deemed in violation of this section for thereafter completing 217 the sale or transfer.

218 D. Nothing herein shall prevent a resident of the Commonwealth, at his option, from buying, renting
219 or receiving a firearm from a dealer in Virginia by obtaining a criminal history record information check 220 through the dealer as provided in subsection C.

221 E. If any buyer or transferee is denied the right to purchase a firearm under this section, he may 222 exercise his right of access to and review and correction of criminal history record information under 223 § 9.1-132 or institute a civil action as provided in § 9.1-135, provided any such action is initiated within 224 30 days of such denial.

225 F. Any dealer who willfully and intentionally requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain criminal history 226 record information under false pretenses, or who willfully and intentionally disseminates or seeks to

338 Exchange to be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the purpose of obtaining 339 national criminal history record information regarding the applicant.

340 C. Prior to August 1, 2000, the dealer shall obtain written statements or affirmations from persons
341 employed before July 1, 2000, to act as a seller under § 18.2-308.2:2 that they are not disqualified from 342 possessing a firearm. Within five working days of the employee's next birthday, after August 1, 2000, 343 the dealer shall submit the employee's fingerprints and personal descriptive information to the Central 344 Criminal Records Exchange to be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the 345 purpose of obtaining national criminal history record information regarding the request.

346 C1. In lieu of submitting fingerprints pursuant to this section, any dealer holding a valid federal 347 firearms license (FFL) issued by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) may submit a
348 sworn and notarized affidavit to the Department of State Police on a form provided by the Department,
349 stating that the dealer has been subjected to a record check prior to the issuance and that the FFL was 350 issued by the ATF. The affidavit may also contain the names of any employees that have been subjected 351 to a record check and approved by the ATF. This exemption shall apply regardless of whether the FFL
352 was issued in the name of the dealer or in the name of the business. The affidavit shall contain the valid 353 FFL number, state the name of each person requesting the exemption, together with each person's 354 identifying information, including their social security number and the following statement: "I hereby 355 swear, under the penalty of perjury, that as a condition of obtaining a federal firearms license, each
356 person requesting an exemption in this affidavit has been subjected to a fingerprint identification check
357 by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms
358 subsequently determined that each person satisfied the requirements of 18 U.S.C. § 921 et seq. I
359 understand that any person convicted of making a false statement in this affidavit is guilty of a Class 5
360 felony and that in addition to any other penalties imposed by law, a conviction under this section shall 361 result in the forfeiture of my federal firearms license."

362 D. The Department of State Police, upon receipt of an individual's record or notification that no
363 record exists, shall submit an eligibility report to the requesting dealer within 30 days of the applicant
364 beginning his duties for new employees or within 30 days of the applicant's birthday for a person
365 employed prior to July 1, 2000.

366 E. If any applicant is denied employment because of information appearing on the criminal history
367 record and the applicant disputes the information upon which the denial was based, the Central Criminal

Records Exchange shall, upon written request, furnish to the applicant the procedures for obtaining a copy of the criminal history record from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The information provided to the dealer shall not be disseminated except as provided in this section.

F. The applicant shall bear the cost of obtaining the criminal history record unless the dealer, at his option, decides to pay such cost.

G. Upon receipt of the request for a criminal history record information check, the State Police shall establish a unique number for that firearm seller. Beginning September 1, 2001, the firearm seller's signature, firearm seller's number and the dealer's identification number shall be on all firearm transaction forms. The State Police shall void the firearm seller's number when a disqualifying record is discovered. The State Police may suspend a firearm seller's identification number upon the arrest of the firearm seller for a potentially disqualifying crime.

H. This section shall not restrict the transfer of a firearm at any place other than at a dealership or at any event required to be registered as a gun show.

I. Any person who willfully and intentionally requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain criminal history record information under false pretenses, or who willfully and intentionally disseminates or seeks to disseminate criminal history record information except as authorized by this section and § 18.2-308.2:2, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

J. Any person willfully and intentionally making a materially false statement on the personal descriptive information required in this section shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony. Any person who offers for transfer any firearm in violation of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Any dealer who willfully and knowingly employs or permits a person to act as a firearm seller in violation of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

K. There is no civil liability for any seller for the actions of any purchaser or subsequent transferee of a firearm lawfully transferred pursuant to this section.

