urant actvity.

optimized tobacco products that may help tackle other products. Tobacco products help that the illicit trade in and counterfeiting, annually realizing in more $5 billion in lost deviation of illegal tobacco products through these department of alcohol, tobacco and firearms, the

the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, the businesses posed by these products. According to balance the needs of law enforcement, not sufficiently remedied counterfeit tobacco. I believe the bill does not appropriately

whilst I commend the sponsors for addressing the issue of permitting immediate forfeiture and destruction.

permits these counterfeit under New Jersey’s counterfeit code,

loopholes products to the illicit trade are considered to be the manufacturers. Finally, the bill would add counterfeit equipment to be destroyed, rather than sold back to additional bill, the bill requires all undercover operations for law operations of other legitimate investigative purposes.

This bill would prevent state law enforcement agencies from

BILL NO. 2115 WITH MY RECOMMENDATION FOR RECONSIDERATION.

Jersey Constitution, I am returning Senate Substitutes for Senate

pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New

To the Senate:

SENATE BILL NO. 2115
SENATE SUBSTITUTE FOR

May 12, 2011

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
After "enforcement purposes" omission, substitute: "to determine whether enforcement of this act would be frustrated by actions taken by the person alleged to have committed the offense."

After "force of law" omission, substitute: "as a result of the force of such law enforcement."
Governor

Sincerely,

[Signature]

J. P. J. 1999, c. 228,

§ 3. Every person who fails to secure a license under this act, shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars for each violation thereof. Any person who fails to secure a license under this act, shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars for each violation thereof. Any person who fails to secure a license under this act, shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars for each violation thereof. Any person who fails to secure a license under this act, shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars for each violation thereof.

94-02

 Executors:

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that under the laws of Jersey, a resident of

for the sum of

in the name of

as Executor of

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

3