L. The provisions of this section requiring a seller's background check shall not apply to a licensed dealer.

M. Any person who willfully and intentionally makes a false statement in the affidavit as set out in subdivision C 1 shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony.

N. For purposes of this section:

"Dealer" means any person, corporation or proprietorship licensed as a dealer pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 921 et seq.

CHAPTER 9.2.

SUBSTANTIAL RISK ORDERS.

§ 19.2-152.13. Emergency substantial risk order.

A. Upon the petition of either an attorney for the Commonwealth or two law-enforcement officers [supported by an affidavit of supporting facts] , [after consulting with the attorney for the Commonwealth,] a judge of a circuit court, general district court, or juvenile and domestic relations district court or a magistrate, upon a finding that there is probable cause to believe that a person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or others in the near future by such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm, shall issue an ex parte emergency substantial risk order. Such order shall prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, possessing, or transporting a firearm for the duration of the order. In determining whether probable cause for the issuance of an order exists, the judge or magistrate shall consider any relevant evidence, including any recent act of violence, force, or threat as defined in § 19.2-152.7:1 by such person directed toward another person or toward himself, and whether any reasonable alternative exists. No petition shall be filed unless an independent investigation has been conducted by law enforcement that determines that grounds for the petition exist. The order shall contain a statement (i) informing the person who is subject to the order of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.1:6, including that it is unlawful for such person to purchase, possess, or transport a firearm for the duration of the order and that such person is required to surrender his concealed handgun permit if he possesses such permit, and (ii) advising such person to voluntarily relinquish any firearm within his custody to the law-enforcement agency that serves the order.

B. Upon service of an emergency substantial risk order, the person who is subject to the order shall

429 be given the opportunity to voluntarily relinquish any firearm, though voluntary relinquishment shall not 430 preclude a law-enforcement officer from later obtaining a search warrant to search for any firearms if a 431 law-enforcement officer has reason to believe that the person who is subject to an emergency substantial
432 risk order has not relinquished all firearms in his possession. The law-enforcement agency that executed
433 the emergency substantial risk order shall take custody of all firearms that are voluntarily relinquished
434 by such person. The law-enforcement agency that takes into custody a firearm pursuant to the order 435 shall prepare a written receipt containing the name of the person who is subject to the order and the 436 manufacturer, model, condition, and serial number of the firearm and shall provide a copy thereof to 437 such person.

438 C. The petition for an emergency substantial risk order shall be made under oath and shall be 439 supported by an affidavit.

440 D. An emergency substantial risk order issued pursuant to this section shall state the initial hearing
441 date and expire at 11:59 p.m. on the fourteenth day following issuance of the order. If the expiration 442 occurs on a day that the circuit court for the jurisdiction where the order was issued is not in session, 443 the order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the circuit court is in session. The 444 person who is subject to the order may at any time file with the circuit court a motion to dissolve the 445 order.

446 E. An emergency substantial risk order issued pursuant to this section is effective upon personal 447 service on the person who is subject to the order. The order shall be served forthwith after issuance. A 448 copy of the order, petition, and supporting affidavit shall be given to the person who is subject to the 449 order together with a notice informing the person that he has a right to a hearing under § 19.2-152.14
450 and may be represented by counsel at the hearing.

451 F. The court or magistrate shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day 452 on which the emergency substantial risk order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the 453 Virginia Criminal Information Network the identifying information of the person who is subject to the 454 order provided to the court or magistrate. A copy of an order issued pursuant to this section containing 455 any such identifying information shall be forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency
456 responsible for service and entry of the order. Upon receipt of the order by the primary 457 law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the 458 identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police
459 into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant 460 to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith upon the person who 461 is subject to the order and due return made to the court. However, if the order is issued by the circuit 462 court, the clerk of the circuit court shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order containing the 463 identifying information of the person who is subject to the order provided to the court to the primary 464 law-enforcement agency providing service and entry of the order. Upon receipt of the order by the 465 primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and 466 other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 467 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 468 seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith upon the person who is subject to the order.
469 Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate
470 information required into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court.
471 If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be 472 attested and forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and 473 entry of the order. Upon receipt of the dissolution or modification order by the primary law-enforcement 474 agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying 475 information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the 476 Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to 477 Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to 478 the court.

479 G. The law-enforcement agency that serves the emergency substantial risk order shall make due
480 return to the circuit court, which shall be accompanied by a written inventory of all firearms 481 relinquished.

482 H. Proceedings in which an emergency substantial risk order is sought pursuant to this section shall 483 be commenced where the person who is subject to the order (i) has his principal residence or (ii) has 484 engaged in any conduct upon which the petition for the emergency substantial risk order is based.

485 I. A proceeding for a substantial risk order shall be a separate civil legal proceeding subject to the 486 same rules as civil proceedings.

487 § 19.2-152.14. Substantial risk order.

488 A. Not later than 14 days after the issuance of an emergency substantial risk order pursuant to 489 § 19.2-152.13, the circuit court for the jurisdiction where the order was issued shall hold a hearing to 490 determine whether a substantial risk order should be entered. The attorney for the Commonwealth for the jurisdiction that issued the emergency substantial risk order shall represent the interests of the Commonwealth. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the person subject to the emergency substantial risk order and the attorney for the Commonwealth. However, upon motion of the respondent and for good cause shown, the court may continue the hearing. The order shall remain in effect until the hearing. The Commonwealth shall have the burden of proving all material facts by clear and convincing evidence. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future by such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm, the court shall issue a substantial risk order. Such order shall prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, possessing, or transporting a firearm for the duration of the order. In determining whether clear and convincing evidence for the issuance of an order exists, the judge shall consider any relevant evidence including any recent act of violence, force, or threat as defined in § 19.2-152.7:1 by such person directed toward another person or toward himself. The order shall contain a statement (i) informing the person who is subject to the order of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.1:6, including that it is unlawful for such person to purchase, possess, or transport a firearm for the duration of the order and that such person is required to surrender his concealed handgun permit if he possesses such permit, and (ii) advising such person to voluntarily relinquish any firearm that has not been taken into custody to the law-enforcement agency that served the emergency substantial risk order.

B. If the court issues a substantial risk order pursuant to subsection A, the court shall order that any firearm that was previously relinquished pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 from the person who is subject to the substantial risk order continue to be held by the agency that has custody of the firearm for the duration of the order and shall also advise such person that a law-enforcement officer may obtain a search warrant to search for any firearms from such person if such law-enforcement officer has reason to believe that such person has not relinquished all firearms in his possession.

If the court finds that the person does not pose a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future, the court shall order that any firearm that was previously relinquished be returned to such person in accordance with the provisions of § 19.2-152.15.

C. The substantial risk order may be issued for a specified period of time up to a maximum of 180 days. The order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the 180-day period if no date is specified. Prior to the expiration of the order, an attorney for the Commonwealth or a law-enforcement officer may file a written motion requesting a hearing to extend the order. Proceedings to extend an order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. The court may extend the order for a period not longer than 180 days if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person continues to pose a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future by such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm at the time the request for an extension is made. The extension of the order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the 180-day period if no date is specified. Nothing herein shall limit the number of extensions that may be requested or issued. The person who is subject to the order may file a motion to dissolve the order one time during the duration of the order; however, such motion may not be filed earlier than 30 days from the date the order was issued.

D. Any person whose firearm has been voluntarily relinquished pursuant to this section or § 19.2-152.13, or such person's legal representative, may transfer the firearm to another individual 21 years of age or older who is not otherwise prohibited by law from possessing such firearm, provided that:

1. The person subject to the order and the transferee appear at the hearing;
2. At the hearing, the attorney for the Commonwealth advises the court that a law-enforcement agency has determined that the transferee is not prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm;
3. The transferee does not reside with the person subject to the order;
4. The court informs the transferee of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.2:1; and
5. The court, after considering all relevant factors and any evidence or testimony from the person subject to the order, approves the transfer of the firearm subject to such restrictions as the court deems necessary.

The law-enforcement agency holding the firearm shall deliver the firearm to the transferee within five days of receiving a copy of the court's approval of the transfer.

E. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the substantial risk order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the identifying information of the person who is subject to the order provided to the court and shall forthwith forward the attested copy of the order containing any such identifying information to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of the order. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith upon the person who is subject to the order and due return made to the court. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court. If the person who is subject to an emergency substantial risk order fails to appear at the hearing conducted pursuant to this section because such person was not personally served with notice of the hearing pursuant to subsection A, or if personally served was incarcerated and not transported to the hearing, the court may extend the emergency substantial risk order for a period not to exceed 14 days. The extended emergency substantial risk order shall specify a date for a hearing to be conducted pursuant to this section and shall be served forthwith on such person and due return made to the court. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested and forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of the order. Upon receipt of the dissolution or modification order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network, and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

§ 19.2-152.15. Return or disposal of firearms.

A. Any firearm taken into custody pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14, or by a search warrant for a person who has failed to voluntarily relinquish his firearm, and held by a law-enforcement agency shall be returned by such agency to the person from whom the firearm was taken upon a court order for the return of the firearm issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.14 or the expiration or dissolution of an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14. Such agency shall return the firearm within five days of receiving a written request for the return of the firearm by the person from whom the firearm was taken and a copy of the receipt provided to such person pursuant to § 19.2-152.13. Prior to returning the firearm to such person, the law-enforcement agency holding the firearm shall confirm that such person is no longer subject to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14 and is not otherwise prohibited by law from possessing a firearm.

B. A firearm taken into custody pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14, or by a search warrant for a person who has failed to voluntarily relinquish his firearm, and held by a law-enforcement agency may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 15.2-1721 if (i) the person from whom the firearm was seized provides written authorization for such disposal to the agency or (ii) the firearm remains in the possession of the agency more than 120 days after such person is no longer subject to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14 and such person has not submitted a request in writing for the return of the firearm.

§ 19.2-152.16. False statement to law-enforcement officer, etc.; penalty.

Any person who knowingly and willfully makes any materially false statement or representation to a law-enforcement officer or attorney for the Commonwealth who is in the course of conducting an investigation undertaken pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 19.2-152.17. Immunity of law-enforcement officers, etc.; chapter not exclusive.

A. An attorney for the Commonwealth or a law-enforcement officer shall be immune from civil liability for any act or omission related to petitioning or declining to petition for a substantial risk order pursuant to this chapter.

B. Any law-enforcement agency or law-enforcement officer that takes into custody, stores, possesses, or transports a firearm pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14, or by a search warrant for a person who has failed to voluntarily relinquish his firearm, shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for any damage to or deterioration, loss, or theft of such firearm.

C. Nothing in this chapter precludes a law-enforcement officer from conducting a search for a firearm or removing a firearm from a person under any other lawful authority.

§ 19.2-387.3. Substantial Risk Order Registry; maintenance; access.

A. The Department of State Police shall keep and maintain a computerized Substantial Risk Order Registry (the Registry) for the entry of orders issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14. The purpose of the Registry shall be to assist the efforts of law-enforcement agencies to protect their communities and their citizens. The Department of State Police shall make the Registry information available, upon request, to criminal justice agencies, including local law-enforcement agencies, through the Virginia Criminal Information Network (VCIN). Registry information provided under this section shall be used only for the purposes of the administration of criminal justice as defined in § 9.1-101.

B. No liability shall be imposed upon any law-enforcement official who disseminates information or fails to disseminate information in good faith compliance with the requirements of this section, but this provision shall not be construed to grant immunity for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or

614 commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4 of the Code of Virginia, the estimated amount of the 615 necessary appropriation cannot be determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult
616 correctional facilities; therefore, Chapter 854 of the Acts of Assembly of 2019 requires the Virginia
617 Criminal Sentencing Commission to assign a minimum fiscal impact of $50,000. Pursuant to 618 § 30-19.1:4 of the Code of Virginia, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot be 619 determined for periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice.
620 3. That the Supreme Court shall create standard forms to implement the intent of this act.
